A Moral Idealist.

(President Schurman of Cornell University, Estimate of Lincoln.)
No statesman in the world ever exhibited to the same extent the moral quality which made Lincoln what he was, or cherished it with equal fervor or constancy. I do not deny that other statesmen had moral aims but I assert that the soul and essence of Lincoln's statesmanship was the possession of a moral ideal. He had apprehended and made a part of himself—so that he could never be himself without it—the big simple and fundamental moral truth which the mind of his generation had not yet discerned, that men, whether white or black, were entitled to equal rights, and that slavery, whatever its economic advantage or its constitutional guarantees, was a monstrous wrong, which must somehow and some time be swept off the face of God's universe.

In the Spring.

I dread the coming of the spring when flowers bloom and robins sing, and lambskins gambol on the lawns—the winter's good enough for me. I hate to think of planting seeds and digging dirt and pulling weeds and getting up at break of dawn to chase the cattle off the lawn. Of course the birds are mighty sweet and budding trees cannot be beat and growing things are nice enough and vernal breezes are the stuff; but I have always found it true that there's no doggoned much to do a fellow has no time to note the charming things the poets quote.

STOMACH DISTRESS.

And all Misery from Indigestion Vanishes Five Minutes Later.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapiesin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of Indigestion or Stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heart burn, that is a sign of Indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take one triangle after supper tonight. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heart burn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headache, Dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for all stomach misery, because it will take hold of your food and digest it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Actual, prompt relief for all your stomach misery is at your Pharmacist, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure a case of Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

The Bishop's Reception.

Melba describing Australia in an interview, said:

"My fellow-countrymen are like your westerners of the '70s. They have a delicious humor and a mocking scepticism. The bishop of Ballarat rode one night into a little township of his diocese that he had never visited before. It was late and rainy. The only building with a light in it was the office of the local paper, and the bishop knocked on the door with his crop-stick.

"'Hello below!' cried a voice, and a head popped out of the window above.

"'I am the bishop of Ballarat,' said the prelate mildly. 'Will you be so good as to direct me to an hotel?'

"'From the roomful of compositors came a loud burst of laughter, and another man stuck out his head and said to the bishop in a tone of kindly reproach.

"'Look here, old man, you've had about enough hotel for one night! Go on home and go to bed, or you'll get run in as sure as shootin'!'

His father had found it necessary to rather severely punish Robert, aged five. This little chap came running to me with resentment in his heart.

"'Auntie,' he sobbed, 'did God make you?'

"'Yes, Robert,' I answered. 'And did he make me?'

"'Yes.' 'And did he make me?'

"'Certainly, my boy.' 'And did he make me, too?'

"'Of course he did.' 'Well, sobbed Robert sadly, 'that's when He made a mistake!'

The Death Mill.

Director William T. Hornaday, of the Bronx Zoo, was discussing bitterly the ruthless slaughter of the Rocky Mountain sheep of southern California.

"They will soon become extinct," said he. "Such wanton cruelty makes my blood boil. It brings back to me my visit to an alkali works. There, indeed, life is cruel. The foul gases that belch forth night and day rot the teeth, the clothes, and, in the end, the bodies of the workers, and they kill every green thing for miles around. In one mill bleaching powder was being made. Chlorine gas was being poured over slaked lime. This chlorine gas, a green vapor, was so poisonous that the men wore thick goggles over their eyes and 20 thicknesses of flannel over their mouths. As I entered that awful mill, I said to one of the laborers:

"'And what are you making here?'

"'Corpses,' he said, 'and I, you see am only half done.'"

It will prolong life—De Notis, the Spaniard, lost his life in the wilds of Florida, whether he went for the purpose of discovering the legendary "Fountain of perpetual youth," said to exist in that unknown country. While Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil will not perpetuate youth, it will remove the bodily pains which make the young old before their time and harass the aged into untimely graves.

Tell-tale Footprints.

A man never knows when he is covering up his tracks; he never knows how long they will stay covered or who will get on his trail. Up in Canada, while digging for the new Toronto water works, the diggers found in the blue clay 70 feet below the water line the footprints of a gentleman who had tramped around that way some years ago. The geologists disagree as to the exact time, some holding that the freshness of the footprints indicates that it was only 50,000 years ago, while others believe that the toonall prints indicate that it has been about 100,000 years since the gentleman passed that way. Not that this slight discrepancy matters to the gentleman or to us; for nobody had to sit on the fence there and wait for him 50,000 years, even if he did not happen to be late.

World's Tallest Chimney.

What is every way the largest chimney in the world has been recently topped off at the works of the Boston and Montana Copper and Silver plant, near Great Falls, Mont. It is 508 feet above the top of the foundation ring and is 50 feet wide at the top. This overtops the next highest chimney by 140 feet. This great diameter will give a discharge capacity of 4,000,000 cubic feet of gases per minute.

Cataract Cannot be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Cataract is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Felt's Cataract Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Felt's Cataract Cure is not a quick medicine. It is prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Cataract. Send for testimonials free.

EXPERIENCE IS BETTER THAN ARGUMENT

The world-wide fame of Mother Seigel's Syrup is based on the evidence of men and women whom it has cured of indigestion, biliousness, constipation, headache, nervousness, flatulence, nervous depression, anemia, and other disorders of the stomach, liver and kidneys. Compounded of roots and herbs, Mother Seigel's Syrup contains digestive ferments and gentle tonics for the stomach, liver and kidneys. These qualities render it invaluable to all who, through unhealthy surroundings, sedentary occupation, worry, overwork, or climatic changes, lack the vitality which only good food, well digested, can supply. When you are tortured with indigestion, so that you can't eat, can't work, can't think, can't sleep, you should at once give Mother Seigel's Syrup a trial. Tens of thousands of people testify to the curative qualities possessed by Mother Seigel's Syrup because it has cured them. Profit by their experience!

Here is a proof:—Mr. Christy Battersworth, Malton, Inverness Co., N.S., writing on August 13th, 1908, says:—About eighteen months ago I took a severe cold, while at work near Marble Mountain, C.B. Neglect brought on frequent headaches, a racking cough and sore throat. While visiting a friend at Lake Umbagog, I was induced to take Mother Seigel's Syrup. In a short time my cough vanished and apart from obtaining a cure, I increased my weight by thirteen pounds.

Stomach Blood and Liver Troubles

Much sickness starts with weak stomach, and consequent poor, impoverished blood. Nervous and pale-people lack good, rich, red blood. Their stomachs need invigorating for, after all, a man can be no stronger than his stomach.

A remedy that makes the stomach strong and the liver active, makes rich red blood and overcomes and drives out disease-producing bacteria and cures a whole multitude of diseases.

Get rid of your Stomach Weakness and Liver Laziness by taking a course of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—the Great Stomach Restorative, Liver Invigorator and Blood Cleanser.

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine of known composition, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, same being attested as correct under oath.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Lucy Miller, of Buffalo, a bright looking girl, received a New Year's present which appeared to be quite valuable. A few days since she called at the money order department of the city post office and passed through the window to Clerk Fitzpatrick a handsome engraved check, which read: "Bank of Prosperity. Pay to the order of Lucy Miller three hundred and sixty five happy days and $25,000." Lucy said she wanted the money, and was much disappointed when Fitzpatrick handed back the check with a broad grin and told her she had got into the wrong bank. He kindly added that he hoped she might find the happy days, but regretted he could not tell her the location of the bank that would give her the money.
