"It's hard to lose a beautiful daughter," said the wedding guest sympathetically.

"It's a blamed sight harder to lose the homely ones," replied the old man who had several yet to go.

THE PILL THAT LEADS THEM ALL.—Pills are the most portable and compact of all medicines, and when easy to take are the most acceptable of preparations. But they must attest their power to be popular. As Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are the most popular of all pills they must fully meet all requirements. Accurately compounded and composed of ingredients proven to be effective in regulating the digestive organs, there is no surer medicine to be had anywhere.

HOW WEAK GIRLS
MAY GROW INTO
STRONG WOMEN

The Blood Supply Must be Kept Rich, Red and Pure—Good Blood Means Good Health.

Healthy girlhood is the only path to healthy womanhood. The merging of girlhood into womanhood lays a new tax upon the blood. It is the overtaxing of the scanty blood supply that makes growing girls suffer from all those headaches, backaches and sideaches—all that paleness, weakness and weariness—all that languor, despondency and constant ill health.

Unhealthy girlhood is bound to lead to unhealthy womanhood and a life of misery. Nothing but the blood-building qualities of Dr Williams Pink Pills can save a girl when she undertakes the trials and tasks of womanhood. That is the time when nature makes new demands upon the blood supply. Dr Williams' Pink Pills actually make new, rich blood which meets those new demands with ease. In this simple scientific way Dr Williams' Pink Pills fill a girl with overflowing health and strength.

Miss Eva Dennis, Amherst, N. S., says:—"Dr Williams' Pink Pills have done me a world of good. I was completely run down, was very pale easily tired and suffered from frequent severe headaches. Though I tried many medicines I got nothing to do me the least good until I began using Dr Williams' Pink Pills. Even the first box of these seemed to help me, and after taking a half dozen boxes I was again a strong, healthy girl. I have not had any illness since, but should I again feel run down Dr Williams' Pink Pills will be my only medicine, and I strongly recommend them to every weak and ailing girl."

Dr Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by The Dr Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Florenceville.

Our school closed on Wednesday, June 31st.

All of the scholars that attended the Normal School at Fredericton, have returned home.

Solomon Good, of Good Corner, has been visiting his daughter, Mrs C E Stephenson, the past two weeks.
Although Mr Good is 85 years old he is as smart apparently as ever and can start and walk 3 or 4 miles as fast as a man of 40.

Miss Sadie Jameson of Williamstown spent a few days last week with her friend, Faye Stephenson.

The young folks of Connell had a fishing picnic at the White Marsh, on Saturday last.

George has lost his driver. Wonder what the girl on the hill will do now?

C E Stephenson with a crew of men has been very busy engaged on the river and bridge piers all summer, and attending to the putting out of booms.

Rose Perley and Glennie Birmingham went on Tuesday to Hartland to attend the Sabbath school convention.

Arch Upton and Fay Stephenson spent last Sunday at Williamstown, the guest of Miss Sadie Jameson.

All of our boys nearly have gone to drill at Woodstock.

Rex Stephenson spent last Sunday at Good Corner and Lakeville.

Miss Mary E Turner has returned from reaching up river, to her home in Connell.

Mrs J A Perley intends spending next week with her sister, Mrs Frank Tapley, at Blaine.

Wilmot MacKay and Miss Myrtle Kirkbride spent last Sunday at Charleston.

Ed MacKay is thinking of leaving the Telephone business, a very efficient operator on the East side of the river being his teacher. He is giving it his best attention on Sundays.

Faye M Stephenson went to Plaster Rock on Thursday, July 1st, where she will relieve Miss Clarke of her duties in the Telephone office there.

Gilbert Stephenson who had the misfortune to injure his foot very badly with a seeder while sowing grain, is very lame yet.

CLEAN STOMACH, CLEAR MIND.—The stomach is the workshop of the vital functions and when it gets out of order the whole system clogs in sympathy. The spirits flag, the mind droops and work becomes impossible. The first care should be to restore healthful action of the stomach and the best preparation for that purpose is Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. General use for years has won them a leading place in medicine. A trial will attest their value.

