THE "UNHOLY ALLIANCE."

If any further evidence was required to prove that Mr. Borden and the Conservative party have surrendered root and branch to Mr. Bourassa and the Nationalists of Quebec, that evidence is forthcoming in the recent decision to appoint Mr. Blondin as Deputy Speaker in the House of Commons.

During the Drummond and Arthabaska election in November last, none of the Nationalist Speakers were as anti-British or as disloyal as was this same Mr. Blondin, and yet, in pursuance of the "unholy alliance" entered into by Borden and Bourassa before the election, in order to win power in Canada, a man of this character is to preside over the deliberations of the House of Commons of Canada.

We hope our Tory Orange friends and the ultra-loyalists will appreciate the position in which Mr. Borden has placed himself and his government at the present time.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier was too big a man to form an alliance with people of this class; the result was that he failed in the elections but stands bigger to-day in the estimation of the best thinking people of Canada than he ever did before. The result of this alliance will be worth watching in the future and we sincerely commend it to all of our so called loyal friends, who worked and voted for the combination during the recent contest.

We are publishing in another column of this issue, the full text of Judge McCleod's decision on the application to compel Judge Carleton to proceed with the recount of the votes cast in the recent election in this County.

We have no comments to make but leave it to our readers to judge for themselves as to the reasons why the recount was not held.

The criminals of New Brunswick will be sorry to have the Hon. H. F. McCleod transferred from the position of Solicitor-General to that of Provincial Secretary.

What Mr. Borden really thinks of the dreadful Yankee is shown by the utter complacency with which he runs over to Yankee land for a holiday before the House opens.

WITH THE EDITORS

Ottawa Free Press:—Mr Bourassa's newspaper expresses the hope that Borden Cabinet will always respect the rights of the minorities. Does this foreshadow a revival of the agitation for the recognition of the French language and the re-establishment of separate schools in Manitoba? If so, the people of that province will have something to say.

Regina Leader: Hon. Sam Hughes, Mr. Borden's Minister of Militia, once expressed his opinion of the American settlers in the west as so many "galvanized Yankees." We hope he will try and curb himself in future, for it would be awful if he should some day so refer to his American born cabinet colleague, Hon. George Perley in such terms.

Toronto Globe: "Will Mr. Speaker Sproule please variegate his rulings on points of order with a few remarks on the ne temere decree?" asks The Toronto Telegram. He will not. The Speaker's duty is to keep silent and let others speak, and it is just possible that Brother Sproule had that same ne temere in his mind when he decided that the Speaker's chair was a safe refuge.

(Fredericton Mail.) Mr. Bourassa's organ, Le Devoir, charges the Liberal's defeat in "part to the votes of immigrant Englishmen," and styles Sir Wilfrid Laurier as "the victim of his infamous policy of intense immigration, which has made of Canada a refuge for the wharf rats of Liverpool and London." This is the villainous way Mr. Borden's allies speak about the "British-born" to whom the Flag Flappers appealed so vehemently. Now they are getting their reward.

MR. CARVELL'S SEAT

Liberals in other parts of the Dominion as well as in New Brunswick will rejoice over the fact that Mr. Carvell is confirmed in his seat for Carleton County. There was a very small majority—thirteen—and any "accident" of a legal nature might have given the seat to his opponent. Mr. Carvell was in the last House of Commons a vigorous champion of the administration and all of its acts. He was keen, resourceful, courageous. In the new Parliament the Conservatives are in a much stronger position than they were in the last House, and the diminished group of Liberals will have no easy task in the endeavor to keep them sharply to the line of rectitude. No doubt if this is a difficult task to accomplish Mr. Carvell will enjoy the attempt heartily. Liberal fighters of his strength and readiness will be none too plentiful in the new House. Mr. Borden has sufficient strength to pass a reasonable closure measure, not to shut off the eloquent member for Carleton, but to shorten debate. Something of the kind seems to be very much needed, although it was stated by some members of the late Parliament that Mr. Borden did not look with much favor upon compelling the closing of a debate. However, such a rule now prevails in the British Parliament.—St John Globe.

