

The perfect sound-reproduction

which established the supremacy of the Edison Phonograph lies in the point of contact between the Phonograph and the Record—the sapphire reproducing point. This is the point that conveys the sound from the Record to the audience. And right here is the secret, the perfect lifelike tone of the Edison instead of a metallic, nasal tone.

"Are you going to boss our people around?" she continued, bent on her own investigation.

"No. Not as long as they behave. In fact, I hardly know what I am to do.

Lieutenant Burrell.

Maybe you can tell me." His smile was peculiarly frank and winning.

"You see, it's my first command, and my instructions, although comprehensive, are rather vague. I am supposed to see that mining rights are observed, to take any criminals who kindly offer themselves up to be arrested and to sort of handle things that are too tough for the miners themselves."

"I don't believe you will be very popular with our people," Necia announced meditatively.

"Now that I think it over," he continued, "I'd rather have you like me than have the men do so."

"Of course," she nodded. "They do anything I want them to—all but father, and."

"It isn't that," he interrupted quickly. "It is because you are the only woman of the place, because you are such a surprise. To think that in the heart of this desolation I should find a girl like—you, like the girls I know at home."

"Am I like other girls?" she inquired eagerly. "I have often wondered."

"You are, and you are not. You are surprisingly conventional for these surroundings and yet unconventionally surprising for any place. Who are you? Where did you come from? How did you get here?"

"I am just what you see. I came from the States, and I was carried. That is all I can remember."

"Then you haven't lived here all ways?"

"Oh, dear, no! We came here while I was very little, but of late, I have been away at school."

"Some seminary, eh?"

"At this she laughed aloud. "Hardly that, either. I've been at the mission. Father Barnum has been teaching me for five years. I came up river a day ahead of you."

"She asked no questions of him in return, for she had already learned all there was to know the day before."

"Mother needs me now. Goodbye."

from a grizzled corporal in whom was the hunger to talk. She had learned of a family of Burrells whose name was known throughout the south and that Meade Burrell came from the Frankfort branch, the branch that had raised the soldiers. His father had fought with Lee, and an uncle was now in the service at Washington. On the mother's side the strain was equally militant, but the Meades had sought the sea. The old soldier had told her much more, of which she understood little—told her of the young man's sister, who had come all the way from Kentucky to see her brother off when he sailed from San Francisco; told her of the lieutenant's many friends in Washington and of his family name and honor. The old soldier, furthermore, had looked at her keenly and added that the Burrells were known as "devils among the weemen."

Resting thus on the steps of Old Man Gale's store, the two talked on till they were disturbed by the sound of shrill voices approaching, at which the man looked up. Coming down the trail from the town were a squaw and two children. At sight of Necia the little ones shouted gleefully and scampered forward, climbing over her like half grown puppies. They were boy and girl, both brown as Siwash, with eyes like jet beads and hair that was straight and coarse and black. At a glance Burrell knew them for "breeds," and evidently the darker half was closer to the surface now, for they choked, gurgled, stuttered and coughed in their Indian tongue, while Necia answered them likewise. At a word from her they turned and saw him, then, abashed at the strange splendor of his uniform, fell silent, pressing close to her. The squaw also seemed to resent his presence, for after a lowering glance she drew the shawl closer about her head and, leaving the trail, stunk out of sight around the corner of the store.

Burrell looked up at his companion's clear cut, delicate face, at the wind tanned cheeks, against which her long braids lay like the blue black locks of an Egyptian maid, then at her warm, dark eyes, in which was a hint of the golden light of the afternoon sun.

The bitter revolt that had burned in him at the prospect of a long exile died out suddenly. How fresh and flowerlike she looked, and yet the wisdom of her! He spoke impulsively:

"I am glad you are here, Miss Necia. I was glad the moment I saw you, and I have been growing gladder ever since, for I never imagined there would be anybody in this place but men and squaws—men who hate the law and squaws who sulk about—like that."

He nodded in the direction of the Indian woman's disappearance.

She looked at him quickly.

"Well, what difference would that make?"

"Ugh! Squaws and half breeds!" His tone conveyed to full his utter contempt.

A curiously startled look lay in her eyes, and an inquiring, plaintive wrinkle came between her brows.

"I don't believe you understand," she said. "Lieutenant Burrell, this is my sister, Molly Gale, and this is my little brother, John." Both round eyed elf made a ducking courtesy and blinked at the soldier, who gained his feet awkwardly, a flush rising into his cheeks.

From the regions at the rear of the store came the voice of an Indian woman calling:

"Necia! Necia!"

"Coming in a moment!" the girl called back; then, turning to the young officer, she added quietly: "Mother needs me now. Goodbye."

GENERAL NEWS.

Activity in Fruit Industry.