"Your wife doesn't seem to care much for that friend of yours."
"No; he's the man I lay the blame on when I'm detained downtown."

Regarded as one of the most potent compounds ever introduced with which to combat all summer complaints and inflammation of the bowels, Dr J D Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial has won for itself a reputation that no other cordial for the purpose can aspire to. For young or old suffering from these complaints it is the best medicine that can be procured.

CLASS PROPHECY.

Florenceville Consolidated School.

By Miss DELLA E SAUNDERS.
One beautiful summer's day, feeling weary of the cares of life, I strolled away over the distant hills on the east bank of the St. John river. When I had roamed about for sometime I noticed a giant oak just before me.
Somewhat tired I threw myself down under its leafy shade. After resting there awhile I suddenly heard a great rustling in the leaves of this giant tree, and did not fail to see that its comrades were perfectly motionless. I sprang up, much frightened, and was about to flee when I heard a deep bass voice call "fairy yet awhile." I glanced over my shoulder, and to my great astonishment perceived that the mighty oak was now transformed into a giant genius. He held out to me a large book with the simple words "read thou," and then disappeared.
Much puzzled and terrified I opened the great volume and this is the title that I read:—

"Future of the Graduating Class of Florenceville Consolidated School 1909."

The first name to catch my eager glances were those of Margaret Keenan and Lillian Shaw. History we are told knows little about these two. They made their names famous by a great discovery proving very conclusively that the world was square with rounded corners. A great monument is to be erected to their memories at Florenceville at the front entrance of the old schoolhouse, where in their youth they sought to improve each passing hour.

The honored title of novelist fell to the lot of Bertie Woolverton. In this life she excelled in stories of high romance, her greatest success being entitled "The Springtime of Love." This we are told was on account of her own youthful days. It was written in very modest terms and was a true inspiration to all bashful youths, who after reading its glowing lines fully determined to profit by their grand advice. History says this book still holds first place among all those of its class.

Our quiet Lela made herself famous by her knowledge of Household Science. She spent several years in preparing herself for this work, and then came back to Florenceville, where she started a boarding house for the students of Florenceville Consolidated School. Her name was famous throughout the country on account of her excellent bread which she always had on hand.

Our gentle Gladys, soon after leaving Normal began a fierce campaign for "woman's rights." She succeeded so well that in 1950 all women over eighty years of age had votes.
Claude McCaffin, the best manager of our number, proved to be a great engineer, not of mechanics as we might think, but of household affairs.

Our dark-haired Edith although not very studious in her school days, after a time seemed to grow extremely fond of arithmetic. She composed an entire book on banking problems, and never seemed weary of sifting and puzzling over them. If at any time she would be very tired and annoyed she did nothing more than exclaim "Oh shaw." Then as the dew disappears before the bright rays of the sun, her last hit of ill-humor faded away.

My astonishment was unbounded when I learned that our stately Della Sisson had lived and died a bachelor girl. In the early part of her life she was very careless and gay; but being disappointed because some of her hopes were not realized, she settled down into the life of a sourd old maid. She lived in a small cottage built at the tiny village of Wilmot where she often sat and dreamed of "the might have been."

Thomas Parker, the most quiet and sedate boy of our class, devoted his life to the Church. He settled in a little country parish and often soothed the troubled students of Florenceville Consolidated School who brought their cares to him. Like many others of his order he always chose the same text, which was:—

"In the world's broad field of battle, In the bivouac of life,
Be not like the gay-haired maiden Be a heroine,—a wife."

These few lines were the means of earning for our Thomas many extra gold pieces.

Lena Ritchie, ever thoughtful of the lonely, founded a home for clergymen from England. After keeping this home open for several years to all whom chose to enter its hospitable doors. We are told that she limited the number to one. The name of the place was henceforth changed, being known as the "Parker House."

