toper attention to the hair scalp is the best preventive

he natural oil of the head.

When I First Used "Fruit-a-tives"

Limited, Ottawa, enclosing regular retail price.

disorders. I tried many different

One of your travellers called on me told him, very curtly, that I had a medicine", but he very good-naturedly offered me a sample of "Fruit-a-tives and insisted on my trying them. I did so, with what I would call amazing results. They completely cured me and since then (nearly six years ago) it is only necessary for me to take one occasionally to preserve me in my present good health.

I was 65 years old yesterday. You are at liberty to publish this letter and my photo, if you think it would induce some others to use your splendid remedy. "Fruit-a-tives" cures Headaches because it is the greatest blood purifying medicine in the world. "Fruit-a-tives" is also the only remedy made of fruit juices. Dealers everywhere sell "Fruit-a-tives" at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50 or trial

TOOMS!

AXES CROSS-CUT SAWS PEAVEYS

H.E. BURTT

Corner Main and Connell Streets.

P. A. WATSON Carriage Maker, KING STREET.

Wishes to announce that he is building a limited number of LIGHT and MEAVY WAGGONS, and guarantees that they will be up to gloomy contemplation of his daughdate and huish. Also man he is now ready to receive orders for ter's face: Painting, Trimming and Jobbin; of all kinds at the lowest possible price consistent with first-class work. And we wish to add that Mr. Watson has bought the lard and premises that he now occupies and me to leave you for a few days? There has built a large blacksmith shop in the rear of the building formerly is a man I must see-must go to, if you used for that purpose and intends adding another story to the build- have no dread of being left alone with ng facing the street. He has als, bought all kinds of machinery stant attendance." dapted to carriage work, which he intends to instal as soon as warm | Miss Grey looked startled. Doubteather will permit. Give h m a call and you will be satisfied that less she found it difficult to understand ou will save time and money by giving him your work.

For Sale!

226

Queen Street Station building; also old Station building at Yard, and Barn on form-For particulars apply to F. M. RUITER Resident Engineer, Woodstock, N.B.—if 42.

We want a reliable man in each locality to introduce and advertise our Royal Purple Stock and Poultry Specifics, and other goods, direct to consumers as well as to merchants. $15 a week and expenses or commission. No experience needed. The largest advertised goods in Canada. Write at once for

W. A. JENKINS MFG. CO. - LONDON, ONT.

Notice of Tenders

Tenders will be received at the Office of the undersigned up to noon of the second day of January next, for the purchase of the County Let and Buildings thereon, situati at Upper Woodstock, and formerly known as the County Court Horse Lot, and containing about 8 acr s, subject to the right of the School District at Upper Woodstock .-The levest or any tender not necessarily

Dated Woodstock, N. B., Sept. 8: 1910. J. C HARTLEY, Sec.-Treas, of Carleton County

FOR SALE!

Horse Feed Cattle Feed

Hoy Feed AT MEDUXNAKEAG

ROLLER MILL. J. M. FRIPP. Woodstock, Oct 1, 1910-tf-39

For Sale!

A TWO HORSE POWER

WATER MOTOP IN GOOD CONDITION. Apply to Sentinel Office

ildness. An occasional ap-(Continued from fifth page) ation of Bearine Hair Pomkeeps the scalp in healthy

Dut was this really so? Was he as failed? What if they failed to find Wellgood? Would Mr. Durand be released without a trial? Should we hear nothing more of the strange and, to many, the suspicious circumstances would be expecting too much from either police or official discrimination. No: Mr. Durand would never be com- druggists. pletely exonerated till the true culprit was found and all explanations made I had therefore been simply fighting his battles when I pointed out what I scovered Headache Cure, in the world. | thought to be the weak place in their present theory, and, sore as I felt in contemplation of my seemingly heartless action. I was not the unimpressionable, addle-pated nonentity I must have seemed to the inspector.

The Woman in the Alcove

Yet my comfort was small and the effort it took to face Mr. Grey and my ye g patient was much greater than should have fared badly in his thoughts. | anayed ment. during my absence which absorbed his excellent explanations. The parting thought and filled him with anxiety. was more like that of one who sees no A Western Union envelope lay at his immediate promise of return than of a feet-proof that he had just received a traveler who intends to limit his stay telegram. This under ordinary circum- to a few days. He looked her in the stances would not have occasioned me eyes and kissed her a dezen times, naturally the recipient of all sorts of which was good neither for her nor for communications from All parts of the himself, and when he finally tore himsize, 25c. If your dealer does not handle "Fruit-a-tives", send to Fruit-a-tives of a half stifled doubt still gnawing at my heart, everything that occurred to him took on importance and roused

When he had left the room, Miss Grey nestled up to me with the seemingly ingenuous remark:

"Poor papa! Something disturbs him. He will not tell me what. I suppose he thinks I am not strong enough to share his troubles, but I shall be soon. Don't you see I am gaining every day?"

