Hartland

During the last week frequent showers and heavy rains, warm with but little sunshine.

Due it may be to the new Road Act, that we have good roads in every direction.

With cheerless countenance we notice quite a number hauling potatoes to the station to be sold for 50cts a bbl, while in the field half the crop lies rotting.

Several typographical errors in my last, one of which I will mention the word purity instead of party. I said the election was run on party lines, to substitute the word purity admits of a doubt and causes criticism. Your com-editor may reply by saying "write plainer young man."

J. O. Everett will be pleased to receive subscribers to the Sentinel for $1.00 until 1st January 1911.

School tax bills now distributing. Small discount if paid in six days. The rating is not exorbitant in view of the advantages possessed.

Miss Thistle is at present clerk in the Post Office.

The Observer is growing in interest and ought to have a place in every home in the country, 50cts a year.

Mr and Mrs W. D. Keith have returned from a pleasant visit to Boston.

Harness and parts thereof at Everett's Agency, where Spavin Cure, Marriage licences, Alligator Liniment, whips and shoe findings can be obtained.

Selected—What must be the rich man's feelings when he first wakes up in the world beyond the sunrise, to find that his pockets have been picked by burglar death, of the keys to his safe—when he realizes that, forever, he can have no more handling of his gold? How it musticken his soul to see his accumulations scattered by profligate heirs, or wasted in unprofitable litigation. Better oblivion then such a fate! How many such we could all name, whose souls are thus chained to Nights Plutonian shore.

Trust your accounts with J. C. Everett for collection. As soon as the money is obtained no time will be lost in getting it to you.

Granite cutter and wife are about to move to Bauger, leaving a good opening for monument works.

Mr Anderson, traveller for W. C. Purves, St. Stephen, wholesale grocer called upon us a few days since.

Potatoes to all appeared perfectly sound, are rotting in the cellars.

Miss Nettie M. Dickinson, formerly of Hartland, now of Ashland, was in town a few days since.

The wedding of Claude Thistle to Miss Nellie McAdam took place at the home of the brides sister Mrs H. D. Keswick. Rev Mr Steeves (Baptist) officiating.

A largely attended temperance meeting took place in Hagerman & Baird Hall on Wednesday evening last. Chalmers, J. T. G. Carr. Speeches by Hon J. K. Fleming, Rev E. L. Steeves and Rev Geo Somers, which made the meeting interesting.

An effort is being made to resuscitate the Lodge of I. O. G. T. for sometime deceased.

It is possible that there is as little liquor drinking in Hartland as in any place of its size in the province. Still there are some old toppers who must have their grog. They are spotted and find it difficult to obtain a prescription.

The money lost by a young girl who was on her way to buy a money order, if found, has not been returned to owner.

D. J. Coughlin and Miss McGrath attended church at Newburg on Sunday last.

Joseph Melvin of Carleton had one of his legs broken a few days ago. Dr Curtis was called.

Rev F. I. Bertram of Meductic paid us a pleasant visit one day last week, which we highly appreciated.

Wardie Thorntons barber shop is centrally located in the Gillinblock. His business is rapidly increasing. Wardie is first class in his profession.

Ziba Orser is again established in his old quarters with a complete stock of Hardware, stoves &c.

A. B. Hallett and family have moved into the tenement over the hardware store. Miss Hamilton, clerk for Hagerman & Baird will work with them. She is a sister of Mrs Hallett.

The house in course of construction on opposite side of the river by Mr Baker of McLaughlin Company is nearing completion.
