PILES FOR FOUR YEARS

Only those who suffer from Piles can know the agony, the burning, throbbing, shooting, stabbing pains which the ailment causes, and the way it wrecks the sufferer's life.

Zam-Buk is blessed by thousands who used to suffer from piles, but whom it has cured. One such grateful person is Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, of Greenwood Avenue, Toronto. She says:—"For four long years I suffered acutely from bleeding piles. During that time I spent an immense amount of money on 'remedies' and doctor's prescriptions but got no case. Zam-Buk was different to everything else I had tried, and it cured me. I am grateful for the cure, and as I have never had piles since, I know the cure is permanent."

Another thankful woman is Mrs. E. A. Gardner, of Catalina, Trinity Bay. She says:—"In my case Zam-Buk effected a wonderful cure. For twelve years I had been troubled with blind, bleeding, and protruding piles. I had been using various kinds of ointments, etc., but never came across anything to do me good until I tried Zam-Buk, which cured me. That this may be the means of helping some sufferers from piles to try Zam-Buk, is the wish of one who has found great relief."

Zam-Buk is a purely herbal balm and should be in every home. Cures cuts, burns, bruises, eczema, ulcers, blood-poisoning, prairie itch, sunburn, blisters, sore feet, summer sores, and all diseases and injuries of the skin, etc. All druggists and stores at 50c. box, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.

CRIMINALS AND POLICE.

(Continued from first page.) the nightmare of the Italian outlaw, and have much to do with making emigration seem to him more desirable. Special surveillance provides that if a man is convicted of crime he must, besides serving a term in prison, serve also, in his native town, a supplementary term of what might be called probation. Conviction for certain crimes carries with it necessarily a period of surveillance; in other cases the addition of surveillance to the sentence of imprisonment is optional with the judge. The conditions of surveillance are strict, and result in keeping the vigilante, as he is called, constantly under the eye of the police. A person coming out of prison and entering his period of surveillance is directed to go to his native town, to find work within ten days, and to report to the police. He is not allowed to carry arms of any kind, not even a razor or a walking stick. He cannot associate with persons who have been convicted of crime or who had a bad reputation, and he is not allowed to enter any places where people are gathered together, such as saloons, churches, restaurants or hotels. He must be in at night at a specified hour, usually sunset, and must not leave home in the morning until sunrise. He must report to the police once a week or oftener. He is liable to arrest at any moment on the slightest suspicion, and can be locked up for forty eight hours. Special police usually visit a man's house four times a week, and sometimes every day. Special surveillance is imposed from one to five years, and there are severe penalties for violation of any of the requirements.

"But a man does not have to be convicted of crime in order to be put under restraint. The police have the power of presenting to a judge 'bad men,' with the object that they be placed under 'admonition.' The 'bad men' are vagabonds, persons who do not work and have no visible means of support, or persons who have been arrested a couple of times, tried on serious charges—such as murder, felonious assault, making threats, resisting arrest, theft, highway robbery, extortion, blackmail, receiving stolen goods—and have been acquitted. In spite of the fact that they have been released by the court, if the police regard them as suspicious, as undesirable men to have around loose in the community, they are taken before the judge specially designated by the president of the Tribunal, and he, if he deems it best, places them under admonition. The requirements of admonition are practically the same as those of special surveillance, though somewhat less stringent, although the man may be picked up by the police for any cause whatever and kept in confinement for forty-eight hours."

Naturally the Italian criminal is glad to escape from his native land to one where the police system is less effective. Criminals from other parts of Europe doubtless have a like desire. The United States has become an asylum for these people. Canada will also have its share of them as its foreign born population increases. It is worth while to consider seriously whether it would not be well to have a national police force, not necessarily large in numbers, but composed of exceptionally clever men, with a certain number for each province, always on duty and always in touch with the police authorities of the province. Then when a crime was committed there would be the assurance that within a few hours after its discovery there would be set in operation a system which would in the majority of cases bring the criminal to speedy justice. The Northwest Mounted Police perhaps afford the finest example to be found anywhere of a thoroughly disciplined and highly efficient force. A small national force of like calibre would do much throughout the country in the interests of law and order.—Times.

The Port of Life.

