

Paying for a Reputation

"Why pay for the reputation that any article has?" say some purchasers

Because the reputation that his trade-mark has is the most valuable asset of many a manufacturer. He can't afford to risk that reputation by selling you inferior goods. That's why we handle the Kodak line in our photographic department. The Kodak company cannot afford to put out an inferior article.

We sell KODAK FILM exclusively because it is properly orthochromatic—because it is the dependable film. Greatest speed, greatest certainty of good results. We have the size to fit your camera

OBITUARY.

MURRAY MILMORE.

There passed away at Bangor, Me., on Wednesday morning, 13th inst., H. B. Murray Milmore, son of Mr. J. C. Milmore, aged 30 years. Though not feeling well for some time, he was able to continue his work until the day before his death, consequently his sudden demise was a great shock to his many friends in Woodstock and in other parts of the country. Overwork, causing a depletion of the blood corpuscles, was the immediate cause of death.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his father, J. C. Milmore, three sisters, Misses Mary, Frances and Sarah, of Woodstock, three brothers, T. Emmet of Georgia, J. Louis of Perth, N. B., and Augustus of Woodstock.

The funeral took place on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from his former home to St. Gertrude's church, where a high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. F. J. McMurray, after which interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. The pallbearers were Ambrose Kelly, Marshall Kelly, Frank McGorill and John Lenehan.

MISS RITCHIE A. BEARDSLEY.

A fine Christian woman, a member of one of the early Loyalist families to settle here, Miss Ritchie A. Beardsley, died at her residence 'The Grove' at 11 o'clock on Friday morning, at the advanced age of 82 years. She is survived by one brother Charles Beardsley, and four sisters, Mrs. H. W. Bourne, Mrs. Charles Bourne and Misses Matilda and Jennie Beardsley, all of Woodstock. She was born on the old homestead, and was a daughter of the late John D. Beardsley.

The funeral was held at 2 o'clock Monday, the services being conducted at the parish church by the rector Rev. H. G. Alder, and the interment in the parish cemetery.

MRS. THOMAS McLEAN.

Mrs. Thomas McLean, a well known and highly respected lady, died at her home in King street south on Saturday night. She had been in poor health for the past two months. She was about 48 years of age and was a member of the Methodist church. She is survived by a husband, three daughters, Laura, Winifred and Kathleen, and one son Guy, at home, three sisters, Mrs. Alonzo Jones, Keswick, Mrs. Charles Oliver, Butt's Corner, Mrs. George Lee of Woodstock, three brothers, George and William of Keswick, and Abraham of Woodstock. The funeral was held on Monday, Rev. R. W. Weddall officiating. The pallbearers were Charles Comben, F. L. Atherton, Rankin Brown, R. E. Holyoke.

MRS. ANNE J. BAILEY.

The death occurred on Monday of Mrs. Anne J. Bailey in the 80th year of her age. Mrs. Bailey was stricken with paralysis on Friday last and never rallied from the attack. The funeral was held from her late residence, Connell St., on Wednesday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. H. G. Kennedy of Houlton, Me., assisted by Rev. R. W. Weddall. The pallbearers were C. L. Smith, C. R. Watson, W. H. Everett and J. M. Frapp. Mrs. Bailey leaves to mourn, three daughters, Mrs. McGibbon of Haverhill, Mass., and the Misses Helen and Bessie of this town.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.

Dear Sirs,—While in the country last summer I was badly bitten by mosquitoes, so badly that I thought I would be disabled for a couple of weeks. I was advised to try your Liniment to allay the irritation, and did so. The effect was more than I expected, a few applications completely curing the irritation, and preventing the bites from being sore. MINARD'S LINIMENT is also a good article to keep off the mosquitoes.

Yours truly,
W. A. V. R.

General News

THE OIL FOR THE FARMER.—A bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the farm house will save many a journey for the doctor. It is not good for the children when taken with colds and croup, and for the mature who suffer from pains and aches, but there are directions for its use on sick cattle. There should always be a bottle of it in the house.

"I want to see the head of the house," said the peddler. "I'm sorry," replied Mrs. Minns, "but the baby is asleep just now."

A SIMPLE AND CHEAP MEDICINE.—A simple, cheap and effective medicine is something to be desired. There is no medicine so effective a regulator of the digestive system as Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. They are simple, they are cheap, they can be got anywhere, and their beneficial action will prove their recommendation. They are the medicine of the poor man and those who wish to escape doctors' bills will do well in giving them a trial.

"Riches have wings," remarked the ready made philosopher.

"Yes," replied Farmer Cornstossel, "but that ain't goin' to prevent men from coopin' 'em up for their own use."

AWAY WITH DEPRESSION AND MELANCHOLY.—These two evils are the accompaniment of a disordered stomach and torpid liver and mean wretchedness to all whom they visit. The surest and speediest way to combat them is with Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which will restore the healthful action of the stomach and bring relief. They have proved their usefulness in thousands of cases and will continue to give relief to the suffering who are wise enough to use them.

"I've been pinched for money lately." "Well, women have different ways of it. My wife kisses me when she wants any."

One of the commonest complaints of infants is worms, and the most effective application for them is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator.

She (as the lights suddenly went out in the crowded car) "O George? You shouldn't kiss me here!"

George—"But—but I didn't!"

Corns are caused by the pressure of tight boots, but no one need be troubled with them long when so simple a remedy as Holloway's Corn Cure is available.

"Nature knew what she was doing when she deprived fish of a voice."

"How do you make that out?"

"What if a fish had to cackle over every egg it laid?"

How to Live Long

With healthy kidneys, one has a good chance to live long, but weak kidneys afflict old age with great discomforts. The back becomes bent and lame, rheumatism is chronic, eyesight fails and too frequent or involuntary passages of the urine cause embarrassment by day and loss of sleep at night.

Booth's Kidney Pills bring new strength to old backs and quick relief to weakened kidneys. They banish backache and rheumatic pain, regulate the bladder and urine.

Booth's Kidney Pills are for sick kidneys in old or young and are guaranteed by the proprietors, The R T Booth Co., Ltd, Fort Erie, Ont. Sold everywhere 50c box. Free trial sent on request. Sold and guaranteed in Woodstock by E W Mair.

In the causes of infant mortality cholera morbus figures frequently, and it may be said that complaints of the bowels are great destroyers of child life. If all mothers would avail themselves of so effective a remedy as Dr J D Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial many a little one could be saved. This Cordial can be given with safety to the smallest child, as there is no injurious substance in it.

It will be gratifying to the better class of theatregoers to learn that "Madam X" is booked for an early performance here; this is the great drama of "Mother Love" by Alexandre Bisson the noted French author which made such an unqualified success in the Grew Amsterdam and Lyric