The next name I beheld was that of our cheerful and light-hearted Delila. I read eagerly and found that she had become a maiden lady.
I was somewhat disappointed at learning this; but we are told that she was well-satisfied with her lot.
She was always her own cheerful self and strove in every way to be a help and comfort to mankind. Summing it all up she was a dear, model, old maid.

Zam Buk

Glancing on down the page I beheld in large letters the name of Mrs Ezekiel McGillivuddy Hanselpecker, I could not remember anyone in our class by this name and was unable to guess whom it might be; but on reading farther I found that it was our gay Cecil. She had made her mark as a famous singer. Her favorite piece was the "Oraide Song," which she sang each night to the youthful Hanselpeckers.

We are told that Edna Giberson and our sunny Fred, during the early part of their lives and stay at Normal were always together. Shortly after this however their paths seemed to divide. Fred, the most bashful one of our class, became a famous orator; and was known throughout the country for his great oratorical powers. We do not know with certainty, but it is thought that he cultivated a taste for this line of work during some of the hours he spent in Mrs Estey's rose garden.

Our bright eyed Edna soon after leaving Normal settled down as a Model Housekeeper, not for the one whom we had always expected it to be; but for another.

My eyes just caught the name of Della Saunders written in bright letters, and I was about to learn my own future when the great genius appeared, and in a terrible voice demanded the book. Obedient to this fierce command I yielded up the manuscript to him. He then instantly changed again into the great forest oak, and I was left sitting under its magic branches, my own future unknown to me.

CURE IT IN ONE DAY.

Coughs and Colds Disappear Like Magic When Hyomei is Used.

If the thousands of people who suffer from hacking coughs and agonizing colds would arouse themselves sufficiently to follow this advice, they would cease to complain within 24 hours.

Here is the advice, if you take it and you are afterwards sorry that you did, it won't cost you a penny.
Go to E W Mair the druggist, and purchase from him a Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) outfit. It will only cost you 1.00. Take it home; use it according to directions and if it does not cure your cough or cold, take it back and E W Mair will refund the purchase price.

Mrs J Coon, of John Street, Acton, Ont., says: "I had a swelling cond near my eyes which was caused by the catarrhal condition. I had to cough up the bad impurities that dropped into my throat, and it felt as if a hard cold had attacked me, right in my head, nose and glands near. A week's treatment of Hyomei overcame my trouble. I am glad to endorse Hyomei."

When you use Hyomei you don't swallow nauseating drugs. You simply breathe in the soothing, pleasant and antiseptic Hyomei air through the little pocket inhaler that comes with each outfit. As this medicated air passes over the inflamed parts, relief comes almost at once and cure follows.

Hyomei is also guaranteed by E W Mair to cure croup, grip and asthma.

"I don't believe in hiding my light under a bushel," remarked young Sapleigh.

"You would be foolish to do so," rejoined Miss Slasher, "when a pint cup would more than hide it."

Noted Evangelist's Experience.

Irene, Ill., July 16th, "I always praise the bridge that carries me over safe" are the words of J Dimick Taylor, the great American evangelist, whose home is in Irene. While in Nova Scotia last winter I needed medicine and used Dr Hamilton's Pills. They helped me wonderfully and I recommend them to others. I send this testimonial because your remedy will work directly on the kidneys, and cures the urinary disorders that often give pain to the man and woman affected with kidney trouble. I have not found anything equal to Dr Hamilton's Mandrake and Butternut Pills. I gave them to a man on Tan Cook Island that was suffering in the most horrible way and in a few hours he was relieved.
When a minister like Mr Taylor comes forth in praise of Dr Hamilton's Pills, it is evident their power is beyond the ordinary. For diseases of kidneys, bladder, liver and stomach they have no equal. Easy to take very mild, sure to cure, 25 cents per box at all dealers.

DECORATION DAY.

An Experiment in Orange Work.

At present if one were to visit almost any cemetery in Carleton County L O Jurisdiction, their attention would be immediately attracted by the flash of red, white and blue and occasional Union Jack, amid the green grass, nature's own decoration.

