Monacelli Sent Up For Trial. Dr. Kirkpatrick, Canadian Commissioner to Cuba,

October 19th Case Will Open.

The preliminary examination of Monacelli, charged with the murder of Laganie, was commenced before Magistrate Dibblee at 10 o'clock last Friday morning.

The prisoner had no counsel. Solicitor-General McLeod looked after the prosecution. C. Nichols of St John was interpreter.

Sheriff Tompkins and Chief Kelly brought the prisoner into the court. The charge was explained to him by the interpreter and Monacelli, on advice sent him by his counsel at Sussex by telephone said nothing.

Evelyn Wallace, the first witness said she lived in Beechwood, Carleton County. She had known the prisoner two years. She met him in Beechwood. She saw him a week and a half before August 8th at Beechwood. He was stopping at her house at night and getting his meals at the construction car.

He came on a Sunday night a week before the shooting and said that the cars were warm and asked if he could stay there. Sometimes other Italians would be there. She did not know of any trouble between "Nick," and the prisoner. On Sunday, August 8, "Nick" was at the house different times. The prisoner was there during the day. He came at 8 o'clock in company with the boy Digregardi, now in court.

The murdered man came about 9 o'clock. The only Italians present were the three mentioned. No others were present but her husband, father, herself and little girl. June Ketch was not there.

The witness said she was present when Laganie arrived, Mrs Wallace then made a plan of the interior of the house on request of the Solicitor General. She was in the kitchen. The prisoner, Lagoni and Louis Digregardi were in the dining room with her father. She heard them talking in Italian and thought it was in a friendly manner. These two were sitting in the north west end of the room near together. "Nick" was in the southeast part. The room is about 7 by 10 feet.

The dining room table was in the centre of the room. "Nick" and his cousin Angelo were there for the night. "Nick" said: "I'm going to bed."

Nick and Sandy were talking. She fastened the back door and when she came back the prisoner was standing firing at "Nick." She was away a minute or two. There were no signs of any quarrel before the shooting. He was firing with a revolver. She was in the kitchen looking in the dining room. The prisoner was standing and Laganie was sitting in his chair near the door through which she was looking. He got out of the chair and fell out in the hall. He was sitting in the chair when Sandy fired his shots. He said in English: "Oh, he shot me."

The witness said she raised his head, his coat was on fire, put the fire out and ran for the telephone. The prisoner was only four or five feet away. The man was still alive.

She notified Squire Kearney by telephone. When she came back the prisoner was gone. She did not see him since until today. She did not see what her father or Albert Demerchant did. "Nick" was conscious when she came back from the telephone.

She got a cot bed and laid him on it. Dr Ross was called.

She positively identified the prisoner as the man who did the shooting. A special train took the man to Woodstock. She would not know the revolver, but it was dropped on the kitchen floor and Dr Ross took it away.

Robert Wallace gave similar evidence to his wife.

Louis Digregardi, sworn, said that he was born in Teramo, Italy, and had been in this country three months. He knew the prisoner three years in the old country, and Nick two years and six months. He was not very well acquainted with Mrs Wallace. He was in her house on Sunday as was the prisoner "Nick." They were in the room together 30 minutes or more. Sandy asked Nick to have a drink out of a bottle he carried. Nick did not take it, saying he did not want it.

The witness did not understand English, but Sandy told him that Nick asked Mrs Wallace for a kiss. The three of them were in the room when the landlady came in. "Nick got up and went to hit Sandy. Sandy had a revolver in his hand. Nick was going to hit Sandy with his fists. He saw no weapon in Nick's hands. Sandy was about three or four feet away when he fired. Nick was near his chair when Sandy fired. The witness left. He never saw the prisoner since until he saw him in jail last Thursday, when he had a talk with him.

The first witness heard this afternoon was Dr Rankin. Examined by Hon Mr McLeod, he said that he was a registered practitioner in Woodstock. He first saw Laganie the day before he died at the Woodstock hospital. Dr Grant and himself, during the postmortem, found the trace of three bullets and secured two of them. One wound was in the arm, one in the lung and one in the right thigh. The doctor then produced the two bullets found in the body at the postmortem, and described the course of the bullets through the body. Laganie came to his death as the result of the injuries inflicted by the bullets.

Dr N P Grant, sworn, said that he was a duly registered physician, practising in Woodstock. He attended Laganie in the hospital. He assisted Dr Rankin at the postmortem held in the undertaking rooms. They found three bullet wounds, the arm one was a skin wound, the one in the lung would have proved fatal, the one in the large muscles of the left hip would most likely be a fatal wound. The cause of Laganie's death was loss of blood and shock caused by bullet wounds. He was acquainted with Laganie before the shooting, as he met him last year at Newburg Junction.