ON THE NATIONALIST TIGHT ROPE

Mr. Borden continues to balance himself on the Nationalist tight rope. No one supposes that the new Premier likes the performance or that he fails to wince under the savage criticism of his own party Press, but having given his first exhibition under the management of Messrs. Bourassa and Lavergne, he must continue under the direction of the Nationalist leaders. And so it is announced that Dr. Sproule, recently head of the Orange Order, is to be Speaker of the Commons, while the Deputy Speaker is to be Mr. P. E. Blondin, the notorious Nationalist-Conservative, whose anti-British speeches have been quoted all over the country. During the Drummond-Arthabaska bye-election a year ago Le Devoir, Mr. Bourassa's paper, contained the following report of one of Mr. Blondin's meetings:—

"The energetic member for Champlain. Mr. Blondin, replying to the arguments of the Ministerial party represented by Mr. Joseph Demers of St. John at St. Louis de Blainford, used an expression which an old elector from Victoriaville repeated today as one of the boldest expressions of our just demands: "You are attempting to intimidate the electorate by shaking the English flag before it, and by saying that we ought to contribute to the defence, in all places and against all, of this protector of our constitutional liberties; but we cannot be made to forget that in 1837 it was necessary to put holes in this flag with bullets to breathe the air of liberty." "

Blondin has not changed a bit in the past year. He becomes Deputy Speaker, with all his anti-British speeches on record to adjust the balance against Dr. Sproule. It requires a careful combination of the loyal and the disloyal to fabricate the balancing pole that enables the Premier to walk the Nationalist tight rope.—Toronto Globe.

As Seen by Friends

Here are a few more choice expressions of appreciation of the Borden Cabinet from the Toronto Telegram:

THE FIRST BORDEN CABINET. Oh, what's the use?

ONE GOOD RESULT. "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and the zephyr that wafted Hon. Frank Cochrane out of the Ontario Government was a beneficent breeze.

THE CHOSEN AT OTTAWA. The Borden Government seems to have been chosen with the due sense of high public responsibility that might be expected from the Premier of a mock parliament in a students' debating society.

HON. R. L. BORDEN'S CHOICE. The make-up of the Borden Cabinet impresses the average Canadian in the way that Beerbohm Tree's Hamlet impressed Henry Labouchere: "As being funny without being vulgar."

HISTORIC CHOICES. Sir James Whitney is responsible for the make-up of the Ontario end of the Borden Cabinet, and for the whole make-up of the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board, and nobody wishes to separate Sir James from the glories of his authorship of two historic choices.

Evidently some of those Ontario Tories are so "sore" that they can hardly keep from swearing out loud. Mr Borden's crop of troubles promises to be the biggest thing of his term of office.—Halifax Chronicle.

WHAT IS YOUR FAMILY WORTH?

If your family is worth the best you can afford in house and food and clothes, is it not worth the best reading as well? And the best reading—best for boys and girls, best for men and women—is to be found in The Youth's Companion.

Of stories alone The Companion will print nearly 300 in 1912. With all the rest of the paper thrown in, and counting the glorious long serial stories, they cost the subscriber less than a cent apiece. Moreover, you will look long before you will find stories so varied and interesting; stories of coolness in the face of peril, strange adventures with creatures of the forest and the sea; moving stories of life's obscure heroisms; stories breezy with good-natured humor, quaint and curious character sketches.

Now is the time to subscribe, for the new subscriber in Canada will receive free from the time his $2.00 is received all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1911, containing the opening chapters of Ralph D. Paine's great serial story of the Boxer Rebellion, "The Cross and the Dragon." And there is a gift of The Companion Calendar for 1912, "On the New England Coast," lithographed in twelve colors and gold. Only $2.00 now to Canadian subscribers, but on January 1, 1912, the subscription price will be advanced to $2.25.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Nixon of Lower Brighton, were completely surprised on the evening of October 7th, when a number of relatives and friends came trooping into their home to celebrate the twentieth anniversary of their wedding day. An exceptionally delightful evening was spent—one especially pleasant feature being a big old fashioned oyster stew supplemented by various other good things, which the party enjoyed in full measure.

After supper Mr. O. P. Estey, in a neat speech, tendered the congratulations of the company to Mr. and Mrs. Nixon and concluded by presenting them with a substantial roll of bills, being the combined gift of the party. At 11 p. m. the company dispersed, all voting the evening a very happy one and hoping that all might live to celebrate Mr. and Mrs. Nixon's golden wedding anniversary.—Com.

Countess Tamara de Swirsky, who is acknowledged by both critics and the public to be the greatest inspiration and interpretive dancer of the day, is to visit Woodstock. The young Russian is in a class of her own, positively unique, combining as she does the charm and grace of the dancer and the finest art of music. The Countess is a graduate of the Paris Conservatory of Music, where she took the first prize, the gold medal, and at Munich she won first honor with 300 others of all nationalities.

