Our New Citizens.

We used to hear a great deal from certain quarters about the bogey of the Americanization of the Northwest, but it is gratifying that even the opponents of the Government are ready to bear testimony to the fact that the new settlers in our Western country are eager to assume all the rights and responsibilities of Canadian citizenship. Particularly gratifying is the readiness of the newcomers from the United States who are thronging across the border by thousands to become naturalized British subjects. Some of the immigrants from Continental Europe have no intention of remaining in a new country longer than it will take them to accumulate enough money to keep them in comfort in the land of their birth when too old to do work. Not so the Americans; they come here to make permanent homes.

During the last fiscal year no fewer than 9,000 Americans, most of them heads of families, were naturalized in Canada. Mr. James J. Hill, the railway magnate, is one of those who recognize that in the stream of immigration from the United States, Canada is getting the first class of men to till its fertile areas. It is a long, hard job, he says, to assimilate a foreign population—far different from the task of taking in Americans who have lived under a reign of law and liberty, and who bring, besides character and ability, a capital of from five to twenty thousand dollars each. The Minneapolis Journal says that Canada is to be congratulated, just as the United States was to be congratulated a few years ago, when it was drawing the best blood of Canada across the boundary—the young men with ambition, push and some capital. "The shoe is new on the other foot," says the Journal. "Americans are going to Canada while Canadians have practically stopped coming here."

Official statistics show that the tide of American immigration is rising rather than falling. During August, September and October of this year the number of Americans to settle in Canada was 13,781—an increase of 40 per cent. over the arrivals in the corresponding month of 1908. Last month the number to arrive in Canada with the intention of becoming settlers was $2,500, as against $1,790 for the same month of last year. The reversion of the stream of the migration of population is one of the most significant movements of our time. It is the magnet of the Twentieth Century Country that attracts in these rooms.

Of Mr Crockett and Dr Pugsley the Ottawa Free Press says:—"Thus on Tuesday night the House had from Mr Crockett quite a display of old familiar 'Bennetts,' and charges of fraud, collusion, corruption, thievery and other elegant things were hurled at the head of the minister of public works with a facility which clearly showed that the diminutive New Brunswicker had indeed got it badly. Hon. Mr Pugsley chose to take Mr Crockett seriously, which was more than he need have done, since the latter's charges were too contemptible to deserve notice; but deciding that the case was one for disciplinary measures, the minister of public works certainly applied the rod with great effect. It was like whipping a dog and putting him to bed."

A Much-Needed Reform.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has given notice of a special committee for the purpose of considering the matter of reforming the rules and procedure of the House of Commons, and will shortly bring this matter formally to the attention of the House and of the country; the object of this movement is to make such improvement in the present procedure as will simplify and expedite the business of Parliament, and by the same token the public business. It is hoped that this question will be discussed in a thoroughly non-partizan spirit. Without raising any partizan consideration, it is obvious that improvement is greatly to be desired and, if the business of Parliament is to be conducted within reasonable limits, and with the utmost efficiency, changes must be made in the present antiquated practice. One need go back only a year or two for glaring examples of wholly inexcusable and altogether obstructive tactics carried from day to day and from week to week. There will be, so far as Sir Wilfrid Laurier is concerned, we venture to say, no disposition to limit reasonable debate or to interpose any obstacles in the way of full investigation of all matters of public interest; but that is not to say that changes cannot be made which will facilitate the transaction of business, shorten the present inordinate length of sessions and operate to the advantage not merely of the country at large, but of both parties in the House. A reform in the rules and procedure which will introduce economy of time as well as of expenditure, in legislative business, will be warmly welcomed by the country.—Morning Chronicle.

The Ottawa Journal, thoroughgoing Conservative, says: "What is apparent, and what we protest against, is that some Conservatives who are not looking beyond the noses on their faces, seem consciously to be trying to drive the party into opposition to the beginning of a Canadian Navy, which is assuredly the permanent policy which will satisfy the majority in this country—which policy must be started at once if it is to be useful within a decade—and which assuredly does not preclude any step which any Conservative further desires a matter of emergency."

St John And Havana.

Sir Richard Cartwright, on behalf of the department of trade and commerce, has signed a contract with Wm. Thomson & Sons, of St John and Cuba. The service is to be more particularly for freight, although a certain number of passengers will be accommodated. The subsidy will be $25,000 per annum for a monthly service.—Ottawa Journal.