The examination was continued Saturday morning. The first witness was called. Dep Sheriff Armstrong who being sworn gave testimony as follows.

I was called to Beechwood at 1:30 on Sunday morning, arriving about 4 o'clock. I drove to Mr Wallace's house. The revolver shown was given to me by Mr Ross, the five shells all discharged. Revolver offered in evidence. I went down to the cars after that and interviewed some of the men there. Dr Ross was in the house before I arrived and the injured man had been removed to the train which took him to the Woodstock hospital.

Herbert Lindsay was sworn. He said I am constable for this county. I know the prisoner. The first time I saw him was the night of the arrest. I went into the car about 9 o'clock. An Italian, Dominick, was with them. The prisoner came at a quarter to eleven to the cars and whistled. Dominick told the prisoner to go to the other door. The prisoner did so, and W W Melville and myself arrested Sandy. Prisoner was handcuffed, but upon his (prisoner's) request witness fed him and he was handed over to Sheriff Tompkins, who took him to Woodstock jail.

Dr Demore Ross, sworn, said: I am a practitioner in Florenceville. I was called to Wallace's house on the morning of the murder. I saw Nick lying on a lounge. There were two wounds on the left side near the hip and one between the neck and shoulder. The wound on the arm was a slight one. I dressed the wounds. One shot had gone into the bladder. I told him he would not get better. I then telephoned to Superintendent King, who got a special train and sent him to Woodstock. I saw the revolver before. I found it on the floor between the window and the stove in the kitchen. The shells were in it but the shots had been fired. I did not see Monacelli since. I did not attend the murdered man at the hospital. I gave the revolver to Sheriff Armstrong.

Solicitor General—That will close the evidence for the prosecution.

Magistrate Dibblee—Having heard the evidence you are not bound to say anything, but whatever said it will be taken down in writing and will be given against you at the trial. I advise you to say nothing. Do you wish to make any statement? Monacelli—I have nothing to say, but I would like to have time to get my witnesses.

Magistrate Dibblee—The evidence is sufficient to do so, and I will commit you to the county jail until the next session of the court to be held in this county on October 19th next.

The prisoner was then removed to the jail by Chief Kelly.

150 Men Have Quit Work at Chatham.

Employment of Miramichi Pulp Mill Walk Out When Pay Is Not forthcoming—Mill Is Shut Down.

(Special to The Standard)

Chatham, Aug 22.—As the result of 150 men walking out of the Miramichi Pulp and Paper Mill yesterday morning, the big plant employing about 300 hands had to be shut down. The men state that their wages have been long overdue in some cases eight weeks, and when money was not forthcoming Friday, it was generally expected they had decided to quit work. On Saturday morning they asked for their pay and when it was not given they struck. It is hoped to get things running again Monday.

The Salvation Army band drove to Hawshaw last Thursday and played two days at the picnic. Their band was much appreciated. They are to play at a picnic at Avondale next week.

DEAR SENTINEL.—I regret very much being obliged to return to Havana so soon and not to have had time to have seen more of my friends before starting. It was understood that I would return on the boat from Halifax, and I did not expect it to sail until the 25th. However, on Friday I received a message stating that it would sail from Halifax at daylight Sunday morning, the 22nd, and I was obliged to start at once in order to catch it.

I am very much pleased with the result of my trip and with the interest that is being shown in the Havana and Cuba markets. There is a big future there for New Brunswick shippers, and I am confident that the Government will assist materially a good service for New Brunswick produce. I wish the shippers, regardless of politics, to know that I will do everything there in my power for them, and it will be pleasing to me to hear from any one desiring information concerning Cuban markets. I have been very anxious not to mislead any one, and if I have erred it has been on the side of over-caution, for I do not wish any shipper to be disappointed through me.

I expect to send frequent reports to the Secretary of Shippers Association for the benefit of all members, and I will have my cable address registered on my arrival—"Kirk, Havana." The Western Union Code may be used for cipher messages or the A B C 5th Edition.

I sincerely trust that there will not be two competing lines from St John as the traffic will barely support one at present, and even one cannot keep up a regular and frequent service without government assistance. Any competition at the commencement of the service will be bad for its permanency.

I received, when in Havana, some very funny letters, but I think the best of all was sent by a firm in Austria and ran as follows:

"Mr E Kirkpatrick, Havana, Dear Sir: We are indebted to a friend of ours for the information that you have been appointed agent for Hungarian Beans, and, as we are large exporters of the same, we hope to be able to do business through you. We are sending you several samples of our product, etc."

