MARRIAGE LICENSES and WEDDING RINGS.

Weston.

Well Christmas has come and gone. All report a merry Christmas. Harvey Craig of Ashland, Me., spent the Christmas week with his parents here.

Hedley Cheny was the guest of Mr and Mrs Stephen Porter, Xmas day.

Scott Flemming had the misfortune to get his foot jammed in the hay-press quite badly. We hope he will soon recover.

Mr and Mrs Frank Carpenter and family spent Christmas at the home of Robert Kidney, Sr.

Miss Ada Bell of Waterville was the guest of Miss Reta Kidney, recently.

Mr Oscar who has been helping A Smart get wood, has joined South-lands Dramatic Club as Comedian. We wish him success.

Pressing hay seems to be the order of the day.

Mr and Mrs Vinal Craig have moved back to Weston again.

Happy Hooligan passed through this place recently.

William Davis has returned to his home in Idaho after spending a few weeks with relatives in this place.

Mr and Mrs John Buckskin of Avondale passed through this place recently.

Mrs Scott Owen and two children and Miss Lizzie Lee of Beaufort, are visiting their friends, Mr and Mrs A Smart, of this place.

Mr and Mrs Frank Carpenter held a New Year party. A large number of guests attended.

UNCLE JOSE.

Lower Wakefield.

Hello! here we are again after a long time. I hope everybody is glad to see us.

Coleman Sharpe who has been on the sick list is now convalescent. Our school has been opened up again under the skillful management of our former teacher, Miss Myrtle Griffiths.

Miss Edna Haley who has been spending her holidays with her parents, has returned to Fredericton. We all join in wishing her success.

Hazel Robinson and Jennie Ebbett have returned to their school at Upper Woodstock.

We hear that Mrs Long of Hartland passed through this place on Saturday last.

Wellington Haley had a sad accident in losing the greater part of his grain.

Miss Bernice Hiley spent Christmas with her mother, Mrs FM Haley. Ray E Ebbett was home during his vacation but has now returned to his work.

GH S is feeling rather sad. I wonder why? Cheer up! Gordon! She isn't the only girl in the world.

Chas Clarke is now in Montreal, we hope he will be able to come home soon.

Miss M E Clarke is visiting friends in Connell.

JK has been making trips quite frequently up to the post office.

Hark! hark! We hear wedding bells in the distance. NIGHTHAWK.

Kirkland.

We are having beautiful weather at present and the roads are fine.

Mrs J N McNeil has been visiting friends in Amity, Me.

Mrs Rachel Jackson is visiting her daughter, Mrs Estabrooke in Amity, Me.

Laura Dickson, one of the teachers who has arrived from Normal school has the mumps and will not be able to go to her school in Three Brooks, Victoria Co, for a few days.

Aurilla, the little daughter of Mrs John Graham of Maxwell, entertained a number of her little friends on New Year's day. She received a number of presents.

Perley Graham, Olive Carr, Ada M Dykeman, Chrissie Graham and some others received a certificate from the General Assembly for memorizing verses of the bible.

Mrs E Graham and family entertained a few of their friends from Debec one evening recently. A chicken stew was partaken of.

A Tory View.

(From the Montreal Gazette)

Mr Joseph A Clarke, a Conservative candidate in the Yukon Parliamentary election, stands on a platform of Senate reform, old age pensions, a national employers' liability law, an anti-lobby Bill, and public ownership of telephone, telegraph and railway lines, and favors holding a party convention between elections to tell its representatives in Parliament what they should do. Mr Clarke may be a Conservative in the Yukon. If he is, the Radicals there must be howlers indeed.

Some handsome Ladies and Misses' coats still on hand at The Department Store Hartland will be sold at reduced prices to clear,—tf

The St John Valley Again.

A communication which appeared last week in this paper seems to have greatly perturbed the editorial writer in Monday's Gleaner. As our readers will remember, the letter dealt in forcible terms with the railway facilities, or rather the lack of such facilities, in the St John Valley. The Gleaner, perhaps because the author of the communication referred in mildly eulogistic terms concerning our federal member, at once scented a deep-laid grit plot, going on to say "the article has the appearance of having been written for some other purpose than the one which it professes to be deeply interested in." It further says "the full responsibility for the present condition rests wholly upon the political party which the Sentinel and the author of the communication vigilantly support in all things." To prove at the outset how utterly the Gleaner is at sea in its premises, and therefore in its conclusions, we will mention the fact that the author of the letter is none other than one of the most staunch conservatives in the county, a gentleman who last October affixed his signature to B Frank Smith's nomination paper and who probably has never cast a Liberal ballot in his life.

The Gleaner, of course, could not resist the temptation to repeat once again at great length the many wonderful things two of its directors,—Messrs Fowler and Crockett,—particularly the latter,—have, with political capital in view, attempted to secure for the people of the Valley. Immediately after this long-winded recital, the Gleaner sets its phantom cat at liberty by saying that the agitation started by our correspondent is intended to be put to use merely for the purposes of the by-election which may take place in Carleton County in the not distant future. Whether the Gleaner's reference is to the possible result of the Owens rotect, or to some other cause, we cannot say. It may be that the Gleaner was merely experiencing a brain storm.

