Any one desiring to give who is not able to send their donation we will be pleased to call if notified. We would like to receive the names of any needy families as some may be overlooked. A. G. RITCHIE Adjutant.

We wish to remind all of our subscribers who are in arrears that the end of the year is near at hand, and that their subscriptions, although small individually, aggregate a large sum collectively, and if they were paid, it would mean a big item for this paper to have the cash. Come now, friends, just think it over and see that these small amounts are settled.

Start the new year right, own your paper while you read it; You will enjoy the reading much better. If you can't pay the full amount pay some. If the label on your paper reads 1907, 1908, 1909 etc. it means that you owe one, two or three years respectively. At least pay up for one or two years if you cannot pay all. We will be pleased to thank you for the same.

The village of Lakeside was saddened by the death by drowning of two of its inhabitants.

John Trimble aged 16 years and Irene McManus aged 13 years. They were skating about half a mile from Ryan's shore when the treacherous ice gave way and both were precipitated into the freezing waters. Their bodies were recovered, after grappling several hours. The girls' body was located near where the body of the boy was found. The sad procession bearing the bodies started for the stricken homes. The whole community is plunged in sorrow as the both victims were very popular in the neighborhood.
