THE TRUTH HURTS.

Mr. Carvell's exposure in the House of Commons as to the Race and Creed cry used by the Conservatives in the recent elections evidently touched the raw place so far as the Editor of the Chatham World is concerned because in his issue of the 25th. November he publishes an impassioned article headed "New Brunswick's Champion Liar." He quotes a portion of Mr. Carvell's speech in which that gentleman said "I state here that practically the only thing which was used for the purpose of affecting votes was the race and religion of the Hon. gentleman who tied the Government of this Country down to September 21."

"So far as New Brunswick is concerned, I have personal knowledge of this because I met it on the platform, I met it in public and I met it one hundred times in private to every once I met it in public and I say, that so far as the English speaking portion of New Brunswick were concerned, practically the whole campaign was waged on this contemptible cry."

The Editor then goes on to say that Mr. Carvell is a liar, and then goes further and says he is an adulterated liar and always ready to lie and stick to it. Now this is just the effect Mr. Carvell wanted produced when he made the statement in Parliament. He knew it was true, and what is more he knew that every intelligent Tory in New Brunswick knew it was true, and the only answer which any Tory newspaper in the Province has attempted to make is that of Mr. Stewart of the World and he answers by getting mad and making a fool of himself. But we can assure Bro. Stewart and his friends that they have not heard the last of this matter. The public know pretty well already how the election was won and they will know more as time progresses. Verily, "WHOM THE GODS WOULD DESTROY THEY FIRST MAKE MAD."

TOWN COUNCIL.

There was a special meeting of the Town Council on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 21st, Mayor Ketchum and all the councillors being present but Coun. Gallagher.

J. C. Hartley, town clerk, prepared a new fire limit by-law which he presented for approval.

Moved by Couns. Mair and Gibson and passed that a committee be appointed to see the building inspector, Stephen Green, ask him to attend the next meeting of the council, and arrange for remuneration for the inspector. Couns. Bailey, Dibblee and Gibson were appointed said committee.

Moved by Couns. Mair and Gibson and passed that the following be enacted a by-law of the town:—

A LAW.

To regulate the construction of buildings and the material to be used in the construction thereof within certain districts of the Town of Woodstock.

Be it enacted by the Town Council as follows:—

1. All buildings shall be constructed of brick, concrete or stone with gravel or metal roofs, or other fire-proof roofing, which may be erected within the following described district in said town of Woodstock, which said district shall be known as the fire district. To include that portion of the town north of the Meduxnekeag bounded on the east by the river St. John, on the west by a line commencing at the north west corner of the armory building on the south side of Chapel street and thence running in a line parallel with the west side of Main street to the south side of Connell street, thence in a westerly direction along the said south side of Connell street to the east side of Connell Alley, so called, and thence along the said east side of said Connell Alley to the Meduxnekeag Creek, and on the north by Chapel street and Regent street and on the south by the Meduxnekeag Creek and also to include that portion of the town south of the Meduxnekeag Creek, bounded on the north by the Meduxnekeag Creek and on the east by the river St. John and on the west and south by the following line commencing at a point on the south side of the Meduxnekeag Creek where the prolongation of the east side of the said Connell Alley strikes the said Meduxnekeag Creek and thence in a prolongation of the said east side of Connell Alley to a point in line with the north eastern side line of a lot of land fronting on Broadway and owned by one John A. Lindsay, and thence in a line following the said north eastern side line of said lot across Broadway to the south eastern side of said Broadway, and thence in a south westerly course along the said side of Broadway to the eastern side of Park street, thence along said eastern side of Park street to a point opposite the north side of Mill street west and thence in an easterly course along the said northerly side of Mill street west to the St. John river.

2. The use of wooden shingle roofs is prohibited in the following district, the district bounded on the west by Green street, on the south by Chapel and Regent streets, on the north by Elm Street and its prolongation to the river St. John, and on the east by the river St. John, and in this district all buildings must be covered with gravel or metal roofs, or other fire proof roofing.

3. No building shall be erected hereafter within the limits described in sections one and two of this by-law, without a permit first obtained from the Inspector of buildings, and no addition or alteration to any building within the said limits, subject however to the regulation of Chapter 77 of the Acts of Assembly A. D., 1886, shall be made without a permit from the said Inspector.

4. The by-law ordained on the 10th day of November, A. D., 1905, is hereby repealed and the fore-going enacted in lieu thereof.

OBITUARIES

MR. ALMON I. TEED.

