

TOO LITTLE BLOOD

Responsible for Nearly all of the Misery Women Endure.

Anaemia is written on the features of ninety women out of a hundred. Unmistakable are the signs of "too little blood." The weaker sex is assailed at all ages by the evils resulting from bloodlessness, from the girl who is weak and languid, with dull eyes, pale lips, fitful appetite and palpitating heart, to the women who feel "never well," with pains in the back and across the shoulders, fainting fits and aching limbs. And later at life's turning point, nervous disorders and heart troubles make great calls on a woman's strength.

At all ages Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are especially valuable to the female sex, for they alone possess the power of making in abundance the rich, red blood of health. They fill the starved veins with new blood, so that enfeebled bodies are strengthened, weak nerves are fortified, and robust health is restored.

Mrs. E. Smith, Windsor, N. S., says: "A few years ago my health began to fail. I suffered greatly from inward troubles, and in about a year's time my whole system was almost a wreck. My blood had turned to water, and my heart had become so badly affected that I could scarcely go about. In fact life had almost become a burden, and there seemed little hope for me. One day a friend asked me if I had tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and told me that she had been in almost the same condition I was and that the Pills had restored her to her present splendid health. I took courage from what my friend told me and began to take the Pills. I took them regularly for several months constantly growing stronger, and the internal troubles from which I had been afflicted were disappearing, and my whole system seemed to have gained new strength. I wanted to make certain that there would be no return of the trouble and I continued to take the Pills for a time after I had really fully recovered. Since I have proved for myself what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can do, I have recommended them to a number of suffering people, and those who have given them a fair trial have proved with me that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are just what they are recommended to be."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brookville, Ont.

Miss Darcas, teacher in our village school, is ordered to stop teaching for a time on account of trouble with her eyes. The doctor thinks after a reasonable rest she may resume her occupation.

We are sorry to report that Miss Grace Tompkins, one of the most popular young ladies, is on the sick list at the home of Judson Currie, her boarding place.

Rev. Mr. Bertram was delighted and benefited by his recent visit to the Restigouche Wood & Lumber Camp. He spent a Sabbath there and held morning service in David H. Nixon's camp and afternoon service in John Murdoch's camp. It involved a walk through the woods of six miles each way. The proprietors of the camps, with Frank Nixon in his father's camp, showed marked respect, and in both camps he was most hospitably entertained. The crews were very respectful and attentive and showed their interest by contributing a snug sum as a silver collection for the personal use of the Rev. Gentleman. It is but just to say that in extending the invitation to visit the camps, Mr. Murdoch defrayed all expenses of travelling going and returning.

Rev. Mr. Jenkins is indulging in a winter vacation. On Saturday last a heavy thaw took down the snow and in the evening the wind was in the north. On Sunday it was very cold although fine during the day. The sun exhibited its power in lessening the temperature.

Very few visitors during the last week and business quiet. A number of the Ziba Orser accounts are small and in some instances, to sue, the cost would equal amount of claim. They must be collected large or small, cost or no cost, and would it not be well to be prompt in paying. No excuse, sufficient notice has been published in addition to the fact of your own knowledge of the indebtedness.

The new stables connected with Clark's Hotel are large and extra comfortable and well patronized by farmers and travellers, also a well equipped livery with good rigs at short notice.

Herbert N. Boyer is a busy man he sells ranges and all kinds of stoves, shingles and phosphate, and is largely engaged in buying and shipping hides.

Some of the Beagumac woodsmen will break camp this week, having completed their contracts here, and had a favorable season.

Glad to be able to report that Mrs. Asa Kennedy is very much better and a good prospect for recovery.

Present offers frequently renewed with an upward tendency for his business and business stock and fixtures, may reach a point to induce Thos. R. Simms to sell and exchange his present place of residence for one in New Ontario.

Samuel W. Fong has received his naturalization papers and is entitled to all the rights, privileges and protection of a Canadian citizen.

Rev. Mr. Ayer of Centreville, occupied the Methodist pulpit here on Sunday evening last. His discourse was good and listened to with great interest. Mr. Bertram and Mr. Ayers exchanged circuits for the day.

Danville.

The present date finds a heavy rainstorm and thaw.

The Misses Alyce and Mae Gallagher of this place attended the play put on in Hartland by the Lakeville Dramatic Co.

Rev. Father Bradley, who celebrated mass here Sunday, 21st inst., was the guest of Daniel Gallagher.

A number of young people, including the Misses Gallagher's, Genevieve Montague, Carrie Burke, Olare McGuire, Leola Lawrence and Messrs. John and Jas. McGuire, Peter Ryan, William Barry, Murray and Guy Gallagher and Harold McCarthy enjoyed a drive to the mill owned by George Upham M.P.P. A delightful evening was spent by all in dancing, music and feasting. The worthy proprietor was also present and with assurances from him, the different bosses and the genial cook, of a hearty welcome at any time, the jolly crowd departed.

Wm. Gibbons has returned home with his team from the employ of Stewart.

Joseph McGahey has returned home for a few days from Upham's Mill.

AN ARBITRATION TREATY.

Concluded Between Great Britain and United States.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 10.—Ambassador James Bryce of Great Britain was the guest of honor and principal speaker at the annual banquet of the Milwaukee Merchants and Manufacturers' Association to-night. The Ambassador spoke with satisfaction of the treaties concluded, or almost concluded, between the United States and Great Britain.

"It is a pleasure to me," he said, "and I am sure it ought to be so to all Americans and to all Canadians that the friendship between you and the people of Canada has steadily grown, and that your Government and ours have lately been able to conclude three treaties designed to remove possible causes of dispute between the two peoples. One of these provides for the exact delimitation of the boundary between the two countries; another for salvage operations; a third for regulating and developing the fisheries in the great lakes."

We have also concluded a treaty of great importance for the friendly arbitration of all questions that may hereafter arise between the United States and the British Empire, and within the last few weeks your late Secretary of State and I have signed two other treaties, one for the arbitration of questions relating to the North Atlantic fisheries, and the other regulating the use of waters on the boundary between the United States and Canada. This last is a matter of the greatest consequence because questions left unsettled on this boundary might easily give rise to vexatious controversy.

Quite Inappropriate.

A Sunday-school teacher had instructed her class that each child should repeat a verse of Scripture when the offering was made. The plate, containing many pennies, had gone down the line, when the child next last said, "The Lord loveth a cheerful giver," depositing a nickel.

Either the verses had given out or the child at the end of the bench was overcome at her neighbor's generosity, for she said, "A fool and his money are soon parted."—Lippincott's.
