BASE BALL NEWS

Woodstock Wins Two and Loses One. Defeats Fredericton Twice and Loses to Marathons

Woodstock struck a winning stride Saturday and Monday in games with Fredericton. The game Saturday was an exhibition one not counting in the League series, resulted in the home team winning 6 to 1.

Manager Charlie Allan arrived in town a few hours before the game and took charge of the team. All the boys were on their toes at all times during the game and pulled off some sensational stunts, one pick-up by Paquet of a screeching liner being a peach. Peasley went into the box for the first three innings and proved so good that he was taken out and saved for the hard games during this week. Urquhart pitched a splendid game and Mayo worked well at the receiving end.

Following is a synopsis of game and the box score:—

Woodstock 0 1 0 0 5 0 0 x-6

The home team went to Fredericton Monday morning and won again from Fredericton with a score of 2 to 0.

Two runs, two fielding mistakes, were all that separated the Fredericton and Woodstock teams at the end of the ninth innings of hard played baseball at Sculley's Grove Monday. The Woodstock team had the two runs to their credit, and the Fredericton team had the two errors chalked up against them. The result of the game put Fredericton out of the leadership of the N B and Maine league, but the large gathering of fans were satisfied that they had seen one grand ball game, even if the home team lost. It was a pitcher's battle between two giants, Marvin Peasley for Woodstock and Bill Duval for Fredericton, and it was an even thing between the two six footers. Both allowed four hits, and with faultless support of the pitchers the game might be still going on.

The Woodstock team got their two runs in the third inning when Peasley got on first and advanced to third with Wessinger on first base. Then Wilder started down second and catcher Johnny Murray sent a short throw to catch the runner on third on his expected attempt to steal home. Duggan had been shifted over to short stop on account of George Finnamore's injured left, and he missed the throw, letting the first run over the plate.

The other run got over the plate a moment later when Wilder hit safely to left and Larry Conley fumbled the ball just long enough to let Wessinger score.

Wilder contributed the star fielding features of the game, making two phenomenal catches in left field, while Talbot and Hughes, the second basemen of both teams, both had busy days and did their work well.

ENGLISH FARMERS

TOURING THE COUNTY.

Two farmers from the Old Land, Mr Russell from Manchester, England, and Mr Graham from Perth, Scotland, accompanied by Mr F W Frier of the Colonizer, a journal published in London, arrived in Woodstock Tuesday. These gentlemen are a delegation to look over the Maritime Provinces to ascertain the nature and quality of the farm lands. They were taken in charge while here by Mr James Carr, Supt of Immigration, who procured two automobiles, and accompanied by J T G Carr of Hartland, Donald Munro, M P, J T Allen Dibblee and R G Fulton were given a drive down river and shown some of the fine farms to be seen in that section. They left Wednesday morning by auto for Centreville and Florenceville. In conversation with a Sentinel representative they expressed much pleasure in the nature of the country they had seen.

CONFIRMATION AT ST GERTRUDE'S

His Lordship T Casey, Bishop of St John, arrived in Woodstock on Saturday night, after holding confirmation ceremonies in McAdam and Canterbury, on the 16th, and Benton and Debec on the 17th, and administered the sacrament of confirmation to a class of 68 boys and girls in St Gertrude's church on Sunday morning. The ceremony was most impressive. A high mass was celebrated at 10.30 by the pastor. His Lordship delivered an able address to the children before he administered the sacrament.

At the vespers in the evening, the church was brilliantly lighted by electricity, for the first time and the altar was banked with flowers. His Lordship preached another eloquent sermon. Rev M T Murphy of Debec officiated at vespers and benediction, while Rev F J Murray assisted Lordship during the religious exercises.

On Monday he was in Newburg and Clearview, Tuesday he was in Johnville, and Wednesday he confirmed a large class in Williamstown. His Lordship was accompanied by the popular pastor of St Gertrude's.

MARATHONS WIN 4 TO 2

The game of Tuesday resulted in a win for the Marathons with the score as above. Rain in the fourth inning was the cause of loose playing letting in three runs which eventually resulted in giving the game to the Marathons. The game opened with the Marathons at the bat. Urquhart was in the box for Woodstock and put up a good quality of ball. Some long hits were made off him but he had good control at all times and had it not been for the bad condition of the grounds and the ball in the 4th inning he would have had the winning end of the game. Tarbell for the Marathons put up a good class of ball having good control and remaining steady throughout the game.

MIDSUMMER SESSION OF CARLETON COUNTY COUNCIL

County Council convened in semi-annual session at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning, the 20th inst., at the Court House. Warden Stevens, presiding.

The following councillors took their seats:

Aberdeen—D. Lamont, Samuel Hemp-hill.
Brighton—Edward Morgan, Edward Brittain.

Northampton—Harry A. Phillips, G. Arthur Gibson.

Richmond—Alex Bell.

Woodstock (parish)—Henry Smith, Hazen Scott.

Woodstock (town)—H. T. Stevens, J. R. Brown, Wm. Balmain.

Wakefield—Frank R. Shaw, Albert Bell.

Wilmot—John J. Williams, R. Burns King.

Wicklow—Carey Estey.

Simonds—Odour Shaw, John Perry.

Kent—John Keenan, John Kinney.

Peel—E. W. Melville, Wm. Tompkins.

Coun Hay of Richmond was absent, being now in the west.