Nearing the port of life's closing day,
Lingering I listen for voices to say,
Looking for signals as backward I glance,
The whisper is onward, I soon must advance.
How happy the days on the journey I've spent,
To better my life it was my intent.
Viewless a head lies the untrodden track,
The signal is onward we cannot go back.
Far o'er the ocean the flashlight appears,
The Pilot is coming, the angels are near.
To welcome our souls if one's record is true,
And taste of the glories if we meet there with you.

Overtaxed Nerves

A Distress Signal.

The Trouble Can Only be Cured by Enriching the Blood Supply.

When your nervous system is exhausted the trouble makes itself evident in many ways. You feel always fatigued and unfit for work. Severe headaches distract you; your back is weak; you sleep badly; your appetite is uncertain; you are nervous and irritable and after any exercise you tremble and perspire excessively. If the trouble is not checked your case goes from bad to worse until you feel that your condition is hopeless and that insanity is threatened.

Your nerves are calling for help. They are starved because they demand from the blood more nourishment than it can supply. New rich blood is the secret of nerve strength and Dr Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People cure nervous disorders because they feed the weak, exhausted nerves with rich, red blood. The case of Mrs Emma Hall, of Hamilton, Ont., furnishes proof that Dr Williams' Pink Pills will cure even the most stubborn cases of nerve exhaustion. Mrs Hall was left a widow and was forced to work in a mill to maintain herself and her two little children. She bravely faced the battle of life, though she had never had to conform to such conditions before. Notwithstanding the splendid spirit she displayed the work played havoc with a delicate constitution, and some years ago Mrs Hall noticed signs in herself of a nervous collapse. She consulted a doctor who gave her some medicine and told her she "would be all right in a few days." But relief did not come and it was finally a daily occurrence for her to faint at her work. These fainting spells quickly developed into pronounced hysteria and chronic irritability, and Mrs Hall says that death would have been a relief. She consulted several doctors but got no help, and she felt that she was almost bordering on insanity. In this condition she was advised to try Dr Williams' Pink Pills. Grasping at even the possibility of help she decided to do so. After taking three boxes she actually found some improvement, and from that time on this improvement was steady and increasing daily until after a few months she felt the cure was complete. She says:—"Dr Williams' Pink Pills have done what doctors failed to do and what I myself thought was impossible. They have freed me from the terrible trouble I suffered and my old joy in life has been renewed." When Mrs Hall began taking Dr Williams' Pink Pills she weighed only one hundred pounds while under her renewed health her weight had increased to one hundred and thirty pounds.

Dr Williams' Pink Pills can be had from any dealer in medicines or will be sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by The Dr Williams' Medicine Co, Brockville, Ont.

Mr Henry Wright, Vancouver, arrived in town on Monday to visit his mother, Mrs Cyrus Wright. Mr Wright has been in the West about five years.

STOMACH COMFORT.

When the Stomach Rebels, Headache, Indigestion and Nerve Pain Follows—Mi-o-na Brings Relief.

Just as soon as you are done eating the healthy stomach commences to churn the food around and mixes it thoroughly with the juices of the stomach.

If the food is not churned, it lays heavily on your stomach, turns sour and causes all kinds of distressing symptoms, such as headache, indigestion, stomach pain and dyspepsia. Mi-o-na helps the stomach to properly mix the food.

John S May, of Isabella St, Belleville Ont, says: "For over seven months I was in constant agony with a case of nervous dyspepsia and indigestion that medical skill could not relieve. I was weak and had lost much weight through loss of appetite and suffering. My meals would fill me with gas and a feeling of oppression across the stomach and all up the left side, left me in a miserable condition. I was restless at night and as tired and unrefreshed in the morning as on going to bed. A choking sensation in my throat was always constant when lying down, and my heart seemed to flutter and pound as though it were coming out through my side. I was benefited from the first two days' use of Mi-o-na. I began to feel like myself again, my appetite returned and the depressive feeling left me. I can enjoy my meals without the least worry of after suffering. I have gained in weight and can sleep the night through in comfort.

Go to E W Mair the druggist, and get a 50 cent box of Mi-o-na Tablets. Money back if Mi-o-na does not cure.
