LOCAL NOTES

Mr Harry Carvell of Lakeville was in town Tuesday.

Mr and Mrs Arthur Stevens of Fort Fairfield, Me, spent Wednesday in town. Mrs. T. W. Harrison is confined to her room with a severe cold with nurse in attendance.

The condition of Mr Colin King is gradually improving, much to the pleasure of his friends.

Bishop Richardson will address a meeting for men only in St Luke's church on Sunday afternoon next.

Dr. W. S. Carter, Chief Supt. of Education, was visiting the schools in town on Wednesday.

Freight traffic has been very heavy on the C P R this fall making it necessary to run many extras to handle the traffic.

There will be a meeting of the Carleton County Agricultural Society in the Council chambers, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Much regret is expressed concerning the illness of the Rev Bolton Daggett of Tracy Mills. A speedy recovery is hoped for.

The ladies of St Luke's church will hold their annual sale sometime during the second week in December. Watch for the date.

You can buy Shoe Packs and Gum Rubbers cheaper from Gibson & Ross than any other place in town. Call on them and see.

Mrs John Wallace, who was operated on recently in Boston, is making excellent progress toward recovery and will soon be able to return to her home.

The service next Sunday evening in the Advent church on Maple St will be held in the Sunday school room and will be conducted by Mrs C D Dickinson. All are invited.

Mr Ed Manzer is seriously ill with troubles arising from complications brought on by a heavy cold. He was unconscious for part of the week. His recovery is earnestly hoped for by his numerous friends.

The Rev. Geo. D. Ireland announced last Sunday at the morning service that he had forwarded his resignation as minister of St. Pauls church, to Presbytery, to take effect on Dec. 18th.—Dispatch.

The officers and members of Victoria Chapter No 1 Order of the Eastern Star are requested to meet at the Chapter Room, Masonic Hall, Main St, Monday evening, Nov 28th at 8 p m. General business, rehearsal and banquet.

Charles J Jones, B A, left on Tuesday for Ottawa to take up the duties of sessional clerk during the session of Parliament. Mr Jones was in Fredericton last week and made application through the U N B, his Alma Mater, for the Rhodes Scholarship.

Potatoes are moving well, considering the state of the roads for hauling and are bringing $1.25 per barrel. The crop this fall is being sent chiefly to Western Canada, for the Cuban market stock is being purchased in Arrostook county and being shipped via St John in bond.

In the Police Court last week a case between Phillip Isaacson of Woodstock and Goldbury Bros & Co, of St John was tried. Mr Isaacson claimed that the defendants owed him $35. The judgment was in favor of the plaintiff and J C Hartley for the defendants.

Will the friends of Dr Kirkpatrick who have books of his kindly leave them at his office before Dec. 4th. When the Dr. moved his family to Havana he neglected collecting his books which were loaned and will be very grateful if the friends will grant this request. Among the books missing are:—It is Never Too Late To Mend, Vol. 3 American Short Story Classics, The Castaway, Trilby, Lorna Doone and Aylwin.

The joint Institute of the Teachers of Carleton and Victoria Counties will be held in Woodstock, December 22nd and 23rd. This Institute is always well attended and the program indicates that the interest this year will be equal to any in the past. As the meeting is held the last two days of the term it affords ever one an excellent opportunity to attend. The usual one fare rates have been arranged for.—R. E. Estabrooks, Sec.

LOCAL NOTES.

Men's Initial Handkerchiefs in silk and linen at R. B. Jones Co. Ltd.

A quiet wedding was celebrated in St Gertrude's church at 6.30 o'clock, on Tuesday morning, when the Rev F J McMurray united in marriage Miss Beatrice Helen, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs Edward Williams of this town, and Mr John Francis Palmer of Houlton, Me. Mr Robert Palmer, of Houlton, brother of the groom was groomsmen and Miss Ava O'Donnell of Debec, was bridesmaid. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. The bride was dressed in her travelling suit of seal brown serge with hat to match and the bridesmaid was dressed in navy blue silk. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal couple left on the early train for Houlton where they will reside.

About thirty five members of the musical club, who has taken up the practice of Gilbert and Sullivan's opera "Pinafore," met at the residence of Mr W P Jones on Monday evening for the first rehearsal. Chorus work was principally taken up and the result was most satisfactory. It is the intention of the club to practice at the homes of the different members until after the holiday season, when a hall will be engaged for the balance of the winter months. About fifty persons have become members of this organization, which will no doubt have a stimulating influence on the musical element of the community, and be a benefit to the different church choirs of the town. The club will meet at the residence of Mrs Geo W Gibson next Monday evening at 8 o'clock sharp.
