YOUR CHILD'S EYESIGHT

You are responsible for the Eyes of your child Watch out for frowns and squints. When he reads or looks at a picture book does he hold it too near or too far? These little things grow fast but in many cases can be overcome if taken in time

We Insist on Your Bringing the Children in

You may save them a lifetime of strain and weak sight. Defects of vision never disappear of their own accord and in most cases grow worse. It's a duty you owe your child

INTERPRETATION OF CLASSIC MUSIC IN WOODSTOCK

The Russian dancer, Mlle. de Swirsky and her Symphony Orchestra who appeared at the Hayden-Gibson theatre on Tuesday evening offered a rare opportunity to the people of Woodstock. It is doubtful if such a high grade performance has ever before been seen in this town, and, judging by the reception accorded an artist who could not fail to please the most fastidious and most critical, it will be useless to make another effort in the near future to cater to the cultivated tastes of the theatre goers of Woodstock. Mlle. de Swirsky, aided by her orchestra, interpreted such masters as Brahms, Luigini, Chopin, Gounod, and gave expression by the fantastic medium of motion to the modulations of sounds which those artists had employed to express themselves. The orchestra alone was a rare treat, and the graceful, pleasing dancer was worthy of a crowded house. The fact that Mlle. de Swirsky was induced to include such a small place as Woodstock in her tour was due to the efforts of a former resident of this town, and this fact alone should have insured a large attendance.

The prices for the best seats may have seemed high but there were plenty of seats cheap enough to be within the reach of every one, which were not filled. It was unfair that the lack of appreciation of so many for the opportunity which they might have had, should have been the cause of shortening the programme and lessening the keen enjoyment of the discerning few who were privileged to be present.

OBITUARIES

BEDFORD STAIRS.

The many friends of Bedford Stairs will hear with regret the news of his death which took place at his home at Hartfield, on Monday 16th inst. He had reached the age of 65 years. Deceased had been in failing health and had many severe sick spells during the past three years, but was only confined to his home for three weeks previous to the time of his death. He leaves to mourn his death a wife and four daughters: Mrs. S. B. Doucette, of Fredericton; Mrs. H. R. Estabrooks, of St. Stephen; Mrs. J. Alex Vanwart, of Woodstock; and Elva at home, who were all with him at his death. He also leaves one brother, Shadrach, of Campbell Settlement, besides a large circle of more distant relatives and many friends. Funeral service was held at the United Baptist church by Rev. A. A. Rutledge who preached an appropriate sermon from Rev. VIII, 13, 14, 15. Thos. Stairs was undertaker in charge. Interment was made at the Patterson cemetery.

HARVEY McCOY.

Harvey A. McCoy, son of the late John McCoy, of Fredericton, died at his home on Sunday after a short illness. Deceased was thirty-five years of age and is survived by a widow and a young child. His mother, two brothers and three sisters also survive. The brothers are Dr. Grover McCoy, of Fredericton, and Chas. McCoy of St. Marys. The sisters are: Mrs. C. C. Burke of Stanley, Mrs. Herbert Morgan of Fredericton, and Mrs. Austin McLellan.

The late Mr. McCoy was well known throughout the maritime provinces and New England States as a horseman, and had raced horses on all the important tracks in those sections.

THE BASE BALL CLUB DEFICIT

It is generally known that the Woodstock Base Ball team was not exactly a paying proposition last season. A streak of bad weather, and other "hard luck" stunts during the summer played havoc with the funds, and but for a few fans who put up the coin, the team could not possibly have finished the season. Woodstock has always been considered a "sporty" town and it looks as if it was now up to the citizens to make good. The gentlemen who financed the team during the last month of the league series, after considering ways and means of raising money, to pay off the debt, have decided to put on a big Minstrel show this month. There is lots of talent in Woodstock to put on a first class attraction, and the citizens may depend on seeing an extra good show. Its something that every good citizen should take an interest in for base ball has done a lot in advertising our town during the two past seasons. The base ball people will provide the attraction and the public generally should turn out and give them a bumper house.