By the next mail I got three small sample bags of different varieties of beans, which I brought home with me, and any one interested in growing beans may have them for experimenting by calling at my office.

The mail service to Havana is wretched and unreliable. The postage from Canada to Cuba is five cents for letters, and on all letters I receive with two cents postage I have to pay six cents additional. For some reason, which I cannot understand, I never received a copy of the Sentinel all the time I was in Havana, although I have good reason to believe that a copy was mailed every week and I tried in every way to learn the cause of them going astray.

Very Sincerely,
E S KIRKPATRICK.

Captain Thomas S Duncan.

The death of Captain T S Duncan occurred at his residence here on Friday evening last. Captain Duncan's health had been failing him for some time, and during the last few weeks his condition became much more serious. He was born in Springfield, Kings Co, on Feb 2nd, 1831. He spent most of his life in Steam Boat Service, on the St John River in fact he was the oldest living Captain of river steamers. He was one of the oldest Masons in the province, having been a member of Woodstock Lodge for 52 years. He was also a member of the Royal Arcanum. The deceased was a member of the Methodist church. Captain Duncan leaves a widow, who was Miss Eliza Home of Upper Woodstock, and one daughter Mrs Henry McKay of Boston. The funeral took place from his late residence on Monday the Rev R W Weddall of the Methodist church officiating. The hymns "Asleep in Jesus" and "Lead Kindly Light" were rendered by a Quartette from the Methodist Choir. The members of the Masonic Lodge walked at the funeral and their service was read at the grave by John MacLaughlan.

The pall bearers were John MacLaughlan, Robert Jones, Wood Kyle and Donald Munro. Many floral tributes testified to the esteem in which Captain Duncan was held in the community.

BAPTIST CONVENTION AND MORAL REFORM.

Liquor and Tobacco Discussed—Mission Work

Halifax, Aug 24.—Chancellor Jones, of the University of New Brunswick, presided at the opening of the sixteenth annual convention of the United Baptists of the Maritime Provinces on Saturday. Over two hundred delegates were present.

Rev H F Waring welcomed the delegates to Halifax.

In the report on home missions in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island stress was laid on the work in the different mission charges in the two provinces, the work among the colored people and the French evangelization campaign. Regarding finances an urgent appeal was made for two thousand dollars within three months.

Officers were elected as follows:

President—Dr Cohoon.

Vice-presidents—Col Vince and Rev S H Cornwall.

Assistant secretaries—H G Kennedy and R J Colpitts.

Statistical secretary—H C Creed.

Treasurer—Rev H S Freeman.

Before retiring from the chair Chancellor Jones said he hoped the association would work the new president harder than they did the old. He felt that there was a lack of leadership and that the president did not occupy the position of leader that he should. He should be made a member of all committees ex officio. There was also too small a number of men in the working field. The foreign mission field was not given the attention it should receive. He was delighted with the work of the Laymen's Missionary Movement. The churches were all doing their share, and he looked to see still better results in the near future.

The report of the western missions dealt with the condition of affairs in western Canada, where the people, representing forty different nationalities, are constantly coming into the country, which means a great field for mission work. Last year the Maritime Association contributed $4,000 to this work. Of this amount $2,500 was given by the ladies of the church. The ladies' mission should give at least $10,000 to this work, said the report.

The Temperance and Moral Reform Committee report said Presbyterians and Methodists were so united that they employed a man to give his whole time to the question of temperance and moral reform and expressed the hope that the day was not far distant when the Baptists would do likewise. Liquor, cocaine and tobacco habits have to be coped with and every effort should be made to eliminate these evils.

Nelson B Smith took exception to the report putting the tobacco habit on a par with the liquor habit.

Rev G A Lawson said the time was coming when Nova Scotia and New Brunswick would with Prince Edward Island say that liquor had no legal right to exist.

Rev J E Wilson said it was the men who drink or sell liquor that do not want prohibition.

Dr Cohoon said that Mr Smith's objections were well taken.

E D King moved an amendment that the report be sent back to the committee to modify and add a strong resolution.

Hon Geo E Foster said he did not put tobacco and liquor in the same class, but tobacco and cigarettes were great evils. It was perilous to say tobacco was as great an evil as liquor. It would be an infringement on the truth and this would weaken the report. He thought the report should be sent back to the committee to modify and bring in a strong resolution.

On motion of Mr McLeod the report was sent back and Rev Mr Hutchinson and Hon Geo E Foster were added to the committee.

Addresses by Rev I W Porter, Rev E Mcosworth and Rev D B Harkness of Canadian missions occupied the evening session of the association.

