Miss Lena Pickup of Granville Ferry, who has spent several weeks in Woodstock, left for her home on Tuesday. She was accompanied by her brother, who has been ill in the Carleton County Hospital, with typhoid fever.

Rev. George Ayers of Jacksonville, preached an impressive and powerful sermon in the Methodist Church, on Sunday evening last, in the interests of Social and moral Reform Work.

Rev. R. W. Weddall occupied the Jacksonville pulpit the same evening.

The Sale in St. Luke's School Room last Saturday conducted by the Girls Branch of the W. A., was a great success. The sum of $133.00 was realised from the sale of fancy goods, food stuffs and five o'clock tea. The President, Mrs. Mair, and the Vice-President, Miss Connell, spared no effort to make the sale, and particularly the fancy work department, very attractive and helpful to Christmas buyers.

The Canadian Home Journal for December contains a bright and interesting story, entitled "The True Spirit of Christmas," by Miss Kate H. Miles, the clever writer, who is spending the winter in Woodstock. Miss Miles has consented to give us a story for the benefit of our readers, and it will appear in our issue of December 22.
