BOSTON OPINION OF ANNEXATION TALK

Prominent American Journalist Says That Canadians Who Shout "Annexation" Are Talking Bosh—What
He Says in an Interview

St. John, Aug. 26.—"A dream," is the expression used this morning by Edwin Crandall, financial editor for the Boston Transcript, in discussing the Tory cry of annexation in regard to the outcome of reciprocity. "We never hear of it on our side of the line, and if we did, we should not bother our heads about it; at least if there was a grain of common sense in a person he would not do so."
"Why, I was surprised when I read the Standard and heard of the wicked, malevolent designs which Uncle Sam had on this fair country of yours," continued Mr. Crandall, "and I cannot understand how any sane man pays any attention to such talk. Do they actually prate about annexation in a serious frame of mind?"

The reporter confessed that there were some who put it forward that if reciprocity came in force, the Dominion would be seized by the United States.

"Why, that is ridiculous," said Mr.
Crandall, "where does Great Britain come in? Have you ever heard of her giving up a colony once it was hers?
Do you think any one in these provinces wants annexation? And if they don't how is it to come about? England is known as the greatest naval power in the world, so where does she have her say on the matter?"

"Why, it's the silliest argument the Tories could possibly find, and they must be at their extreme to discover some line of talk to manufacture in opposition when they cry annexation through a profitable increase in trade.
Blood is thicker than water, and there are numbers of Canadians in the states who are looking forward to the passage of the reciprocity pact."

STILL MORE ARE COMING OUT PLAINLY.

Life-Long Conservatives Stands by Principles—
Charlotte County Men Do Likewise.

Speaking at Cowansville, Quebec, the other evening, Mr. John G. Gibson, a lifelong Conservative, in a rousing speech declared himself to be an ardent supporter of reciprocity, the goal of forty years of political ambition. He expressed himself as having been profoundly astonished by Mr. Borden's inexplicable opposition to the agreement, and could not credit the Conservative leader's sincerity.

Mr. George Gardiner, of the fish firm of Gardiner & Doone, is another Conservative who has stepped out from the ranks of his party on the reciprocity question, says the St. Andrews Beacon. Mr. Gardiner attended the Liberal convention in St. Stephen. Mr. Gardiner sees a great advantage to Canada in the reciprocity agreement. Being British born he has, no fears for his loyalty.

Mr. David Johnson, ex-warden of Charlotte and a Conservative in politics, fully believing that reciprocity is in the interests of lumbering and farming—the two callings in which he is most directly interested—is another strong reciprocity advocate. Mr. Johnson was found among the reciprocity advocates at the Liberal convention. He told the St. Andrews Beacon that he had not left his party—his party had left him. For forty years they had been telling him that reciprocity was the thing that was needed. He believed them, and hence his present stand.

WHAT BRITISH RECTOR IN NEW YORK THINKS OF RECIPROCITY

Anglican Clergyman, a British Citizen, living in New York, Writes of Reciprocity—As a British Subject He Strongly Favors the Trade Policy—Many Americans Think Canada Is Getting the Best of the Bargain—Annexation Talk "the Drivelling of an Idiot"—His Opinion of Sir Wilfrid Laurier

Rev. H. E. Purchase is an Anglican clergyman who, though his parish is in New York City, is a British citizen. Here is his opinion of Reciprocity as expressed in "Toronto Saturday Night," and it is especially valuable because of Mr. Purchase's nationality and his residence in the United States:

"Dear Mr. Editor,—As an Anglican clergyman and a British citizen residing in the United States, I am naturally interested in the welfare of Canada, and, like my fellow citizens across the border, I am intensely interested at this time in the reciprocity agreement.

"Now, I do not consider myself capable of giving my countrymen advice about the merits of reciprocity as an economic matter, for I am not a political economist; nor have I the time for very close study of such questions; I can only think of them as the average voter must, in my spare moments. There are, however, a few things which I might say, and of which I feel confident.

"First: this agreement is offered to Canada in absolute good faith on the part of the United States; it is no 'Yankee trick' as some Canadians have thought. Diplomats and statesmen do not play tricks upon one another; individuals may do so for private gain, but not statesmen who hold in their hands a nation's honor. Moreover, that Canadian statesmen could be tricked is a reflection upon their intelligence.

"Again, this agreement is in truth, what is called a 'reciprocity,' the benefits are not all one way. If they were obviously all in favor of the United States, why should the agreement find such strong opposition in this country? OPPOSITION HERE SEEMS TO SHOW THAT MANY AMERICANS THINK THAT CANADA IS GETTING THE BEST OF THE BARGAIN.

"Let Canada beware of the snare of protection. The United States has been protected by an insurmountable tariff wall for many years. The tariff wall has created in America great extremes of wealth and poverty; it is claimed on good authority that at present 99 per cent. of the wealth of this country is owned and controlled by 4 per cent. of the population. Protection is the United States has created a body of millionaires whose grip upon the nation and her machinery of government is comparable only to that of the English lords, while there are 10,000,000 people in poverty or just making both ends meet. Let Canada beware of this: 'Whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning.'