RECENT WEDDINGS

The marriage of Miss Maud Colton to Mr. John McGrouty took place on Monday morning, at nine o'clock, in the church of St John the Evangelist, Johnville. The pastor, the Rev. Father Coughlan officiated at the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass in the presence of a number of friends of the contracting parties. The bride was becomingly attired in navy blue silk and wore a white beaver hat with white plume. Miss Dora Colton, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Assisting her brother was Mr. Chas. McGrouty of Johnville. After the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride where dinner was served in the presence of their immediate friends.

Both are amongst the most highly esteemed of the young people of the parish. The groom is well known for the ability he has shown in different entertainments of the Johnville Literary and Dramatic Society. Mr and Mrs McGrouty left on the afternoon train for a trip to Boston and Montreal. On their return they will reside in Johnville.

The home of Delbert Lawrence, Wilmet, N. B., was the scene of an interesting event on Oct. 25th, when his second daughter, Lottie B. was united in marriage to George T. Pickard of Gibson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. J. Quigg. After the ceremony luncheon was served. The happy couple received many beautiful presents.

At the home of the bride's parents, on Oct. 21st, by Rev. E. C. Turner, Charles B., son of L. A. W. Hunter, Esq., and Vesta E., eldest daughter of John McLean, Esq., all of East Florenceville, N. B.

At the Parsonage, Coldstream, on Oct. 28th, by Rev. Jos. A. Cahill, George M. McLean to Miss Nellie Harris.

At the residence of Mr. Alfred Searle, Richmond St., on Nov. 1st, by Rev. R. W. Weddall, Walter J. Searle of Woodstock, to Ida May Street of Bristol.

CHINA'S EMPEROR GRANTS REFORMS

The demand of the National Assembly for a complete constitutional government for China, has been acceded to by the throne. An imperial edict has been issued apologizing for past neglect and granting an immediate constitution with a cabinet from which nobles shall be excluded. A pardon is also granted to political offenders who have been forced to join the present rebellion.

LOOK OUT FOR THE BACHELOR

FINE EXHIBITION OF APPLES

The opening of the second annual apple show of the New Brunswick Fruit Growers' Association in St. Andrews rink Monday evening was attended by a very large and interested crowd who were delighted with the excellent display.

Although St. John people who attended the apple show of last year were somewhat prepared for the revelation of the possibilities of the province as a fruit growing factor, those who visited the rink last evening were unanimous in saying that the present exhibition far eclipsed last year's display, thus showing a growing interest and improved methods by the members of the association and the farmers generally.

The most imposing exhibit is that of the department of agriculture, packed in 700 boxes, and occupying the entire end of the rink facing the entrance, all of rosy cheeked apples most tempting to behold. Private exhibits in boxes occupy the left hand side of the rink and at the left of the entrance is a booth conducted by the department of agriculture where bulletins are handed out and information of all kinds supplied. A consolidated school exhibit completes the show.

ROMANTIC "BLUFFS" IN FITCH COMEDY

"The Bachelor" the new comedy by Clyde Fitch which is to be seen here on Tuesday, Nov. 7th, under the management of the Messrs. Shubert with Paul Gilmore as the star in the role of George Goodale is said to be written in Mr. Fitch's most felicitous style. Incidentally, it goes to show how very important certain romantic "bluffs" may become in the fine art of love making. In the first act, when Goodale is first falling in love with his charming stenographer, the young lady expedites the popping of the question by "bluffing" that she is going to resign her position though she will give no reason for such precipitate action. In the third act, when Goodale finds himself really in love but in the position of a rejected suitor even though he believes that the young lady still cares for him, he turns the tables in his own favor by using a similar "bluff" that of pretending that he has decided to dismiss the stenographer from his office. Apparently two "bluffs" equal one truth, for the conclusion is entirely happy and Goodale's stenographer is fated to become his wife.

