The State And The Marriage Law

(Toronto Globe.)

There will be few dissenting voices, even among Roman Catholics, from the principle laid down in the following resolution passed by a standing vote at the Ecumenical Congress yesterday:

"Resolved, that this Ecumenical Methodist Conference repudiate the principle that any church decree should have power to override the civil law, and that any marriage consummated by any lawfully authorized person, whatever be the religious beliefs of the contracting parties, shall be valid and inviolable."

Whatever it may be in the sight of the Almighty, marriage in the eyes of the state is a civil contract carrying with it certain obligations, for non-compliance with which definite penalties are prescribed. Clergymen in this country who perform the marriage ceremony are the agents of the state, from which alone they receive their authority to act. The state, represented by the various provincial governments, might at any time transfer the power of performing the marriage ceremony to town clerks, registrars, or other secular officials, leaving to the clergy of various denominations such unofficial supplementary rites and ceremonies as the contracting parties might desire, and without which they might not regard their union as a true marriage in the sight of God.

It is to be hoped that no such drastic action will be necessary in Canada to vindicate the right of the state to control the civil ceremony of marriage. Present conditions cannot be permitted to continue. The state must be supreme, and all marriages performed by its authority must be recognized by all citizens and all churches as valid and inviolable.

BAND SUPPER

The Woodstock Band intend holding a big supper and all round good time on Thanksgiving evening, Oct. 30th. Solicitors will call on the ladies of the town shortly to ask their aid in cooking for the occasion, and we trust they will meet with generous response. Base Ball is over, the election is a thing of the past, but the band is always with you. During the past two years the members have financed the band themselves to a great extent, and now they think it is no more than right that the citizens should help a little. It costs money, and a lot of it each year to keep a band going. We have now as good a band, better in some respects, than Woodstock has had for years, and prospects are bright for next season. New members are coming in and with a long winter ahead the citizens can depend on hearing next summer, a band that is second to none in the province. We trust that the townspeople will turn out in force on Thanksgiving Day and make the supper a record breaker financially. The band has lots of friends in the vicinity of Woodstock who drive in each week during the summer to hear the band concerts. From these the band would be glad to receive donations for the supper. This will be the last appearance of the band this season, come along and have your supper, and help the band they need the money.

OBITUARY

At Glassville, N. B., on Friday, October 20th, after a brief illness, Mrs. Isabel Brown, widow of the late Alex. Brown, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edwin Welsh. Mrs. Brown's maiden name was Scott. She was born in Roxborough-shire, Scotland, in November, 1836, and came to Glassville among the earliest settlers of that place, where she resided until her death. She was a member of the Presbyterian church. Besides her stepson, Alex. Brown, with whom she lived since the death of her husband, she is survived by two brothers, Archibald and John Scott; two sons, James and Charles; three daughters, Mrs. Edwin Welsh, Mrs. Hugh Elliott, Mrs. Peter Quinn, and several grand-children, all of Glassville.

The funeral services were conducted on Sunday afternoon by Rev. Mr. H. Manouel of Florenceville. A brief service was held at the house, after which a large cortege followed the remains to their place of rest in the Glassville Presbyterian cemetery. After burial a sermon was preached in the house to a large and sympathetic audience.