"Once more: there is in this agreement on the part of the United States no ulterior motive; any one familiar with the American people must know that. ANNEXATION TALK IS LITTLE BETTER THAN THE DRIVELLING OF AN IDIOT WHERE IT IS SINCERE; WHERE IT IS USED FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES INSINCERELY IT IS IMMORAL. When an American talks of annexation it is mainly a flippant joke, it means nothing, and he knows that it doesn't. THE IDEA HAS NEVER AMOUNTED TO ANYTHING IN THIS COUNTRY EXCEPT IN THE MINDS OF BIBULOUS AND GROGGY ORATORS OF THE FOURTH OF JULY. At present it is more dead than ever, if such an expression may be permitted, and there is no desire in the United States for territorial expansion, and that has always been discouraged as contrary to the Declaration of Independence. ANNEXATION TALK IS VERY SILLY, AND IT SEEMS INCREDIBLE THAT A PERSON IN HIS RIGHT MIND SHOULD TAKE IT SERIOUSLY, FOR HOW COULD IT EVER BE BROUGHT ABOUT WITHOUT THE CONSENT OF THE CANADIAN AND BRITISH PEOPLE? Let me assure my countrymen that the United States is Great Britain's warmest and closest friend, living in a friendship that is re-inforced by blood and language. Incidents of American goodwill are too numerous and too well known to mention; I may mention, however, the last and crowning act of all, the great arbitration treaty brought about by President Taft, which is the greatest achievement in international politics in the course of the world's history. IF IT IS NOT DISINTEGRATING TO THE EMPIRE TO ARBITRATE QUESTIONS OF NATIONAL HONOR AND INTERNATIONAL LAW, HOW CAN IT BE DISINTEGRATING TO RECIPROCATE IN MATTERS OF TRADE? To inject the question of loyalty to the Empire into the reciprocity campaign, Americans feel, and feel rightly, I think, is mighty small politics; more especially as loyalty to the Empire is not involved.

"A word more of a more personal nature. SIR WILFRID LAURIER IS HELD IN HIGH ESTEEM IN THESE PARTS AS A GREAT STATESMAN, A MAGNIFICENT AND FEARLESS LEADER, A MAN WHO CAN BE SAFELY TRUSTED WITH THE DESTINIES OF CANADA. Sir Wilfrid was easily the dominant Colonial figure at the Coronation; he commands respect and admiration throughout the great British Empire and it is MY CONSCIENTIOUS BELIEF THAT THE CANADIAN PEOPLE WILL MAKE NO MISTAKE IN GIVING HIM THEIR UNQUALIFIED SUPPORT IN THIS GREAT BATTLE. Nothing should be allowed to bedim the issue; reciprocity and reciprocity alone is the one great issue and IF THIS MEANS PROSPERITY FOR CANADA, THAT IS SYNONYMOUS WITH LOYALTY TO THE EMPIRE—THE GREATEST, GRANDEST, PROUDEST EMPIRE THE WORLD HAS EVER KNOWN.

"Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your forbearance, I remain, "Yours very faithfully,
"H. E. PURCHASE.

PLAIN TALK ABOUT BOURASSA-BORDEN ALLIANCE

Toronto K. C. Hit Right Out From the Shoulder at the Present Contemptible Game

Stouffville, Ont., Aug. 25.—The Liberal candidates in North and Centre York, Messrs. T. C. Robitaille K. C., and Hartley Dewar, M. C., held a joint meeting here.

"What is the reason for this loyalty cry?" asked Robert McKay, K. C. of Toronto, in dealing with Reciprocity. "You would readily understand it if I showed you the pictures of those eighteen Liberals' homes a few years ago and palatial residences they now occupy, with the exception of a possible two who have been content to live in the same houses while they accumulated their millions.

"No dirtier thing could be indulged in than an appeal to racial and religious feeling," he exclaimed in condemning the Borden-Bourassa alliance in Quebec. "Men who would resort to this are surely engaged in the work of the devil," Mr. McKay asserted, "and it is all in order to 'let well enough alone.'"

"Well enough for whom? Flavell and these autocratic eighteen Liberals."

Mr. McKay said he was the solicitor for the large lumbering interests of the north, and he knew they sold 65 per cent. of their products, and the best, at that, to the United States, because the American market is a better one.

SUFFERED THREE YEARS

Till Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cured his Kidney Trouble

There are few diseases that cause more acute suffering than Kidney Trouble, and Mr. F. A. Thomas, of Sudbury, Ont., is one of those who know it. He writes: "For over three years I suffered from kidney disease. First I thought I had sprained my back, for suddenly the pain would catch the small of my back and it would be impossible for me to straighten myself up for several minutes. A dull ache across the kidneys was always present, my urine was thick and cloudy, and passing it caused a burning, scalding pain. Tried medicines, but they failed. I was advised to try Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, as they had cured my wife years before. A few boxes affected a complete cure. I now enjoy the blessings of good health, which is due to this remedy."

Don't neglect kidney trouble—it's too dangerous as well as too painful. That old, reliable family remedy, Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, has cured thousands and will cure you. It is equally effective in curing constipation and its attendant evils, biliousness, indigestion and sick headaches, and in purifying the blood. 25c. a box at your druggist's. 10
