Hartland

February came in cold, the 1st being the coldest day of the season. The ground-hog may make his appearance today (2nd), but will if wise crawl back into his hole.

The roll call service at the Baptist Church last Sunday evening was largely attended and an interesting time reported. Many addresses made with varied experience.

Very few people visiting the village these days. The roads in the back country are blocked with drifts.

Those districts that clamored for snow plows make but little use of them this winter. If a plow could be constructed to go ahead of the team it would be better appreciated, but when 6 horses are put on to haul the thing and a dozen men in attendance to keep it in its place it is poor fun then. The plow creates a curbing, piles the snow each side of the road and the track it cuts is not wide enough for two teams to pass each other, then without a road law to compel a breaking through drifts. The old game is played, one waits for another to make a track. With this condition of affairs, small quantities of hay and potatoes arrive for shipment. Potatoes are bearing a good price and Hatfield & Scott are among the prominent buyers and shippers. Dewitts, Smalley and others are shipping.

We were glad to see Joel Ellis of Coldstream on our street again a few days ago after quite a long and serious illness.

Our former bridge toll taker, Jas Pearson, was in town a few days ago hale and hearty.

Many wood piles are growing small. No wood coming in on account of storms and bad roads.

Sayre's Mill is turning out laths in large quantities.

Frank Hagerman received the appointment of collector of rates and taxes. The ill health of former collector made it necessary for him to resign.

George O Gray and D Oughlan, surveyors of lumber for J E Sayre's are now kept very busy on booms and landings.

The woods are full of teams hauling off the yards.

Travellers by rail who dine here speak highly of bill of fare.

Special services are being held in the Reformed Baptist Church. Rev Mr Kinney is assisting the pastor at present.

It is unfair to those who are prompt in paying their taxes that others should be allowed to be in arrears two and three years. We are told there will soon be a day of reckoning. The Parish needs the money.

J T G Carr's staff are very busy taking stock.

We are advised of the death of Mrs Chas J Shaw who died on Sunday last at the home of her son Frank Shaw, Warden of Carleton County, aged 83.

On Saturday last a gentleman residing in Hartland received an anonymous letter through the post office containing 4 one hundred American bills. The writer said: Dear Sir, I enclose you the within four hundred dollars being amount I owe you with interest added. Would like to have sent it to you before, but have not been able. I am trying to do better; you can regard this as conscience money. If I live to see you I will tell you all about it. The receiver of the amount is at a loss to know from whom it came. Such an act admits of comment which I have not time to make now, may refer to it hereafter.

Those about to marry please remember that J C Everett issues marriage license but does not make them an article of merchandise by reducing the fee authorized by the government. There are instances where applicants tried to beat down the price. If a wife is not worth the cost of license she is not worth having, and the man who seeks to cut down the price exhibits a meanness which if made known to the bride in time should be sufficient cause to make her reject him. The issuer who reduces the price is acting unfairly with others who hold the appointment and may be considered a dishonorable and discourteous act.

Business in all departments is quiet and there will not be much improvement until the men come out of the woods. ADDON.

Betts-Shaw.

An interesting event took place at the residence of Mr G W Shaw, Pembroke, on Dec 23rd, when his eldest daughter Miss Beulah Maude was united in marriage to Percy Nelson Betts of St John.

The bride entered the prettily decorated parlor, leaning on the arm of her father. The ceremony was performed by Rev E C Jenkins, in the presence of about twenty-five guests. The bride wore a becoming costume of cream colored crepe de chine made with lace over silk and carried white carnations and maiden hair ferns. The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was rendered on the piano by Miss Sadie Shaw sister of the bride.

After congratulations the company repaired to the dining room where a dainty lunch was served, after which the happy couple took the evening express for St John where they will reside.

The bride received many useful and valuable presents consisting mostly of cut glass and silverware among which we noticed a handsome gift from the O E Society of which the bride was a member. They were also very generously remembered in the way of an elegant morris chair by the Baptist Choir of which the groom is a member.

We wish the couple many years of happy wedded life.—Com.
