It must have taken more than one private car ride to have accomplished such results.

Country Roads.

MR. EDITOR,—I have at different times been trying to bring before this county the great necessity of having good roads. Do we actually want good roads or are bad roads preferable? Why should we want roads at all?

The road builders of this county have not given sufficient consideration to the effect of building roads. Year after year work of a flimsy shiffling character is placed on the roads; the results are only temporary and are destroyed by a very little wear traffic—in a very short time the work has to be done over again. But the evil does not end with this. The annual demand for repairs is so great that no parish can respond to it. The roads instead of being repaired when they need it are neglected, grow worse and worse and all the evils of bad roads follow.

They do not see or appreciate the benefits which would accrue to the county and province. They overlook the public good. Money and labor spent on the roads in the county will enhance the value of every farm by increasing the demands for farm land. The effect of this is the increased land value. The greater profits and pleasure of the farm is to render the country more attractive so as to draw people to the cities. How can we keep our boys on the farms is a question demanding an early solution. By making the farm more profitable by giving to energy and ambition sufficient business opportunities. On the farm these problems will be solved and one of the important factors in the solution is good roads.

To the different commissioners of the different road districts in this county I say that I intend at no distant day to ask each and every one of you to meet me here to form with me a Good Roads Convention or Association such as they now have up in Ontario. As I have books and reports from different associations up there no doubt you will gain lots of information about good road making.

Thanking you Mr. Editor
I am yours respectfully,
JAMES CARR.

Town Council met Friday, April 8th with full board present.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Coun. McManus in behalf of committee appointed to consider the grant for the Band, reported that $200 was sufficient and so moved.

Coun. Allingham, in amendment, moved that they be paid $250 pro rata per month they playing at least 8 selections per concert. Coun. Ketchum supported the committee's report and Coun. Fisher, the amendment. Couns. Hagerman and Watson doubted the ability of the Town to pay the extra $50. The amendment was lost and original motion carried.

Coun. Allingham for the Street Committee asked that the Town pay half of the cost (about $350) for a concrete retaining wall to be built back of the Jones, Connell and Fawcett buildings on King St. Tenders were ordered called for, for this work.

Coun. Hagerman, in behalf of the Light Committee reported Cedar St. was well lighted and Coun. Allingham for the Street Committee said they would build a gravel walk on that street.

The report of the Sewer Committee was received and adopted and the Supt. was also instructed to extend sewerage on Regent St. 200 ft. at an estimated cost of $98 and on Main St. 150 ft. at an estimated cost of $74.

RE FRED R. FAWCETT BILL.

His worship read a letter from C. D. Jordan J. P. re bill of F. R. Fawcett for $15.50. Coun. Allingham said that if Fawcett thought he could build-dog the council, he should begin at once and said that if necessary he would fight the bill with his own private funds. Bill referred to Street Committee.

THE BEER LICENSE LAW.

Coun. Watson again brought up his motion for the repeal of this law but it was laid over until June.

Tenders were received for repairing the Town Hall, according to specifications, as follows:

A. W. Fields $ 65.00
Charles Donnelly 61.75
John Sanderson 120.00

The tender of A. W. Fields was accepted.

The Auditors Report was received and filed, the bills and salaries were ordered paid and a light ordered placed on Houlton Road.

Coun. Ketchum called the attention of the councillors to the fact that certain lights were not in excellent working order. Coun. Hagerman wanted every pole numbered and that all the Town officials be instructed or requested to report the numbers of all lights being found not burning when they should and he so moved. A free discussion followed as to the lighting of the town.

There is general dissatisfaction regarding the dumping of mill rubbish and saw dust into Eel River, contrary to the Fisheries Act.

Crusade Against Consumption

The year 1909 will be marked in the calendar as a red letter year in the history of the crusade against consumption. The movement received a great impetus from the congress of distinguished physicians which was held at Washington, U.S., in the autumn of 1908 to consider the further measures to be taken to stamp out this dreadful enemy to the life and happiness of mankind.

Canada in common with the rest of North America, perhaps we should say the whole civilized world, has participated in the renewed and increased activity which resulted from the deliberations of the congress.

Never since the organization of the Canadian Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis has there been such activity displayed in Canada in this fight for life. Older branch associations have been reinvigorated, new associations have been formed which are showing in many cases a vigorous activity. Several new institutions for the relief and treatment of consumptives have been opened and the demands for our literature has been larger than ever. Take it all in all 1909 was a year of great progress in the work of the Association.

The Tenth Annual Meeting will be held in Montreal on the 7th of June next and preparations are being made to make this one of the best, if not the best meeting in the history of the Association.

MY UNCLE FROM INDIA.

Successful Presentation of Comedy by St. Dunstan's Dramatic Club.

"Two and one-half" hours good entertainment, "would express in a moderate way what was handed out to the public last evening in the Opera House by the clever young members of St. Dunstan's Dramatic Club.

After their successful productions in the amateur line for the past few years, it was to be expected that the caste in the play of last evening would be greeted by a full house. So it proved, for the hall was full to overflowing with an appreciative audience representative of all classes of the community, who were rewarded for their attendance.

"My Uncle from India" was a title which set many of the well-seasoned theatre goers guessing. The same literary product had been given to the stage by the lady author as "His Last Chance."

It was a comedy plot of rare ingenuity, intersected throughout by all kinds of counterplots and ludicrous situations.

A rich uncle from India, promising $50,000 to his gay nephew in New York, conditioned upon the latter's marriage, to put the company onto a game in which the pivotal point was the idol of the nephew's heart, Kate Remington. In a role equally as difficult of impersonation as hers was her sister, Mrs. Dr. Potter, and her husband—the quintette executing a feat of hard trials and great tribulations which was a glee from beginning to end. Every one of these parts was a deep study; and it is due to the amateurs of the hustling and up-to-date young club of St. Dunstan's to say that the standard of acting exhibited by them last evening would do credit to professional talent in society and comedy drama.

Needless to say a great deal of the credit for this amateur production falls to Wm. A. Walsh, both for what is known as the coaching and the staging. His was the invisible master-hand under which all went along without a hitch.

Arthur Hanlon from his late exploits on the local stage, is coming to be regarded as a finished actor. In the title role his work was an inspiration to the whole company. His make-up was inimitable.

Miss Ryan was admirably fitted for a leading character. Her manner with all its dignity, ease and self-possession was very winsome and fitted the role of Kate Remington to perfection.

Miss Roberts had a heroine's part to impersonate, under most trying situations, and displayed great dramatic talent. She proved fully equal to every occasion and won golden opinions.

Harry Cox, the nephew, and his presumptive, whose stage manner has all the appearance of a past master has sustained his role to the satisfaction and enjoyment of all.

Very effective, likewise, in the interpretation of their respective parts were Miss Dorothy Dever (the Irish maid), and James Collins, (Dr. Potter), and much good work is to be credited to Ernest Hanlon, though in a subordinate role. Hanlon's orchestra furnished music very acceptably for the occasion.—Gleaner Jan. 12.

We could buy ice cream in Woodstock at one fifth the price it costs us to make it, but it would lack that delicious richness that marks Stevens the Druggist's ice cream superior and different to others.