Incidentally, the Fredericton editor is very cruel to his own friends, the members of the Hazen government, in the closing paragraph which says "There was a time not many months ago when there was some hope of the McKenzie & Mann interests extending down the St John Valley to reach their eastern seaport. But even this prospect appears to have vanished." Very likely the Gleaner refers to the time when the present Minister of Public Works, as premier of this province, arranged for generous provincial subsidies for a road along the Valley to St John, which were later on supplemented by federal subsidies at the instance of the provincial Liberal members at Ottawa. But the coming of the Hazen party into power greatly changed matters. The local subsidies were actually allowed to lapse. Thus McKenzie & Mann might well be inclined to feel like abandoning a section of country,—providing what the Gleaner says of their intentions is true,—for which the local government has apparently so little regard, despite the fact that the Provincial Secretary and the Solicitor General are among its representatives.

Fredericton, Dec. 31.—At the meeting of the local government yesterday, Allan B Wilmot, of Lincoln, Sunbury County, was appointed to take charge of immigration work with headquarters at St John. Mr Wilmot, who is a son of ED Wilmot, ex-M P, is a graduate of the Ontario Agricultural College and has been engaged in farming for some time and is familiar with farm values. It will be his duty to open a bureau of information in this province which will be for the benefit of those desiring farms labor or having farms to sell. He will establish a connection with institutions on the other side of the Atlantic interested in sending immigrants to Canada, and will devote his efforts to making the attractions of New Brunswick known to intending settlers. His work will be along the line of that recently entered into extensively by the government of Nova Scotia. He will enter upon his duties early in the new year.

Young Mr Wilmot's appointment is the second instalment of the local government's agricultural policy, the first spasm being the purchase of Colonel Clinch's high-jumping equestrian beauties in the far off state of Kentucky, where they are still chewing the blue grass, all unconscious of their future. Other instalments of the new agricultural policy are breathlessly awaited.

Temperance News.

It is a good idea to teach your boys that "success is not abundance of riches but abundance of manhood." The greatest thing in our province today is not its great public spirit of enterprise, its fine public buildings or its growing wealth. The greatest bulwark of our province today is its homes. East, west, north and south they stretch away and under these roof trees are growing up the boys who are to carry on the work which in many cases you can only begin.

The I O G T is the largest temperance order in the world and has been the means of starting many a boy in the path of true manhood. A few weeks ago a lodge of this kind was organized in Woodstock with a prosperous outlook for much good. It is the only temperance society in Woodstock open to all classes of men and boys. Its object is to make the world better.

Many a boy has joined the little temperance lodge at the parting of the ways, taken the temperance pledge and become a staunch temperance man for life. Many a man prominent on the public platform and the floors of parliament today, got his start and made his first speech in the temperance lodge.

It is important for the parents to join the lodge, if it is at all possible, and set an example for the children. Father and mother are the beacon light by which the young mariner begins to guide his bark of life.

Drink is the cause of more suffering sorrow and death than all the other evils put together.

"It is better to build a fence for your boys at the top of the precipice than a hospital at the bottom."

The expenses of the I O G T lodge are light. It all means work, unselfish work from some, beside some discouragement to get the lodge on a good solid foundation. If one boy is saved it would be worth all the trouble and will be helping to build up your town on the right foundation.

LAURA HETHERINGTON.

THE MASK REMOVED.

What a pity that Hon J K Fleming is not on the opposition side of the house. With what frenzied joy he would fall upon the auditor general's statement, which has just been issued. The increase in the public debt would throw him into rapture of rhetoric. The fact that the largely increased federal subsidy had been squandered would furnish him with material for rasping criticism. The reduced expenditure on agriculture would cause him to weep over the woes of the farmer folk. The juggling with the accounts would move him to scorn. And then he would proceed to inform the people that if only he were the provincial secretary he would reduce expenditure, reduce the debt and hand out a real surplus on the year's business. But Mr Fleming is now diligently engaged in creating deficits and making records in expenditure. When the house meets he will no doubt endeavor to prove that he has reduced the debt by increasing it and saved money by spending.—EX.

In the Field.

So far there does not seem to be any great desire on the part of the citizens to serve in the council. Nomination takes place next Thursday morning. Aids Dugan, Hagerman and Fawcett and Editor J P Malaney are in the field, and there is some talk of O I Churchill, Ex-Ald McManus, T O Ketchum and S J Parsons. A contest is unlikely. Ald Thorne is running for Mayor.

The Public Meeting.

The public meeting Monday night is advertised for the council chamber, but will in all probability be held in the Hayden-Gibson Theatre, as it seems probable that there will be a big crowd on hand to hear the different speakers.