CLIFFORD SIFTON HAD CLOSE CALL

CLIFFORD SIFTON HAD CLOSE CALL. Ottawa, Nov. 1.—A narrow escape from being run down by a C. P. R. train for Prescott was experienced on Monday by several participants of the Ottawa Hunt Club, while giving chase to two foxes along the railway track which passes through the course. The huntsmen barely escaped in time, and two of the dogs and one of the foxes, who seemingly became bewildered, were run over and crushed and mangled to death.

Included in the party was Hon. Clifford Sifton. He was slightly in advance of the others, seemingly was not apprised of the danger, and it at once became apparent that he must be instantly given the alarm or else the train would be upon him. Dr. Webster was the first to reach his side, and the two left the track only a few instants before the train sped by.

Richmond Agricultural Society will hold their Annual Meeting at Debec on Tuesday afternoon, the 14th inst. at 2 o'clock, for the election of officers and transaction of any business which may come before the meeting. Miss Eliza Riordan returned to St. John on Friday last after spending the summer with relatives here.

EXPERIMENTAL FRUIT FARM FOR NEW BRUNSWICK

At Wednesday's session of the Fruit Growers Convention, the most notable feature was a resolution, moved by W. B. Gilman, seconded by J. W. Clark, and adopted by the meeting in the evening, to the effect that the federal government be approached with regard to the establishment of an experimental farm in the province of New Brunswick. The opinions of several of the members were heard concerning the matter, and all expressed themselves as being in accord with the resolution.

Following is the resolution as put before the meeting and adopted by the members:

Whereas, it is of great importance to the development of fruit growing in this province that we should have greater and more definite knowledge on the suitability of different varieties, central methods and many points of orchard practice such as can only be obtained by scientific investigation in the province, therefore

Resolved, that this association requests the dominion minister of agriculture to establish as soon as possible, under his department, an experimental farm at some point in the province typical of average New Brunswick conditions; and further resolved, that a copy of this resolution be sent to Hon. Martin Burrell, minister of agriculture, at Ottawa.

BAD FIRE AT SOUTHAMPTON

On Monday afternoon flames were seen bursting from the barns of Joseph Oldham at Southampton. The buildings adjoining soon caught and all were quickly destroyed. The barns were filled with two years' hay, about 50 tons in all, which was a total loss. The farm machinery, with the exception of one double wagon was also destroyed. The loss is estimated at over $2000 and no insurance. The origin of the fire is a mystery as there were no fires near and the day was perfectly calm.

DR. GRENFELL LOSES HIS YACHT IN SEVERE STORM

Boston, Nov. 1.—The severe October storm which swept northern waters badly damaged the fishing fleet, according to a letter from Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell, the missionary physician, written at Red Bay, Labrador.

Dr Grenfell writes that six vessels were totally wrecked, including his own costly auxiliary yacht Andrew McCosh, which was given to the Labrador mission by Princeton University. The other vessels lost were schooners, four of which foundered at Lewis Bay. The crews of all the vessels escaped.

The McCosh was wrecked at L'Anse-Armour while on her way to take off Dr. Harrison Webster, of Boston, who is stationed at Battle Harbor and who was visiting a patient at Forteau lighthouse. The yacht's crew narrowly escaped with their lives. Dr Grenfell was not on board at the time.

Mr. Paul Gilmore appears here next Tuesday in Clyde Fitch's latest comedy, "The Bachelor" the play is under the direction of the Shuberts. Mr. Fitch has done many unique things, but his latest contribution to the stage is declared to be one of the neatest, daintiest works he has yet accomplished. "The Bachelor" had considered vogue in New York during its run last Spring at the Maxine Elliott and later in the summer enjoyed much prosperity at the Whitney in Chicago.

Rev. Joseph Cahill, who has had charge of the Baptist Church at Rockland, has accepted a call to the church at Florenceville.