"Indeed I do," was my hearty response. In face of such a sweet confidence and open affection doubt vanished, and I was able to give all my thoughts to her.

"I wish papa felt as sure of this as you do," she said. "For some reason he does not seem to take any comfort from my improvement. When Dr. Freligh says, 'Well, well, we are getting on finely today!' I notice that he does not look less anxious, nor does he even meet these encouraging words with a smile. Haven't you noticed it? He taken sick. Why should he? Is it because he has lost so many children he cannot believe in his good fortune at having the most insignificant of all left his person. These details counted lit-

"I do not know your father very well," I protested, "and cannot judge and that, if nothing unforeseen happens, your recovery will only be a matter of a week or two longer."

"Oh, how I love to hear you say that! her father with her, so took this opportunity to turn the conversation aside proceeded far before Mr. Grey returned and, taking his stand at the foot of the bed, remarked, after a moment's

"You are better today, the doctor says. I have just been telephoning to him. But do you feel well enough for what man in this strange country could interest her father enough to induce him to leave her while he was yet iaboring under such solicitude. But a smile speedily took the place of her look of surprised inquiry, and she affectionately exclaimed: "Oh, I haven't the least dread in the world, not now. See, I can hold up my arms. Go, papa, go; it will give me a chance to surprise you with my good looks when you come back."

He turned abruptly away. He was suffering from an emotion deeper than he cared to acknowledge. But he gained control over himself speedily and, coming back, announced with forced decision:

"I shall have to go tonight. I have no choice. Promise me that you will not go back in my absence; that you will strive to get well; that you will put all your mind into striving to get well." "Indeed, I-will," she answered, a little frightened by the feeling he showed. "Don't worry so much. I have more than one reason for living, papa." He shook his head and went immediately to make his preparations for departure. His daughter gave one sob, then caught me by the hand.

"You look dumfounded," said she. "But never mind, we shall get on very well together. I have the most perfect confidence in you."

Was it my duty to let the inspector know that Mr. Grey anticipated absenting himself from the city for a few days? I decided that I would only be impressing my own doubts upon him after a rebuke which should have ir folicles and supplements | BOSTON.

ing hair but stimulates new Church of the Advent, Boston, and growth. 50 cts a jar at your a prominent Episcopalian of Massachusetts, was one of the many visiting clergy from this country who assisted at the dedication of the Caon Canada, with illustrations. Halifax and Charlottetown were

Yet when Mr. Grey came to take his certainly have interfered with the promise she had made to concentrate all her energies on getting well. grief at leaving her? Did he fear the person he was going to meet or were his plans such as involved a much longer stay than he had mentioned? Did he even mean to return at all? intend to return or had I been the unconscious witness of a flight?

CHAPTER XVII.

FEW days later three men w . closeted in the district attorhimself and our old friend the inspector. The third was the derective, Sweetwater, chosen by them to keep watch on Mr. Grey.

sweetwater had just come to town. This was evident from the gripsack he had set down in a corner on entering; also from a certain tousled appearance which bespoke hasty rising and but few facilities for proper attention to tle, however, in the astonishment created by his manner. For a hardy chap he looked strangely nervous and indisposed- o much so that after the first short greeting the inspector asked him what was up and if he had had another Fairbrother house experience. He replied with a decided no; that it was not his adventure which had upset him, but the news he had to bring Here he glanced at every door and window, and then, leaning forward over the table at which the two officials sat, he brought his head as nearly to them as possible and whispered

(Continued)

FOR COUGHS and Colds, use Allen's Lung Balsam. Relief is warranted or money refunded.

A Dostonian's Impressions of New Brunswick.

earine not only prevents fall- Dr. W. H. Van Allen, rertor of the thedral at Halifax, N. S. After this event he made a tour of the Maritime Provinces, and after his return to Boston he gave a delightful talk > first taken up, and last Friday if was New Brunswick's turn. The school room where the lectures were held was crowded, there being a the charm of its gray rocks and pic- hours.

tural beauty of Rockwood Park, the the forests of New Brunswick, we had one like it."

know that the eyes of a near sight- millions there." happy and contented, and smile with sparkling wit of the lecturer, who is such delightful readiness." Dr. Van Allen said, referring to a in Boston.-Globe. trip up the river, that so far from calling the St. John the Rhine of Canada, it should be the other way, and say the St. John of Germany, so far did the New Brunswick river exceed that famous stream. He spoke with regret of the unworked farms of the province, and said it was pathetic there were so few people for such a magnificent country. With such great natural advantages he would prefer one year on a New Brunswick farm to a dozen out west on a ranch.

