The Signs of the Times.

At a largely attended meeting at Elgin, Albert County, last week D. McAllister, the Federal member for Kings-Albert, gave the following summary of the Hazen platform as announced previous to the last local election:—

(a) That if returned to power they would put all public works to tender, award the contract for the same to the lowest tenderer.

(b) That they would conduct and carry on a government free from all party lines, political bias and prejudice.

(c) That they would repeal the present highway act and enact a new law in its place, which should vest the management of the roads and the appointment of all officials absolutely in the county councils.

(d) That they would have a survey and a valuation of our crown lands made so that this valuable asset might be conserved.

(e) That they would inaugurate and establish a new agricultural and immigration policy, giving particular attention to the promotion of the settling of our own lands by our own people.

(f) That they would improve the quality and reduce the price of our school books, so that our people would not be robbed of hundreds of thousands of dollars.

(g) That they would extend and encourage local and rural schools so that every parent could have an opportunity to give a child an elementary education.

(h) That they would increase the provincial allowance to school teachers.

This is a fair summary of the promises which carried Mr. Hazen into power. If the present administration had carried out the promises so well made little or no fault might be found with them. But today the people are in arms against the Hazen Flemming party simply because they failed in every quarter. They have not put the public work out at tender. The Sentinel has quoted several cases within the last few weeks of bridges upon which work has been done in Carleton County and which has been done by day's labour at an extra cost to the country. Regarding the second clause—that of non-political bias—one has only to call to mind the large number of good efficient servants of the late government who at once walked the plank because of the determined effort of Mr. Hazen to have conservative supporters holding office. It is not necessary to pass this platform in review, we publish it and ask the intelligent people of this county to carefully read it and ask themselves how far it has been fulfilled.

The meeting in Albert was largely attended and Dr. McAllister, the Hon. Mr. Robinson and the other speakers all received an enthusiastic hearing. This is but the sign of the times. The people all through the Province are only waiting for the polling day to tell Mr. Hazen and Mr. Flemming that they are not being fooled by the mal-administration of their trust.

NEW BRUNSWICK SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.

Rev. J. B. Ganong the New President. The New Secretary Makes Favorable Impression.

The Annual Meeting of the Provincial Sunday School workers opened in the United Baptist Church Tuesday afternoon. A large number of delegates arrived on the noon train Tuesday and the evening trains from the North and from Fredericton and Millville also brought in a number of delegates. The President, Mr. Andrew Malcolm of St. John, and the new Field Secretary, Rev. W. C. Ross, were among the first lot to arrive. A large part of Tuesday afternoon was given to Elementary work. Mrs. W. C. Matthews, Supt. of this Department, was in charge of these exercises. Addresses were also delivered by Rev. W. C. Ross and Rev. W. A. Brown, the Representative of the International Executive. The new Secretary made a very favourable impression. He has only been in charge of his office since July but in the few months already past he has done excellent work and bids fair to be a good successor of his worthy predecessor, the Rev. J. B. Ganong. Many who have regretted that Mr. Ganong felt bound to retire from the office asked where so good a man would be found to fill this irksome position. But the Executive Committee are to be congratulated upon getting Mr. Ross, as he possesses both energy and ability, and no doubt when he gets fully acquainted with the different sections of the Province will meet all the demands of the office.

Tuesday evening was devoted to reports from those who had attended the World's Convention at Washington. Mrs. J. L. McAvity of St. John, W. C. Farnham of St. Stephen and S. J. Parsons of Woodstock made the reports. This was followed by an excellent talk by the Rev. W. A. Brown and the session adjourned.

Wednesday morning the Rev. Ernest Styles, President of the Prince Edward Island Association was present and presented the greetings of the Island workers. County Secretaries gave their reports. There was a good deal of friendly competition between Charlotte County and Carleton as to which was the banner County. Charlotte claimed the right because every school had reported but Carleton gained the point in that every school had reported and the financial pledge had been fully paid. The energetic Secretary for Carleton, Miss Addie Calder, received great applause when she showed the high standing of her county and Carleton was conceded to be the Banner County of the Province. The International representative Mr. Brown made a telling address on Missionary giving. The morning session closed with a stirring address by the Rev. Dr. Campbell. The afternoon was devoted to hearing the balance of County reports and the report of the Executive Committee. At the evening session a demonstration was given of the forming of an Adult Bible class. The Rev. J. B. Ganong acted as President and with the Assistance of Rev. W. C. Ross and Robert Reid drew the members from the congregation, organized the class and proceeded to work. A strong address by Dr. Campbell closed the session.

