

Seeing is Believing

Mrs G C Mills of Robinson, Me has been to several opticians for defective sight. They could not see vision from the right eye and she was obliged to wear a special pair of glasses. She developed and fitted with glasses by a rather startling new discovery by C E Vail, Optician of Contrevelle, N.B.

Mrs Chas Gee of Summerfield, N.B. has not seen out of her right eye for 21 years. Five years ago she was obliged to go to a Montreal Hospital where for 3 weeks she was treated by the celebrated eye specialist, Dr. Buller. He told her she would never have any use of that defective eye. Mr Vail, however, by means of his marvelous discovery fitted her with glasses that developed the eye to perfect sight.

Mr Vail has been in optical work and research for the past ten years. Two years ago he graduated from the Canadian Optical Institute, at Montreal receiving therefrom a first class diploma. Of late he has been in deep research along new lines and has discovered means by which many ordinarily hopeless cases can be successfully restored to perfect vision. He is pleased to examine your eyes free of all charge.

He also dispenses all kinds of lenses.

GEORGIA LETTER.

DEAR SENTINEL:—This is Oct 4th, 1909, a memorable day to me. Fifty years ago this morning at 4 a.m. I boarded Charley Giddons' stage bound for Georgia. As we welcomed the hills on the Houlton Road I looked back as a farewell look at the town I loved so well but little dream of what lay out before me in going to seek my fortune, in a strange land, and among strange people, and slave labor. I breakfasted at the Snell House in Houlton; staged from there to Calais; Charley Rose, the driver; boated from there to Portland, railroaded from there to New York; boated from there to Savannah, Ga., thence to Spire's Turnout, No. 11 Central Ry; there I began putting my anticipations, into practice, seeking my fortune, and I found it, but it was badly mixed. It came hard and rough, thick and thin, rocky and smooth. So, thank God, I have passed through it all until the days and years of my pilgrimage is three score and sixteen years, and I can chew sugar-cane with my natural teeth as good as any Georgian. My health is good but memory poor. I had a treat the other day from your town in a letter from a dear old friend giving me much desired information and refreshed my mind about many people and things and happenings of fifty years ago. I certainly enjoyed it. So glad the walls of that much talked of court house is up and will soon stand as an ornament to your town, and a credit to that grand old Carleton Co. I have been much interested of late in reading in your columns the brightening prospect of Canada. She is getting to be of much note among the nations of the world. I read recently an elaborate account in one of our church papers, written by a man from Ga., of the wonderful progress of the missionary movement in Canada. It is a wonderful and encouraging report. The missionary cause has grown to be an interesting question in this country. That is as it should be. In a recent letter of mine to you in speaking of the father of the little boy that was made drunk in your town fifty odd years ago, his name was Kip Louky. A few of your people may yet live who knew him.

These are busy times in Georgia, and all over the cotton belt. Farmers are rushing their cotton to market and are getting a good price for it. This makes the sturdy farmer feel good. I had one say to another yesterday if he felt much better he thought he could not stand it. This high market for cotton is very much needed here. It will help poor people to pay their debts, especially if they want to. This doesn't want to, is a nature some people are cursed with. I like a man whose obligations never die with old age. I hope Andover has learned a lesson that they can hand down to posterity, namely, to bury their dead horses. Do them like I do, my sore-headed chickens when they die, bury them at once under some grape vine or fruit tree. I have gathered my little crop of corn, 100 bushels, enough to feed the old mare, Trixie, and our numerous fowls for the year and supply my table with a hoe cake at each meal, three times a day. You see, people here live much like people do everywhere.

Our little town receives some days, several hundred bales of cotton and at present prices are 12¢ per lb. That scatters quite a lot of cash over the rural districts. And of course, the merchants are gathering in their harvest. I am glad you are working up a trade with Cuba. That man, Kirkpatrick, you have there, seems to be level headed. I used to know a family of fine people in Richmond, I think it was, who were very nice people by the same name. Your agent may be one of that family. You seem to get hold of some happenings in Georgia. I saw a notice of a crime that was committed not far from here, a heretofore reputable man disguising himself as a negro woman, and by false telegrams, enticed a lady from her home pretending she was taking her to see a brother that had been badly hurt, which proved to be false. He was tried, convicted, and sentenced to a penitentiary for 12 months, a very light sentence for such a crime. How are the right ones fallen. I hope some one of my friends will send me a postal card showing the new court house when it is finished. And when you close the last saloon, I would love to see that, also the late blind tiger with both eyes wide open and seeking other and more honorable business. Thank God! the temperance movement is growing and spreading. We are to go to hear a lady from Mississippi lecture on temperance tonight. We expect something good.