The Celestial City also received appreciative comment, the speaker's interest being centred, as was natural, effectiveness. The doctor, or Father Van Allen as he is called, belongs to fide Vous Meds and Provisions

King St. Market-Brick Block

LAMB and POULTRY of all kinds. Butter and Eggs.

We have on hand a good stock of BEEF, PORK, VEAL

GOOD PORK SAUSAGES MADE FRESH EVERY DAY-

Also GROUND BONE for Poultry Feed. Cash paid for Butter, Eggs, Poultry, Beef Cattle, Hides and Tallow and Round Hogs. Strict attention given to Mail and Phone Orders,

Phone 55-31.—tf-50 R. S. PHILLIPS. Proprietor.

ustrations with a brief history of he related a story that while old to far back as 1898. the province, with special reference many persons will bear repeating. Toronto Saturday Night has beto St. John, the stronghold of the When Dr. H. T. Kingdon came from gun a new series by Dr. Leacock. Loyalists. While he could not as an England to become Coadjuter of the "Novels in Nutshalls," he calls them American entirely agree with the Diocese of Fredericton he was a They are ten in number, and one is Loyalists' sentiments, he honored bachelor, and the Metropolitan, who being published each week. Everythem heartily, and was extremely was not without a dry wit ;of his body loves good, clean humor. glad that with time, the great; heal- own, said to him one day, "The Everybody is attracted by it, for er, all the bitterness of feeling had only way in which you do not fulfil the real humorist is a rare bird, and passed away. The speaker expressed St. Paul's requirements of a bishop it is rarer still that one is captured the highest admiration for our com- is that you are not the husband of on the nest right here in Canada. mercial capital, and said he knew of one wife." "Neither are you, my Dr. Leacock's series on Practical no other city of its size on this con- Lord," was the ready answer of the Political Economy are also publishtinent that he liked as well. He re- newly created bishop. The speaker ed weekly in Toronto Saturday ferred to St. John's excellence as a referred in the warmest terms to the Night. Economics are things that port, and the amount of so-called present bishop and the dean with make the civilized world move on. "American hustle" manifested, to whom he had spent some delightful In the days when the science was some persons, but the pleasant ex- and had been taken with a fine ap. pression on the faces. In Boston so preciation of good points, and it is many women wear worried, anxious impossible in this slight sketch to faces, but in St. John they look give an idea of the eloquence and admittedly one of the finest speakers

Dr. Leacock Humorist

It is a far cry from lecturing on economics and political science McGill University, Montreal, to writing humorous sketches for Toronto Saturday night. However, this is the dual occupation of Stephen Leacock at the moment. Educated at Upper Canada College Dr. Leacock was on the staff of this educational institution from 1841 to 1899, and is consequently Duties-Must reside six months in each of six well known in Ontario. In the years 1907 and 1908 he toured the British and cutivate fitty acres extra. Empire, lecturing on Imperial pro- homestead right and cannot obtain a prethe story of its building with much effectiveness. The doctor, or Father turn from this mission that Lea- worth $300.00 large number of New Brunswickers an order who remain celebrate, and of humorous sketches, some of which belonging to Advent church congre- in alluding to the fact of the late appeared in Canadian journals; incation. The doctor prefaced the il- Bishop Medley being married twice, cluding Toronto Saturday Night, as not understood and appreciated by turesque heights, and the great na- The audience was then carried to at least a fair proportion of the and world's inhabitants, we wore skins, uniqueness of the reversible falls and the doctor remarked that in future carried clubs and traded goats. Now the airy grace of the Suspension when hysterical old ladies with 'let- we do better than that. Every man, Bridge. He was especially pleased ters to the Boston Transcript pro- and every woman for that matter, with Trinity church, and in describ- testing against the cutting down of should understand something of the ing its Parish House said with a the forest to supply Christmas*trees, science of practical political economy deep, humorous sigh, "I only wish innocents butchered to make a Chris- and this knowledge can be gained in tian holiday, he would say, "Oh, go no better way than by reading Dr. The general good looks of St. to New Brunswick and view her il- Leacock's series from week to week. Johnites was touched on. "I do not limitable wealth of trees. There are As a matter of fact, they are not half as dry as they sound; and as ed parson would be expected to see The pictures which added much to the Professor's style is always clear the pretty faces, but I was struck the vividness of the recital were and concise, and as sprightly as the not only with the number of hand- from Dr. Van Allen's own camera, subject will permit, they are well worth the perusal, even if you don't expect to become a bank president.

Synopsis of Canadian Northwest Land Regulations. A NY person who is the sole head of a family op land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person for the district. Entry by proxy may be made ather, mother, son, daughter, brother or sis-

In certain districts a homesteader in good

cock began to be known as a writer | Deputy of the Minister of the Interior