Died of pneumonia on Friday, Dec 11 inst, Mary Tyson, infant daughter of John and Annie Barter. The funeral was well attended and the service was beautifully rendered by Rev M Dummham, Rector of St James Episcopal church. Owing to the illness of the bereft mother the service was at the home. Burial in the Barter lot at Avondale.—Dispatch and Press please copy.

Rev George A Ross of Hampton has received, and will probably accept, a unanimous call to the pastorate of the Fairville Methodist church.

Methodist Choir Concert.

The concert in the Methodist church on Monday evening, given by the choir, was attended by a large and appreciative audience. The choir is under leadership of Mr Bird and is an efficient musical organization. The choruses were all well balanced and harmonious. The soloists of the evening were Mrs H N Payson, Mrs H Lockwood, Mrs Geo. W Gibson and Miss Mary Street, and Messrs Donald Matheson, Frank Bird and Wm Balmain. A duet was very nicely rendered by Mr and Mrs H Lockwood. A ladies' quartette composed of Mrs Geo. W Gibson, Mrs H Lockwood, Mrs Benj. Griffith and Mrs H N Payson sang a selection, as did a male quartette, the singers being Donald Matheson, Leslie Hawkins, Wm Balmain and Frank Bird. A duet by Miss Georgie Balmain and Miss Mary Street and a like selection by Miss Montgomery and Miss Mary Street were bright numbers in the programme. Mrs R E Holyoke presided at the organ during the evening and played the accompaniments in a finished manner. The choir, whose names we give below, contains a few, at least, who have faithfully attended the services of the church for many years:

Soprano—Mrs Ada Poole, Mrs Geo. W Gibson, Mrs H Lockwood, Miss Jessie Davies, The Misses Montgomery, and Miss Georgie Balmain.

Altos—Mrs H N Payson, Mrs Benj. Griffith and Miss Mary Street.

Tenors—H Lockwood, Donald Matheson and Leslie Hawkins.

Bases—Wm Balmain, Frank Bird and Walter Stone.

CREEDS IN THE CABINET.

Whether or not a man's religion is taken into account in considering his fitness for cabinet rank in Canada, Sir Wilfrid Laurier's government is broadly representative of the several denominations of the Christian church, containing as it does four Catholics, four Episcopalians, two Presbyterians, two Methodists, one Baptist and one with individuality enough to announce himself as an Independent. The Ministers are distributed among the sects as follows: Premier, Sir Wilfrid Laurier (Roman Catholic); Minister of Trade and Commerce, Sir Richard Cartwright (Church of England); Secretary of State, the Hon Charles Murphy (Roman Catholic); Minister of Finance, the Hon W S Fielding (Baptist); Minister of Militia and Defence, Sir Frederick Borden (Church of England); Minister of Agriculture, the Hon Sydney Fisher (Church of England); Minister of Customs, the Hon Wm Paterson (Independent); Minister of Marine and Fisheries, the Hon L P Brodeur (Roman Catholic); Minister of the Interior, the Hon Frank Oliver (Presbyterian); Minister of Justice, the Hon A B Aylesworth (Methodist); Postmaster-General, the Hon Rodolphe Lemieux (Roman Catholic); Minister of Inland Revenue, not appointed since the election, when the Hon Wm Templeman was defeated; Minister of Public Works, the Hon William Pugsley (Church of England); Minister of Railways and Canals, the Hon George P Graham (Methodist).—Sun.

Judge Barker has given judgment in the matter of Nevers vs Lilley, wherein plaintiff applied for an injunction restraining defendant from carrying on business in his present location, alleging a nuisance. The judge refused the application.

JOTTINGS.

An excellent book is now being offered for sale by subscription. The title is "The Golden Treasury of Poetry and Song."—(tf)

Miss Frankie Milmore is recovering from the effects of appendicitis, an operation having been performed last week at the Hospital.

Previous to stock taking The Hartland Department Store will sell Ladies and Gents fur and fur-lined coats at greatly reduced prices.—tf

Amos Freeman of Hartford has two horses recently. They were sick only about forty eight hours. Some strange inward disease, unknown to the people, carried them off.

"The Golden Treasury of Poetry and Song" is an excellent work. It should be in every home. A solicitor will probably call on you. You will find the book well worth the money.—(tf)

The Town Meeting has been called for Monday night. Should the council chamber prove too small, we understand the owners of the nearby Theatre will open their doors to accommodate the crowd. We advise the public to attend the meeting.

Special revival services were begun in the Reformed Baptist Church Wed. night and will be continued every evening indefinitely. Rev M E Borders of Lynn, Mass., will be the preacher for the next two weeks beginning Sunday.

A meeting of the Canadian Club will be held in the Town Council Chamber Tuesday evening, 12th inst, at eight o'clock. As this will be the first general meeting it is desirable that all members be present.

The Barker House New Year's Menu was a veritable work of art, reflecting much credit upon the general proprietor who is keeping his house right in the front rank in every particular.

Bath.

The schools opened Monday with the same staff of teachers as last term, Miss Annie Jones, Advanced, and Miss Kate Barker, Primary rooms respectively.