Poultry Association.

The Carleton and Victoria Poultry Association held its third annual session in Hartland on Tuesday 7th inst. Rev J B Daggett presided. A resolution of regret was passed because of the removal of Chas W Hurst to Calgary; also because of the enforced absence of Sec. E Barber.

The following officers were elected: Hon. Presidents: Geo E Baxter, Hon J K Flemming, W W Hubbard, Donald Munro, M. P. P. and Geo W Upham, M. P. P. President, Dr R B Hagerman; 1st Vice President, Rev J H Copeland; 2nd Vice President, A A Belyea; Executive committee, Robt Kidney, Howard Kennedy, E H Belyea, A A Rigby, Rev J H Copeland, F Hagerman, Dr LeDec McIntosh; Sec Treas, Rev J B Daggett.

The Annual Show will be held in Hartland in January. All over the country there is a splendid interest in this work, and the outlooks, the show will surpass anything hitherto held in the country. The date and programme will be announced later.

How is your shape suited to the shape of your clothes? Does the one match the other? If they don't they ought to. Have you noticed the perfect models of grace and elegance that we are turning out in stylish suits for our patrons? It is well worth while studying our work—you will find it far superior, in every vital point, to what the ordinary tailors can produce. Yet our charges are not higher than theirs.

The Carleton County Sunday School Association held a meeting of the executive, in Miss Calder's office in Woodstock, Tuesday evening, the 9th inst. The officers for the County are as follows: C W Dickinson, Debec Jct, President; J T G Carr, Hartland, Vice President; Miss Adie Calder, Woodstock, Sec Treasurer; Harry Havens, Jacksonville, Recording Secy. F S Sharp, Grafton; C W Manzer, Woodstock and Miss Flora Rideout, Peel, are additional members of the executive. The Department Supts are: Home Dept, Mrs Emma Minard, Bath; Temperance Dept, Rev Geo Ayers, Centreville; Teacher training, Rev D Fiske, Florenceville; Primary Dept, Mrs E London, Upper Woodstock; Adult Bible class Dept, Rev W S Johnson, Jacksonville.

The Field Secty, Rev J B Ganong was present at the meeting. President, C W Dickinson in the chair.

Carleton Co will pledge $200.00 next year to the Convention Fund, which is the same amount as paid last year.

It was decided to hold the annual convention at Jacksonville about the last of June next. As Jacksonville is only two miles from Upper Woodstock, it will not be inconvenient for those coming on the train, and is quite centrally located for the country districts.

Mr Ganong thought each parish should have two good conventions each year. He also suggested that each school observe one day in the year called Association Day, and have special features, taking an offering for Association Work. It was arranged to have the Field Secty. make a tour of the county in May next, and be present at the parish conventions.

The World's Sunday School Convention will be held in the city of Washington, 19th to the 24th of May, 1910. This province is entitled to send thirty delegates. The estimated cost of ticket from St John to Washington and return, is $22.00. The convention will probably be one of the best ever held.

A lady to the shopman said,
At little cost 'tis necessary
That I should keep my household clean
Still more important, sanitary.
Do you think you could order me
An inexpensive preparation,
That will combine these qualities,
And meet my expectation?
The very thing he made reply,
Asepto Soap is what you mean,
'Tis cheap and readily you'll find
'Twill sterilize as well as clean.

OBITUARIES.

Mrs Churchill.

Mrs Louisa Jane Churchill, daughter of the late Israel Churchill of Woodstock, N B, died at Boston at the age of 63 years, on Dec 5th after a very brief illness. The remains were brought to Woodstock and thence to Jacksonville, where interment took place after service in the U Baptist Church on Dec 8th.

Deceased leaves two sons and one daughter, the sons being both residents in N B, and the daughter, Mrs Puddington in Boston, U S A.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev W H Johnson assisted by Rev E C Turner.

Upper Woodstock.

A large number of people were out to service Sunday. Mr Turner gave a very eloquent sermon on "gaining wealth or how to get rich." The service is made more pleasant by the addition of a choir. The young people of this place spent a very enjoyable evening at the home of Mrs Wm McCormac Tuesday evening. The closing exercises of the school were held Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. A nice programme was given by each room. The Sunday School of this place intend giving a concert Christmas night. We hope they will have a large crowd, and that they will give liberally in the silver collection. Wilder Brewer has been spending a few days with friends in the village. Eldon Orchard has returned from Grand Falls.