This is a day of speed and wonder. The Iron Chariots, (automobiles) jostle against each other in our streets, men sail through the air, and others claim a trip to the north pole. Well, you will be surprised when you see me alighting in your town from an airship, ha, ha. Well good bye.

Fifteen Years of Agony

"Fruit-a-tives" Promptly Cured Him After Doctors Had Failed To Give Relief.

CHARLES BARRETT, Esq.

Harbor at Bouche, Antigonish Co., N.S., March 24, 1909.

"I wish to express my sincere appreciation of the great benefit received from taking 'Fruit-a-tives.' I suffered from Biliousness and Dyspepsia for fifteen years and I consulted physicians and took many kinds of ordinary medicine, but got no relief. I was in miserable health all the time and nothing did me any good. I read the testimonial of Archibald McKee, of Ottawa, and I decided to try 'Fruit-a-tives.' I have taken a number of boxes of 'Fruit-a-tives,' but before I had taken one box I felt better and now am entirely well. 'I am thankful to be well after fifteen years suffering, and I am willing to have this statement published for the sake of other sufferers, and to them I strongly recommend 'Fruit-a-tives.'"

"Peculiar thing about women, isn't it?" said the benedict.

"What's peculiar about them?" questioned the innocent bachelor.

"Why," explained the other, "after a woman gets married she wonders three times a day as long as she lives what to get for the next meal."

IT IS IN DEMAND—So great is the demand for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil that a large factory is kept continually busy making and bottling it. To be in demand shows popular appreciation of this preparation, which stands at the head of proprietary compounds as the leading Oil in the market, and it is generally admitted that it is deserving of the lead.

Richmond Farmer Pops up Again

Editor Carleton Sentinel:

DEAR SIR:—Since I last wrote, more outrages have occurred on the Houlton Road. A man of your town was returning home, he met an auto going out the Houlton Road, the men in it were that drunk they were leaning over the seats. The man was greeted with a drunken whoop.

As three girls were driving home after night they met a carriage going toward Woodstock and one of them called out in a frightened voice, "there is an auto." A little farther on they met the auto, the driver with traditional auto courtesy kept the centre of the road.

As your scribe was driving into town he gave a lady a ride. As she got into the carriage she said, "Well I am lucky," my brother was ed me to take the horse and carriage but I was afraid of meeting an auto." The lady said that on Friday morning she was sitting in front of Mr. Williams store holding an umbrella, an auto came across the creek bridge and ran within a foot of her carriage. A merchant who saw the performance exclaimed well, that was a trick for those fellows to do when they saw it was a lady holding the horse.

Now Mr Editor, when such tricks are done in Woodstock you can form some idea of what is done on the Houlton Road as the majority of them belong to the same nation as the Hooligan's who tied the emblem of the British Empire to the hind part of their auto and dragged it around the city of Toronto.

Now, Mr Editor, I said nothing, upholding the party who placed the rails on the Houlton Road.

If you or any one wish to know the names of those who have been outraged on the Houlton Road by the auto drivers, I can give them to you for investigation as to the truth of my statements.

THE MOTOR SPEED CRAZE.

About all society can do is to assert its right to self preservation. Men will take risks with their own lives, but they have no right to endanger the lives of others. There are those who drive in motor cars and their tendency seems to be to take an inch where they are allowed an inch. These are enemies of the community, their pleasure a menace to the lives of pedestrians, and especially of children. The motor car affords its owner new opportunities to obtain the enjoyment that comes from the control of power, but it does not place him above the law. If he gets the idea that it does he ought to be summarily set right. It would be good for his health.—Montreal Herald.

Mr and Mrs Wm B Everett have returned from Presque Isle and expect to leave for Vancouver in a few days.

Down in South Carolina there was a man who hired a lawyer to conduct a case in court. As the lawyer was not talking exactly to suit him, he got up to make a few remarks himself. The judge, of course, made him take his seat. He got up again, and the judge made him take his seat again. A third and fourth time this happened, and finally, the old farmer got up and said: "Well, judge, if you won't let me talk, won't you let me think?"

"Why certainly," replied the judge.

"Well, judge," he said, "I think you and all these lawyers are a set of d-d rascals."
