GENTLEMEN:—For several years I have used your ACA-DIAN LINIMENT, but recently have not been able to obtain it.

I can truly say it is the best LINIMENT I have ever used, and can confidently recommend it to the public.

Yours very truly
ALFRED CHRISTIE.

MOONEY'S.

You needn't be afraid.

One day a lady who had been reared in the careful luxury of the old-fashioned English home was invited to visit the kitchen of a great metropolitan hotel. She wanted to go, but was afraid. When asked why, she replied, "I'm afraid I'll see something that will forever destroy my appetite for hotel food." She went, and found everything delightfully clean.

Good housewives consider cleanliness and purity first of all; that's why Quaker Oats is their choice among all oatmeals. In making Quaker Oats the grain is sifted and resifted, passing through more than fifty processes of cleaning before it is cooked and rolled.

If you took a handful of oats and scrubbed and polished and wiped each separate grain, it wouldn't then be nearly as clean as Quaker Oats. No human hand ever touches a single grain of Quaker Oats from the field to your kitchen. The best advice on foods you could have is: Eat Quaker Oats every morning for breakfast.

You'll find Quaker Oats put up in two size packages, the regular size and the large, family size for those who are not convenient to the store. The large package contains a piece of handsome china for the table. Quaker Oats is one of Canada's greatest products.

The Birch Tree's Doings.

who entered that transformed back yard?

Needless to say that every one who was bidden came, and some who were not, and none so poor but found some bit of finery to grace the occasion, while all looked and wondered and were glad. Katie and Tom were as eager and happy as two children.

What matter that the ice cream was in paper boxes and eaten with tin spoons, and that the cakes were cheaper because they were stale? No matter at all, not even to a tall old gentleman who had called to collect his rents, and who followed out into the back yard to find his tenants. The agent was sick, and Mr Lewiston had come himself to-day.
Being a stranger he was called into the garden's festivities, and given ice-cream despite his hurried processes. Had they known who he was they would not have dared, and when they did know, they were frightened and apologetic.

But the party went merrily on, and every man, woman and child had a flower to carry home. As twilight fell on the denuded garden, stripped now of every blossom, Tom and Katie returned to their seat beneath the birch tree and there found Mr Lewiston still sitting.

"I don't know you," he said, "and you don't know me—but you are my tenants and I came quite unexpectedly to your party. I wish you would tell me more about it."

Very simply the story was told, and in the dark Mr Lewiston put out his hand and touched the tree.

He said nothing when he went away, but Tom and Katie, tired and happy, were too full of other thoughts to notice that. They even failed to wonder that he came several times again. What more natural than that he should want to see the white birch-tree? But at last he spoke, and what he said concerned Tom. He was in need of just such a man to care for his country place.

He was quite sure that his friend the oculist could remove the cataracts from Tom's eyes and restore his sight. Was Tom willing? Ay, more than willing—thankful and happy.
And would Tom go? Gratefully, indeed, if—and then Tom leaned over and took both Katie's worn little hands in his—if Katie would go, too, for life without Katie, here or there, was something he would never voluntarily face again. And Katie clasped his hand close, and leaned her happy cheek against the cool trunk of the white birch-tree and wept and was glad.

What a Great Man Said to the Great American People.

Parisian Sage is a discovery of a celebrated scientist, who spent the best years of his life in perfecting this great hair tonic.

In giving his recipe to the American people he said, "Parisian Sage is the most delightful hair dressing in the world, but it is more than a hair dressing. It cures dandruff by killing the germs that infest the roots of the hair; strength to the hair roots. E. W. Mair sells Parisian Sage at 50 cents a large bottle and guarantees it to do all that is claimed for it, or your money is refunded.
If you do not reside near a druggist, who sells Parisian Sage, send 50 cents to Giroux Mfg Co, Fort Erie, Ont., and a bottle will be sent you all charges prepaid.

The 1909 edition of "5000 Facts About Canada" says: Canada's population estimated by Census Bureau on March 31, 1908, at 6,863,300. Increase of 358,600 over 1907; 1,492,103 in seven years.

Canada's population, 1901, 5,371, 315.
Canada's population by first census of 1665, 3,251; 1689, 13,385; 1739, 42, 701; 1763, 70,000; 1784, 113,012; 1867, 3,500,000.

If the present growth is kept up the population of Canada will be 8,- 000,000 by next census of 1911.

Canada began 20th century with same population as the United States began the 19th.

Canada has over 40 countries and nationalities represented in her population.

Canada has more than one-half of the white population of all Britain's colonies.

If Canada were as thickly populated as the British Isles, it would have over a billion people.

UNHEALTHY WOMEN.

Lose Color. Constantly
Weary, Look Wrinkled, Hollow.

They all get health—Vitality—Vim Strength from Ferrozone.

Once you use the celebrated nerve vitalizer and tonic, Ferrozone—once you feel its magic powers, working through your weakened system—then you'll know for sure that health at last awaits you.

So much quicker and surer is Fer-rozone to rebuild and restore than thousands use no other medicine.

"Because I am now well," writes Miss I. P. Sinclair, from Sault Ste Marie, "I feel it my duty to tell every young woman what benefit I got from Ferrozone. I grew very thin, and at twenty-five years old my face was hollow and wrinkled—my color was bad and I looked ten years beyond my age. I was nervous and hysterical, couldn't sleep, had no appetite, burst into tears at the least provocation. Then I worried, feared I would go into decline, and was so depressed every morning that life was no longer happy.

