The Canadian Pacific Railway Co. is planning large expenditures at the Port of St. John. It is stated that the Company will spend over a million dollars on terminals on the property recently purchased at the head of the harbour. In this ;connection it is rumoured that the Company will put two steamers on the Bay of Fundy route to Nova Scotia, making two trips per day between St. John and Digby, instead of one as at present. It is also looking into the question of running two trains per day between St. John and Montreal to accommodate