A new feature in farming in New Brunswick is announced. Several Sunbury County men, one from Quebec and one from St John are seeking incorporation as the St John Valley & Fruit Land Company, with $48,000 capital. They will conduct a general orchard and nursery business. At Woodstock last week the Carleton County Fruit Growers' Association was formed, for the purpose of stimulating co-operative work in that fine fruit growing country. It is only within the last few years that the immense possibilities in fruit-raising have taken hold of the minds of New Brunswick farmers, and the field is one of the most inviting offered to the investor in agricultural industry.

DO IT NOW.—Disorders of the digestive apparatus should be dealt with at once before complications arise that may be difficult to cope with. The surest remedy to this end and one that is within reach of all, is Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, the best laxative and sedative in the market. Do not delay, but try them now. One trial will convince anyone that they are the best stomach regulator that can be got.

Immigrants For New Brunswick

While as yet the Canadian Northern Railway has not reached down into New Brunswick, it is expected to do so. In the meantime, Thomas Howell, of the immigration service of that railway, has had an interview with Premier Hazen before proceeding to London, and secured a letter to Mr. Bowdler, the New Brunswick immigration agent in London. Mr. Howell states that he hopes to divert to the Maritime Province a considerable number of desirable settlers who might otherwise go to the West. One of the problems that is being widely and seriously considered in New Brunswick is that of making agriculture more attractive to its own people, and securing a good class of farmers from the Old Country as new settlers.

6 YEAR OLD GIRL CURED OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Mrs Alex Moore, of James St., Oxford N.S., says: "Booth's Kidney Pills cured our little daughter, Christian, age six years, of many symptoms of kidney weakness. She complained of a sore back, the kidney secretions were frequent and uncontrollable, especially at night. Her stomach was weak and her appetite poor. This caused her to have frequent headaches, and the least exertion would tire her. We had tried many remedies but she did not improve. Finally we learned of Booth's Kidney Pills and procured a box. In a short time she was well and does not now complain about her back, the kidney secretions have become normal, and she plays around the house with no apparent fatigue. We always recommend Booth's Kidney Pills."

Booth's Kidney Pills carry a guarantee that if you derive no benefit your money will be refunded. Booth's Kidney Pills are a specific for all diseases of the kidneys and bladder. Sold by all druggists, 50 cents a box, or postpaid from the R T Booth Co., Ltd., Fort Erie, Ont. Sold and guaranteed by E W Mair.

STOMACH LIVER LUNGS

Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the Chain of Life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach. Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.

GIVEN AWAY.—Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, new revised Edition, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 50 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

C. P. R. to Spend 1,000,000 at St John

A Montreal dispatch repeats the statement made in previous correspondence that the Canadian Pacific Railway is planning to spend more than a million dollars on terminals on its newly acquired property at the head of St John harbour, and that it contemplates a twice-a-day service across the Bay of Fundy, with two fast trains per day between St John and Montreal. It is stated here that the company are about to call for tenders for $100,000 worth of wharf timber. Traffic by this route to and from Nova Scotia will rapidly develop as a result of the acquisition by the Canadian Pacific of the Dominion Atlantic railway and steamer service.

Many Immigrants Landing at St John

The trans-Atlantic steamers are now pouring into St John, en route to Western Canada, thousands of immigrants, many of whom bring with them considerable capital. They come from different parts of Europe, and some cannot speak English. One steamer landed over a thousands immigrants last week, and all the Canadian Pacific steamers have all their second and third class passages booked ahead from now till the first of May, while the Allan, Donaldson and other lines will swell the volume of new citizens pouring in through the port of St John. The very excellent facilities for handling this traffic enables the Canadian Pacific Railway to rush the newcomers westward within a remarkably short period after the steamships tie up at the docks. For this great immigrant traffic St John is in winter the front door of Canada, as it is also for the winter export and import trade of the country.

No surgical operation is necessary in removing corns if Holloway's Corn Cure be used.

In Memoriam.

In loving memory of Helen Louise, daughter of Mr and Mrs T. L. McCaffery, Woodstock, who died December 25, 1910, age 3 months. Fare thee well beloved daughter, Thou didst die on Christmas day. The Lord who gave dear Louise Hath taken her away.

Yes, you have left darling Louise, On earth we'll meet no more For you have gone to be with God On that bright eternal shore.

It seemed so sad on Christmas day For her little sisters three To find their little sister dead When they came down to their Xmas tree.

Not dead, but only sleeping, With your hand laid on your breast, A life so precious and loving So soon laid down to rest.

With aching heart we laid her Beneath the churchyard sod, Just one body laid to rest, But another spirit is with its God.

'Twas hard to part with dear Louise But God's will must be done, And those we bid good bye on earth We bid good morning in heaven.