Mr. Almon I. Teed, late president of the A. I. Teed Company, Ltd., died in St. Stephen on Saturday morning after a lingering illness. He was one of the best known business men in New Brunswick. For the past two years the deceased had been confined to his house. His death therefore will not come as a surprise to his many friends, but it will be a great shock nevertheless as he was highly esteemed wherever known. To Mrs. Teed his death will be a great loss. Each was indeed the confidante, true friend and helper of the other, and our Woodstock people particularly sympathize with the widow in her bereavement, while by no means forgetting the sorrowing children. To the intimate friends of the deceased, he was known to possess the warmest heart and none worthy of it ever applied to him in vain for sympathy or assistance. His many friends will be filled with a sense of personal grief at his passing to the great beyond.

As town councillor and mayor of St. Stephen, he was prominently connected with town affairs for many years, retiring from the council in 1909 to become chairman of the water board. He held the latter position until this year, when failing health obliged him to resign. He came to St. Stephen in 1887 as a member of the firm of C. D. Hill & Company, wholesale grocers. Later the business came into his hands and the A. I. Teed Company was formed in 1896, doing an extensive business in Charlotte county and on the upper St. John. He was a member of the commission which investigated the affairs of the Central Railway. Mr. Teed was 67 years of age. He leaves a widow and four sons and daughters: Mr. E. R. Teed of Woodstock; Mr. G. H. Teed, now in Australia; Mrs. George Wilson and Mrs. Walter Tovelie.

The funeral took place yesterday and was very largely attended showing the high respect in which deceased was held in the community.

MRS. FREDERIC T. BRIDGES.

The death occurred in Dorchester, Mass., on Friday last, of Mrs. Frederic T. Bridges, in the 65th year of her age. Her death was caused by apoplexy. The deceased lady was formerly of this town, but several years ago, with her family, moved to Dorchester, where she has resided ever since. Her husband was Mayor of Woodstock in 1880, and died during his term of office. Her remains were brought to Woodstock by the noon express Monday, and the funeral was held immediately upon the arrival of the train, to the Methodist cemetery. Rev. R. W. Weddall was the officiating clergyman. The pall bearers were: R. E. Holyoke, Col. F. H. J. Dibblee, Allen Smith and G. W. Upham, M. P. P.

Mrs. Bridges leaves one daughter, Mrs. Robert Searles, and two sons, Frederic and William, all of Boston, Mass. There are also two sisters surviving, Mrs. R. B. Baker of Malden, Mass., and Mrs. Elbridge Estey of this town.

MRS. PHEBE MALLORY.

At the home of her son at Middle Simonds, on Nov. 30, Mrs. Phebe Mallory, relict of the late J. S. Mallory passed peacefully to the other world after a long illness, at the advanced age of 86 years and six months.

in tea must be distinctive, pleasing and unvarying to merit continuous use. The flavor of Red Rose Tea is all its own; and it never fails to win and hold approval because it never fails in quality. Try it.

She leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother, three sons, Rev. J. M. Mallory of Middle Simonds, J. E. Mallory of Perth, and T. C. Mallory of St. Thomas, Ont., also four daughters, Mrs. C. E. Brewster of Boston, Mrs. D. Lamoreaux of Coronation, Mrs. C. W. Morehouse of Kilburn, and Mrs. G. A. Scofield of New York City, and a number of grand children.

She experienced religion when only fifteen years of age but did not identify herself with the church until 1843, when together with her husband and others was baptized by Elder Pennington, and afterward united with the Free Baptist Church, and in the early history of the Primitive Baptist united with that body of Christians and remained a constant Christian worker and having a warm interest in divine worship and an ardent lover of good and right until the last six years being deprived of the privilege of getting about to mingle with God's people, (which was always her delight), on account of physical weakness. But through all of her weakness of body and mind she was always conscious of the crown awaiting in the great beyond.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. D. E. Brooks, a short service at the house with a large attendance of the neighbors, after which the body was carried to East Florenceville and from thence by train to Perth where on Dec. 2nd, at 10 a. m., in the Primitive Baptist church the funeral sermon was preached by the writer assisted by G. A. Giberson, G. E. Orser, and Ziba Lockhart (Primitive Baptist). Bro. McDonald, U. B., and Bro. Traflet, R. B. Interment was made in the Bishop cemetery by the side of her husband, to await the resurrection of the just.

The departed sister has made many friends in her old home, which was in evidence by the large attendance at her funeral.

The pall-bearers were: Elijah Sisson, Wellington Sisson, Henry McLaughlin and Wilmot Larlee. C. M. Shaw of Victoria in his efficient manner conducted the funeral. The singing was led by Rainford Lovely, an old time friend of the deceased.

REV. D. C. BROOKS.

CARD OF THANKS.

We take this earliest opportunity to tender our heart felt thanks to our many friends who so readily and cheerfully assisted us in the illness and death of our mother.