Coun Tracey was absent being in the military contingent attending the Coronation.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted.

The Warden reviewed the work of the past Council as follows:—

As this is our last regular meeting during our present term, I may be permitted to review briefly some of the events occurring during the term.

No doubt this will be the last meeting for some of us; some may retire of their own accord and perhaps others will be retired by the electors, be this as it may, I feel this Council is to be congratulated for the earnest and careful manner that each member has attended to his several duties.

The requirements are becoming so arduous and trying that we quite frequently hear murmurings as to the amount of work and some are inclined to retire on account of the stress of their own personal business.

The term has been quite an eventful one and the honor and pleasure has been ours of seeing the completion of this up-to-date and well appointed New Court House and our pleasure has been further enhanced by having the honor of holding the first session in the building in January, 1910. This council with others in the Province hold a unique position having served under two Kings.

It is not necessary to remind you how deeply we were stirred with grief and devotion over the sudden and unexpected death of our late and lamented Sovereign Edward VII. (the Peace Maker), and now all interests are centred in the mother country where at the present time such elaborate preparations are being made for the coronation of our new King (George V.) and I am sure no where in his vast domain will he have more devoted and loving subjects than the representations at this board and as well as the people you represent in this progressive, cultured, and prosperous County of Carleton in this connection, I know I voice the sentiment of every member of the board when I say that we are delighted that one of our members, Councillor Tracey, was among the selected officers from this Province to do honor to our new King at the coronation.

I wish to call attention to the new conditions of the Carleton County Hospital. As you know by the will of the late L. P. Fisher he bequeathed to the Town and County his handsome and commodious residence as a hospital, it has been taken over by the directors and in the course of a short time will be occupied as such. This and previous councils have shown their interests by liberal financial assistance. The management is in the hands of a capable and painstaking Board of Trustees. The success which has been attained is largely due to the skill and high standing of the doctors in attendance, and efficient matron and staff of nurses.

In conclusion I wish most heartily to thank every member of the board for the many courtesies shown and excuses made for me during the term so pleasantly yet so rapidly coming to a close.

MR. O. S. CROCKET STRUCK FROST AT SOUTHAMPTON

Windy Member Talked on Reciprocity and Succeeded in Making Himself R'diculous

(Mail.)

Southampton, June 19.—Mr. O. S. Crocket, M. P., delivered one of his characteristic speeches in the Orange Hall here Saturday night to a very small audience—there being by actual count just sixteen rate-payers present besides a few women and boys. An ex-councillor had done his best in drumming up a crowd—using the device, "You come hear my man and I'll go hear yours." One of the three Liberals present went on this agreement with the ex-councillor; but, when Mr. Crocket made the false statement that a sheep was worth only $4.08 on the other side of the line and $6.00 here and that a milch cow was worth only $35.00 on the other side of the line and $42.00 here, he got up and walked out of the meeting. Reaching the outside, he said, "I knew he would lie, and lie hard; but I didn't think he had the gaul to tell such a d—lie as that. I wouldn't sit and listen to him and so I'm going home. Why, don't we know that Pickett came over here from the States and paid $40.00 and $50.00 for milch cows and paid Gord Grant $10.00 more for his yoke of steers than Chip Phillips could possibly pay—though Chip wanted them bad to make up his drove. Pickett paid it and then paid the duty on these animals besides. Lambs can't go anywhere else but to the United States, and if the Americans put another 75 cents on lambs, we'd have to pay it. There is nowhere else to send them. You can't ship a lamb to England. It was never done, and it can't be done. Why, what would become of our laths if we couldn't send them to the U.S., even though we have to pay the duty? Why, the lath pays for the saving of the deal, and its own sawing besides. Crocket would have a fire kindled at the end of our mill and burn up this property. Then look at shingles; look at long lumber. I saw where we sold them over a $100,000,000 worth of goods last year. Take away the duty on our natural products and we will make it TEN TIMES THAT AMOUNT. But I'm going home. Life is too short to listen to such lies and nonsense." So saying, he strode off up the road.

Mr. Crocket's little meeting (two of his sixteen auditors came from the Canterbury side of the river,) was entertained for an hour and a half, while he explained the "crawl down" of Flemming and "my friend, Mr McLeod," from the Gould railway scheme. It was pitiful to hear him and yet laughable. His own "faithful few" were ashamed of him, and said: "Poor Mr. Crocket, he seemed so warm and worked so hard and talked so loud."

Then, after he shouted till the empty benches trembled, "the elections will be on in November and if you elect me, the Valley Railway will be commenced in two weeks after I'm elected,"—he went at RECIPROCITY.

He quoted "Champ" Clark, saying, "I'm for it, because I want to see the 'Stars and Stripes' float clear up to the North Pole. He aroused such enthusiasm that one old man, never particularly noted for his courage, jumped up and shouted, "Shoulder your muskets, boys." "Shoulder, fire." "Old as I am I'd shoulder my musket before I'd come under the 'Stars and Stripes.'" "Yes, I'd shoulder my musket and run," chimed in one of the large audience. This brought down the house and in the confusion Mr. Crocket got on his feet again and finished his three hour harangue by telling them that the United States would control every bit of our legislation—even in the local. That Mr. Hazen couldn't even build the Valley Railway if President Taft said, "No, you can't build it." Here his audience of sixteen loudly cheered and even the ladies waved to a close.