"I was astonished at the quick and thorough action of Ferrozone. It gave me permanent strength and vitality, nervous fears disappeared, indigestion and stomach weakness were cured. Sound sleep returned. I looked better and younger, had clear color. I gained in weight, felt happy, vigorous, strong.—It is a year since I first took Ferrozone. It has restored me to health I never knew before and I will continue to recommend it as the grandest tonic and strengthen-er on earth."

Very few girls and women are so abundant in health as to not require medicine. Nothing excels Ferrozone in supplying strength, blood and nerve power. Not a stimulant, but a nourishing tonic is Ferrozone. 50c per box or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers. Try Ferrozone. Do it to day.

Passenger—You don't say! How did it occur?

Mate—I went to sleep in the bath tub and forgot to turn off the water.

As our new correspondent showed up again last week, I will try again this week, but I find notes hard to find, it is very quiet at present, as farming is the sole business here at present, the farmers are nearly done sowing with the exception of buckwheat and turnips and some have sown their turnips.

Miss Celia Wilson is home from Mrs E. A. Savage of Pioneer has been quite sick, but is improving.

Dr Fields was called.

Mrs Cyrus Reed and children, Centerville, were guests of her parents, Mr and Mrs John McAuley, Pioneer, last week.

Miss Mamie Emery spent last week at E. A. Savages.

Miss Lena Bearisto and Miss Grant, Fort Fairfield, were guests at Dr Bearisto's Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs McLeod, Wilmot, is spending a few weeks with her grand-daughter, Mrs Johnie Gillis.

Mrs Thomas Baker, Woodstock, was the guest of her mother, Mrs Jane Gillis, last Sunday, who accompanied her back to Woodstock.

Mr and Mrs James Porter, Monticello, Me, spent Sunday with friends at Lakeville.

Miss Celia Wilson and Sadie Jameson were guests of Mrs Robert Gillis on Monday.

Mr Sherwood, Kings County, is the guest of Mr Hoar, Albert Co, now teacher at Lakeville.

Mrs William Armstrong and her sister, Miss Josie Currey, were guests at Mr John Watters last Sunday.

We are glad to know that Mrs Geo Smith of Lakeville, who fell and hurt herself quite badly is improving.

Mrs Powers, Houlton, was the guest of Mr and Mrs Ruel Fowler,

It has been a very late and backward spring for the farmers, but the last three weeks have been fine and dry. It is now almost too dry, and we need rain very much.

The revival meetings have closed.
Quite a number were baptised and these with about ten others were taken in the United Baptist Church.
R. M. Beety of St John, took charge of the work, assisted by Rev Mr Rutledge of Temperanceville.

Mr Alfred Stairs has bought the Tabor Farm and moved in.

Nevers Fox has moved to Woodstock.

Mr Pearly Fox has moved from the Feero farm to the A Way place and W. K. Oldham has moved from the corner back to the old homestead.

Mrs Bishop who was visiting her daughter, Mrs William Brown has returned home again.

Mrs John N Grant has moved from the farm on the hill to the corner.

Miss Lily Grant, (Nurse at the Fredericton Hospital) is home on a short visit.

Mr Lea Brown, son of F. O. Brown, who underwent an operation for appendicitis is on the way to recovery.

Mr Richard Cronkhite and Wendale Phillips who broke their legs some time ago are able to be out again.

Mr Melburn Patterson left last week for New York city.

The young men are all leaving the place as there is no outlet for the farmer in this locality. No railway or any prospect of any, or boat either, twenty miles from Woodstock and forty four miles from Fredericton. It is no wonder the farmer is discouraged.

Her clear eyes shone, her pretty face was flushed, and advancing to the edge of the platform, she cried warmly:

"You deny us the vote! Yet it is to your wives that most of you owe your business success!"

A tired, stoop-shouldered old man nodded assent.

"Certainly," he muttered, "our wives make it absolutely necessary for us to earn more money."

Cures Children's Croupy Colds.

At this season of cold, searching winds and changeable weather, children will catch cold, will contract croup, bronchitis and sore throat. The experienced mother knows of nothing half so good as a vigorous rubbing of neck and chest with Nerviline—rub it in well, and apply a Nerviline Porous Plaster.
If the case is obstinate, give twenty drops of Nerviline in hot sweetened water every four hours.

This treatment is simply wonderful—swollen, inflamed tissues are soothed and healed, coughing is promptly allayed, hard, strong phlegm is loosened and every trace of cold and cough disappears.

Nerviline is so safe to use, so powerful, so penetrating—makes such a good all-round household remedy that for nearly fifty years thousands of bottles are used every day.

NERVILINE

Remember the name Nerviline, and refuse any substitute that a druggist may ask you to take instead of Nerviline. Large bottles 25c

Tonic or Stimulant?

There is an immense difference between a tonic and a stimulant. Up one day, way back the next; that's a stimulant. Steady progress day by day toward perfect health; that's a tonic. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic, a strong tonic. The only Sarsaparilla entirely free from alcohol. Do not stimulate unless your doctor says so.

SAVING MONEY.

Most men intend to save money, but with the average man this intention is never realized. One of the surest and best methods of saving money is presented by means of Life Insurance, as the amount regularly paid by way of premium on a policy is actually saved, while the additional benefit of protection for the family or dependent ones is afforded by the policy. It will be greatly to your advantage to begin saving money at once by procur-