Train Plunges Through Bridge No One Killed.

Victoria, B C, Aug 25.—What is considered by those chiefly concerned as little less than a miracle occurred near here yesterday when an entire Great Northern passenger train plunged through a burning bridge, dropping into a gulch forty-feet below. No one was killed, and no one was fatally hurt.

The whole train, engine, mail car, baggage and express car and passenger coaches is a complete wreck, and the financial loss exceeds $25,000. The train was bound from Grand Forks to Spokane and was on the bridge before the seriousness of the situation was sized up.

The Band Picnic.

Owing to the heavy rain that fell on last Wednesday the picnic which was to have been held on the island was conducted in the Armory and proved a grand success.

A large crowd gathered for supper and by 5:30 o'clock the tables were well filled, and many waiting for a chance to sit down.

Although the tables were looked after by the ladies of the Order Eastern Star, Rebekahs and Ladies Auxiliary of A O H the tables were not officially named after these Orders as it was found impossible to hold a meeting of the different societies in time to make it official. The ladies kindly consented however to take charge of these tables and do their best for the band. Their efforts certainly succeeded, and a splendid supper was the result.

On the O E S table were Mrs John and Robert Lindsay, Miss Edie Everett, Miss Bessie MacLaughlan and Miss Jessie Davis. The Rebekah table was in charge of Mrs Geo Lee and assistants were Miss Lizzie Gibson, Miss Aggie Dent, Miss Rita Elsworth, Miss McLean. The A O H table was presided over by Miss Daisy Hughes. Misses Carrie Caldwell, Mildred Riordan, Minnie Hall, Helen McManus and Sadie Brown were her able assistants.

The different refreshment booths were well patronized as were also the different games.

The merchants very generously gave the band boys numerous prizes, and as they were not all given out at the picnic they will be tendered to the winners of them at the gala day on the island on Labor day on which day the band intend running a field day of sports.

The prizes that were won at the picnic were:

Bowling Alley—1st prize solid leather grip won by Chas F Rogers and donated by R B Jones. 2nd prize wallet won by D Munro and donated by E W Mair.

Gents Bean Toss—Umbrella won by Clarence Ryan, donated by Henderson & Hunt.

Ladies Bean Toss—Silver Butter Knife won by Mrs D Glew, donated by Clarke & Air Gun—Briar Pipe won by Fred McLean, donated by Royal Cafe.

Dolls—Box of cigars won by Amaziah Wheeler, donated by Chas McKeen.

Advertising Card Prize—Box of cigars won by Johnnie McIntosh, donated by Douglas Stevens.

Gate Prize—1st prize clock won by Joe Bradley; 2nd prize rocker, won by Maurice Ryan, donated by A Henderson Co.

Capt A Fields who so kindly tendered the boys the use of the bowling alley and who did so much otherwise to help towards the benefit of the band has the heartiest thanks of all.

The ladies who did so much to help make the picnic the success that it was will accept the thanks of the band.

CHRISTIANS BEATEN TO DEATH BY TURKS.

Soldiers and Police of Macedonia Guilty of Most Revolting Brutalities.

Salonica, Aug 24.—Reports of terrible ill-treatment of the population of Macedonia by soldiers, gendarmes and police have lately become frequent and persistent. In most recent cases the sufferers have been Greeks, the Greek element being that which happens for the nonce to be in bad odor with the Turks.

Three days ago four peasants out of a much larger number who had been savagely beaten by soldiers at Arkoudokhori, near Naisus, had the courage to come to Salonika and to make the round of the foreign consulates, displaying unmistakable evidence of the treatment they had received at the hands of the "reformed" gendarmerie.

The following incident will show that the practice of bearing non-Moslem prisoners is still carried on with a degree of publicity, effrontery, and shamelessness rare if ever paralleled under the much-abused "Old Regime." About the hour of noon yesterday the curious procession passed along the highly respectable street in the suburbs of Salonika in which the British consulate general is situated.

At the head of the procession came a prisoner, secured by a heavy iron chain passing twice diagonally round his body. Behind him came six or eight "reformed" gendarmes, the officer in command of whom was belaboring the prisoner with a heavy whip.

The victim, who was too well secured to be capable either of resistance or any attempt to escape, winced and reeled under the blows, and his cries were distressing to hear.

A young man in the gathering crowd attempted to expostulate with one of the officers, who immediately struck him about the head and face while another officer rushed toward him with a drawn sword. The would-be mediator took to his heels, and the procession went on its way.

Look out for counterfeit twenty-five cent pieces of the issue of 1904.