During her wonderfully successful season, last year, as the Premiere Danseuse of New York Metropolitan and Boston Grand Opera Companies, Countess Tamara de Swirsky attracted to her the eyes of New York's "4000," and was engaged as a private attraction of that exclusive set in Newport. Mrs. James B. Haggins built a theatre especially for the appearance of Mlle. de Swirsky, in which her dancing was the delight of Newport's Millionaire Cottage Colony. The Countess de Swirsky will appear at the Hayden-Gibson on Tuesday, Oct. 31, accompanied by her own large special orchestra.

The Fall and Winter Time Table for the Intercolonial Railway will go into effect on October 29th. There will be practically no departure from the time schedule of last winter. The Ocean Limited will be discontinued until next summer, and the through service between Halifax, Sydney, St. John, Moncton and Montreal will be perfected by the Maritime Express which will leave Montreal at 12.05 and arrive at Halifax 17.15. The night express between Halifax and the Sydneys will be continued for the present. No. 3 and 4 Expresses between St. John and Pt du Chene will be discontinued.

Too Little Blood

The Cause of Nearly All the Ailments of Life.

Too little blood—that is what makes men and women look pale and sallow and feel languid. That is what makes them drag along, always tired, never real hungry, unable to digest their food, breathless and palpitating at the heart after slight exertion, so that it is wearisome even to go upstairs. Doctors tell them that they are "anaemic"—the plain English being too little blood. If your face is pale or sallow, if your gums are pale instead of being scarlet; if you are easily tired and frequently despondent; if you do not relish your meals, and small matters irritate you, it is a sign that your blood is thin and watery and that you are on the verge of a complete breakdown.

More weak, anaemic people have been made strong, energetic and cheerful by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills than by any other means. They actually make new blood, which reaches every part of the body, braces the nerves and brings new health and new strength. The state of Miss Nellie Welsh, Essex, Ont., is proof of the great curative powers of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Miss Welsh says: "A few years ago I was going into what my friends believed to be a hopeless decline. I was subject to severe headaches, had no appetite, was pale and grew distressingly weak. I tried several doctors, some of whom we counted the best in this part of the country, but they failed to help me. At last my heart grew so weak and I was so nervous and thin that I had to take to my bed and the doctor held out but little hope for my recovery. Like others I had often read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and though the doctor opposed my taking them, I determined to give them a trial, as I felt I might as well be dead as to be living in the misery I was in. In a month after beginning to take the pills I was up and around again, and steadily growing stronger until I was again enjoying the blessing of perfect health. Several years have since elapsed and my health has been the very best. It is therefore with great gratitude that I write you in the hope that my experience may be of benefit to some other sufferer.

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Woodstock, N. B. Oct 21, 1911. Mr. T. A. Lindsay, Agent Manufacturers Life Insurance Co., Woodstock, N. B. Dear Sir:—I desire to thank you and your Company for the prompt payment of the claim held by my son, the late H. B. Murray Milmore. Believe me always, Sincerely yours, J. C. MILMORE.

HAD BAD SORE FOR YEARS

ZAM-BUK HAS HEALED IT!

Mrs. Wilson, 110 Wickson Ave., Toronto, says: "About four years ago a sore spot appeared on the right side of my face. This spot increased in size until it became about half an inch in diameter and very painful. I went to a doctor, but the ointment he gave me did not have any good effect. The sore continued to discharge freely, and was most painful. I had it cauterized, tried poultices and all kinds of salves, but it was no good, and I continued to suffer from it for four years!"

"A sample of Zam-Buk was one day given to me, and I used it. Although the quantity was so small, it seemed to do me some good, so I purchased a further supply."

"Each box did me more and more good, and, to my delight, before I had been using Zam-Buk three weeks, I saw that it was going to heal the sore. In less than a month it was healed!"

I know a lady in the east of the city, whose husband suffered for years with an open sore on his leg. On my recommendation Zam-Buk was tried in that case. The other day, when I saw her, she told me that it had healed the sore completely."

"My daughter, who lives in Lethbridge, Alta., has also used Zam-Buk with the same satisfactory result. I think it is beyond all doubt, the most healing balm known."

Such is the opinion of all persons who have really tried Zam-Buk. It is a sure cure for eczema, piles, abscesses, ulcers, scalp sores, ringworm, cuts, burns, scalds, bruises, and all skin injuries and diseases. 50c. box, all druggists and stores or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. In case of skin disease use also Zam-Buk Soap, 25c. tablet.