At the Thursday morning session of the New Brunswick Sunday School Association the Report of the Adult Bible Class was read. The report showed that there are at present 86 classes with an average membership of fifty. During the year twelve new classes have been formed and the work has a very promising outlook at the present time. The International Bible Readers association reported a membership of 3153. A letter of regret from Rev. J. C. Berrie expressing sympathy and regret at not being able to be present.

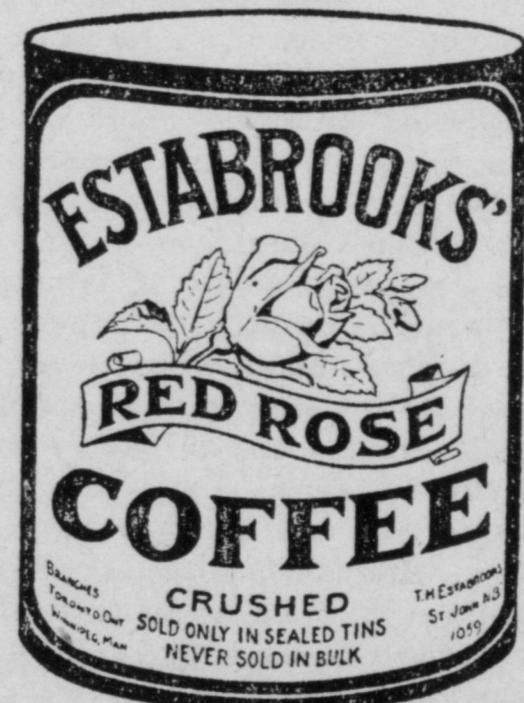

The nominating Committee brought in their report as follows:—

President—Rev. J. B. Ganong.
Vice-President—F. R. Murray,
Treasurer—A. H. Chipman.
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—Andrew Malcolm, W. J. Parks, J. Willard Smith, Alex. L. Law, Robert Reid, R. T. Hayes, J. W. Flewelling, Revs. H. D. Marr, Gordon Dickie, D. Lang, D. Hutchinson, G. H. Kuhring, J. S. Appell, J. H. Anderson, F. S. Porter and Messrs. Louis Simms, C. E. Vail, W. H. White, St. John; Rev. D. McDermid, W. B. Wiggins, Moncton; Rev. S. Howard, St. Stephen; S. H. White, Sussex; D. C. A Matter of Business.

Certain Opposition organs which are doing their utmost to conjure up the old annexation bogey in connection with our coming trade negotiations with the United States, are hereby reminded that the Conservative Party, which monopoly of the “old flag” and superlativity, used to put forward reciprocity as a prominent feature of its policy. Why, the very resolution proposed by Sir John Macdonald himself in 1878, declared that the National Policy, “moving in the direction of reciprocity of our tariffs with our neighbors, so far as the varied interests of Canada” may demand, will greatly tend to “procure for this country, eventually, a reciprocity in trade.” Not only is this so, but it is a matter of history that when Sir John was assisting in negotiating the Treaty of Washington, he strove to secure a measure of reciprocity with the United States in return for the use of Canadian fisheries. He did not succeed, but his party continued to hold out the hope of reciprocity, and even in 1891, when Sir John made his last famous campaign, he declared himself in favor of limited reciprocity. In point of fact, his Conservative successors in office tried to negotiate such a reciprocal arrangement. Canada in those days was weak and largely undeveloped, and her trade was but a fraction of what it is today. Now Canada is strong, prosperous and commercially independent. Her trade is expanding in all directions and she is well able to take care of herself in any bargaining. The contrast in her status in the days when Sir John Macdonald was negotiating for reciprocity, and at this time, when the United States is the suitor for freer trade, is most marked. If there was any annexation sentiment in this Dominion, it is as dead as Julius Caesar. No Government, least of all, the Laurier Government, which is pledged to the maintenance above all things of the British Preference, would consider for one moment any arrangement which would imperil our identity as a nation. Nor would any Government, be it Liberal or Conservative, refuse to meet the friendly overtures of President Taft for freer trade relations, in a friendly spirit. It is simply childish to pretend that we cannot talk business with our next-door neighbor without raising annexation. Whatever proposals President Taft and his Cabinet may have to make are entitled to and will receive fair consideration at the hands of the Canadian Government. Our friends across the line now realize that Canada intends to look out for number one first, and is in a position to exact full return for any favors which may be asked. We want to do more business with the United States just as we want to do more business with other countries, and if an equitable arrangement to that end can be made on fair terms, there will be few Canadians who will say that we ought to reject it. Certainly no thoughtful and self-respecting Canadian is going to be influenced by foolish talk about annexation. Under existing fiscal arrangements our trade with the United States is rapidly increasing, and yet there is no thought or suggestion in responsible quarters in either country of political union. It is simply a matter of buying and selling to the best advantage.—Chronicle.