To the uninstructed, the presence of these unusual marks of remembrance is at once a source of speculation and an object of wonder. My dear reader, there is a story connected with that little flag that floats so bravely, and the grave over which it stands.
That story so briefly told in these words; here lies one who was once an Orangeman, one whom the brethren of Carleton are pleased to remember as one "who saw the light."

The Orange order aside from the usual 12th of July celebrations has very few avenues by which to reach the public and this matter of an Orange Decoration day was heralded as an additional and excellent means of attracting public attention to the fraternal spirit of the order. Again as a brotherhood whose rituals teach that he who is gone "is not dead to us" it has seemed to "is that some practical means should be evolved by which evidence might be given that in very truth his name "inscribed on our memories."

Some years ago this matter came up before Carleton L O A, then in session at Benton, but apparently nothing of a definite character developed from the action taken at that meeting. At the mid-summer session convened at Richmond in June, 1907, by motion the Co. Secretary was ordered to issue a circular instructing the lodges in this jurisdiction that an effort was being made to establish a Decoration day in connection with the L O A in this County and that arrangements should be made to carry out the work, selecting the last Saturday in June, 1908, as the day to mark the initial step in this matter of showing respect to our dead. In the first year nearly every lodge complied with the instructions in this connection, and this year, the second opportunity to observe the day, we have reasons to believe that every lodge has lived up to its duty and duly observed the day set apart for the decoration of the graves of our Orange list. At the last annual session this matter was brought up for revision and adjustment. In order to simplify the work it was decided to make the Union Jack or Canadian Ensign the basis of decoration leaving to the option of the decoration committees the addition of ribbons, flowers, etc. Recently in the June Session held in Bloomfield another addition was made to the original instructions, the County Lodge undertaking to appoint Committees to see to the proper decoration of Orange graves known to be in localities where there are no existing lodges. This proposition is being enthusiastically received by the brethren generally and it is hoped that ultimately this work will be taken up more thoroughly and in time become universally established as a recognized institution in connection with our Orange Order.

CRIMSON ARROW.

Sat in Her Way.

Sweet Mary Jane sat fourteen days and wouldn't deign to rise, and Although her folks tried every way to make her realize That it was quite unladylike to sit all day and night, And never change her attitude to rouse her appetite.

They coaxed and teased and threatened her, and still she would not stand,
And when they tried to raise her up she bit them on the hand.

They didn't want to do her harm or call in the police, Yet they sorrowed at the thought of Mary Jane's decease.

But Mary Jane knew 'that was best, she wisser was than men, She sat until she'd had her set, for Mary was a hen.

The Spirit Moved Him.

An old negro preacher approached a Southern physician and offered a scrap of paper.

"Please sah, to read dat," he said, The physician found it to be an advertisement in which it was asserted that whisky was the only genuine and reliable specific for malaria.

"But you haven't any malaria, uncle," he assured the old man;
"none of it around here at all."

"Whar do dey hav it de wust, Mars' Jems?" the other then asked, curiously.

"It's pretty bad down on Cypress River," the physician told him, naming a locality some twenty miles away.

A few days later the physician was passing the old fellow's cabin, and observed him climbing upon a rickety wagon piled up with household goods.

"Moving, Uncle Ned?" he said.
"Where are you going?"

"Mars' Jems," the old man said solemnly, "Ah done had a call; de spirited done move to go wuck in de Lord's vineyard on the banks of Cypress Ribber."

Ammatite ROOFING

Most roofings are made of only one layer, but Ammatite is made in five layers. The bottom layer is wool felt, the next is real Coal Tar Pitch, the third is wool felt, the fourth is pitch again, into which is embedded the fifth layer, namely, the mineral surface.

If the weather should, in the course of years, wear away the mineral surface and dispose of the layer of Pitch (which is the most waterproof substance on earth), it would still have to penetrate a layer of felt and another layer of composition and another layer of felt before the roof would leak.

It is easy to see why Ama-tite lasts so long when you realize how it is made.

That mineral surface requires no painting or coating whatever, and will take the brunt of the weather without renewal or attention or care.
Send for a sample of Ama-tite. It's free.
