SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned and marked on the envelope "Tenders for burnt timber," will be received until noon on Thursday, the 16th instant, for a quantity of burnt timber on the Tobique Indian Reserve, on the south side of the Tobique River, N. B., chiefly hemlock, spruce and hardwood.
Tenders should state the prices they will pay per M. feet, B. M., for the different kinds of timber over and above the Crown dues payable under the Tariff Regulations of this Department, namely, spruce and hemlock, eighty cents per M. feet, B. M., birch, one dollar per M. feet, B. M., and maple, two dollars per M. feet, B. M. The usual sworn returns of measurements will be required, and an accepted cheque for $100.00, payable to the order of the undersigned, should accompany each tender, which in the event of failure to carry out the undertaking will be forfeited to the Department.
The highest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted and the unauthorized publication of this advertisement will not be paid for.

During the muddy conditions of the road it would be a good idea for the person whose duty it is, to at least keep the main crossings scraped a little.

The fall of snow this week has brightened up trade, and the universal hope is that it will stay on as Christmas is so near at hand and trade depends altogether on the condition of travel.

R B Jones, one of Woodstock's enterprising Merchants, and who is a regular advertiser in the Sentinel, is sending his patrons a Christmas greeting in the way of a handsome Calendar for the New Year.

The Bijou Theatre has been giving his patrons some excellent pictures. The silent stage is about the best after all; on it, the audience cannot, at any rate, hear language by the actors that would do no sound well in a parlor at a family gathering.

Well, what about the Valley Railroad now? Does Mr Hazen forget how B F Smith lost his political life. We think that it would be advisable for Messrs Hazen and Flemming to ponder. That railway question with those promises are fresh in the minds of the people.

Dibble & Son the Hardware Dealers.

One man that we know of, is certainly performing a very christian act. He says that he will give any scholar, unable to buy them, a pair of perfect fitting glasses and test their eyes free of all charge. We have known opticians to test the eyes free of charge but seldom, if ever, have they given the glasses free also. This christian gentleman is Geo W Young of Blaine, Maine.

A public meeting will be held on Thursday evening under the auspices of the Carleton-Victoria Teachers Institute in Broadway school house, at eight o'clock.
Addresses will be delivered by W S Carter, Chief Superintendent of Education, T B Kidner, director of Manual Training, and others.

Arrangements have been made by the Department of Agriculture of the Province of New Brunswick with the Canadian Pacific Railway for single fare return tickets to St John upon the Standard Certificate Plan, for the Amherst Fair, which will be held on Dec. 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th. The excursion rate from St John to Amherst is $2.80. Any one buying a First-class ticket for St John should get a Standard Certificate from the Station Agent and this must be filled in and signed by the Secretary of the Amherst Winter Fair, and this certificate will be his return ticket from St John to his own station. For the Horse Sale on Dec. 14th, the same arrangements have been made.

$40. Worth of Furs.

Some one is sure to get a handsome set of Furs for Xmas. These furs will be on exhibition in Manzer's Oak Hall Store this week. All you have to do is to buy some tickets from any member of the band who will sell you three for 25 cents or four books for $1.00, or one chance for 10 cts. If the tickets can be sold the drawing will take place Dec 23 so that the winner can have the furs for Xmas. It is hoped that the people who live in Woodstock and the surrounding country, who all enjoyed the open air concerts last summer will be seized with a generous impulse and give a helping hand to the band by buying tickets. We feel sure that all public spirited citizen will do their part in helping to support a musical organization in their town and that the people in the county will be equally generous with their help. Tickets can be had at either the Press office, this office, or from any member of the band.