A New Restaurant.

Mr. C. W. Wright has opened a new and up-to-date Restaurant and Boarding House on Main St., just above Burden and King's Grocery. Mr. Wright has gone to considerable expense fitting up the property. On the ground floor he has a fruit and confectionery stand and also booths where oysters, clams and lunches will be served. Up stairs there has been fitted up a large dining room and parlours. Several large and comfortable bedrooms have been prepared so that permanent as well as transient boarders may be taken. Mr. Wright has shown considerable enterprise in fitting up this establishment and deserves a large share of the public patronage.

Double Wedding.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Donnelly was the scene of a brilliant double wedding on October 5th at 11 o'clock, a.m., when their daughter Lena A. became the wife of George Fisher of Lynn, Mass., the ceremony being performed by Rev. G. A. Giberson.

Also Velma E. was united in holy wedlock to Ira E. Shaw of Lowell, Mass. The ceremony was said by Rev. J. M. Mallory, in the presence of nearly one hundred guests.

The many beautiful presents arrayed were evidence of the high esteem in which the young couples were held by their many friends including a number of valuable cheques.

The happy couples took the evening train for their future homes. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher for Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw for Lowell, followed by the best wishes of their many friends.

Primitive Baptist Quarterly Meeting

The Primitive Baptist Quarterly Meeting convened with the Church at Monticello, West Road, Saturday, Oct. 1st, 10 a.m. Social service led by Rev. C. H. Orser.

2 p.m. was our Quarterly Conference with fair attendance and the results were satisfying from a spiritual standpoint.

7 p.m.—preaching by Rev. G. E. Orser. This was very much appreciated by those who listened and backed up strongly by ministers and laity.

Sunday 10 a.m.—Preaching by G. A. Giberson, which was a profitable service throughout.

2.30 p.m.—preaching by D. E. Brooks which was a well directed sermon enjoyed by all present. At the close of this meeting communion was served.

7 p.m.—preaching by Bro. Geo. Tompkins which was listened to with good attention. Brother Tompkins is one of our licentiates with rare ability.

Monday, 9 a.m.—met in business session. Officers, Ministers, and delegates present at roll-call. C. H. Orser, chairman; J. M. Mallory, Clerk; G. A. Giberson, Asst. Chairman; Henry Hart, Asst. Clerk; D. E. Brooks, J. E. Orser, Licentiate George Tompkins; Delegates, Earl Gieserson and Hugh Miller.

After a short routine of business we adjourned to meet with the church at Lower Wakefield, first Saturday in Jan., 1911.

The Old Homestead.

SEE WHOSE COMING: Our old friend, Uncle Josh Whitcomb, in the Old Homestead, featuring that well known actor, N. W. Mason, in the part that made Denman Thompson famous. The most of the old folks have seen Uncle Josh in the Old Homestead, and we know they must have enjoyed it as all others do. Now we want the young people to attend this grand old stand-by. This is the play that has made millions laugh and cry,—it brings back memories of the old folks at home. Remember Uncle Josh holds a real old fashioned country dance on the stage in the last act. If you are a real good dancer you might step right up and join us. Look for our date in this city and paste it in hat as you will want to see it. Hayden-Gibson, Tuesday, Oct. 18.

AT THE DOMINION EXHIBITION.

Quite a number of firms who are well known to readers of the “Maritime Merchant” had very attractive exhibits at the Dominion Exhibition, which closed recently in St. John. One of the first to attract attention on entering the main building was that of T. H. Estabrooks, who had a very artistic booth with polite attendants, to serve Red Rose Tea and Coffee to all comers. Needless to say it was always filled.
