

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

To said Schedule being as follows:
1. All those leasehold premises and appurtenances situate in the parishes of St. Andrew and St. James, in the County of Middlesex, and being the property of the said Robert Rankin, of Liverpool, in England, and being the same as are by Indenture dated the twenty-ninth day of January, in the sixth year of the said Queen Victoria, bearing date at London, and recorded in Book No. 2, of York County Records, pages from 31 to 34, inclusive, and therein described as follows:
"All that certain tract piece and parcel of land and premises situate in the parish of St. James, in the County of York, known and distinguished by being bounded on the north by the highway or equal half part of lot number three granted to George Arnott by Indenture dated the twenty-ninth day of January, in the sixth year of the said Queen Victoria, bearing date at London, and containing three hundred and thirty acres more or less (excepting nevertheless the lands and premises therein mentioned) and conveyed to Henry Smith, Esquire, together with all houses, outbuildings, barns, garden, orchards, woods, ditches, ways, waters, water courses, watermills, profits, privileges and appurtenances in any way maner or manner appertaining to the said land and premises."
2. The said Indenture dated the first of January, A. D. 1855, by Christopher Murray and Alexander Murray, of the County of York, in England, and bearing date at London, and containing nine hundred and ninety-nine acres more or less, and being the same as are by Indenture dated the twenty-ninth day of January, in the sixth year of the said Queen Victoria, bearing date at London, and recorded in the covenants, clauses, conditions, reservations, drawbacks, forfeitures and other matters and things therein contained, and the said original indenture of lease as fully and amply to all intents and purposes as if the same were made and confirmed by reference to the said indenture of lease as fully and amply at large.

I, All that parcel of land conveyed to Mendocino County, England, and Ann, his wife, and dated the twenty-ninth day of June, A. D. 1846, and recorded in the Book County Records: Book N, No. 2, page 181, "All that place, parcel west of land lying in the Parish of Saint Francis, and north of the lands of the said aforesaid, being sixty acres of lot Number three, containing six hundred and thirty acres, more or less, in the Tract and Urban Agnew in the first range and section of the said Parish of Saint Francis and other persons therein named bearing date the twentieth day of June A. D. 1846, the eighteenth day of June A. D. 1847, and the eighth day of June A. D. 1848, of sixty acres being bounded as follows: To wit: The northeast boundary of the said Number two of the said first tract of land, and the northeast boundary of the said northwest boundary of lands granted to Henry White, the northeast boundary thereof from thence on the southwest to the northeast corner of the said boundary of the said Henry White and along the same until it touches the northeast boundary of the said Henry White, and to the shores of the River Napa and to the extreme point of the said shore, and thence east and one-half, and no more, to the northern line of the said lot

[illegible][illegible]

eight lots, numbers One and two, and of about eighty hundred and ninety-six acres granted to the hereditors of the said John and which two lots thereof hereby conveyed contain about two hundred and forty hundred and eighty acres in the whole two lots, more or less, situated in the western half of the said township, beginning at the westerly corner of the said tract so granted and extending easterly, thence northerly on the northwesterly side of the Nashuaquahawk river, the same being their third claim Letter C in the grant to the Maryland Land Office, thence northerly to the said Nashuaquahawk river, by the magnet of one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four poles each, and then easterly, crossing the upper part of Butternut Island two hundred and eighty poles, and then southerly, by the magnet of one thousand and granted to Joseph Glennie Garnett and others, thence northwesterly, by the magnet of one thousand and four poles each, and fifty links, thence northwesterly, by the magnet of one thousand and four poles each, crossing the Nashuaquahawk river again, or until it intersected the running line of the said tract, and then easterly, or course north forty-five degrees and east by the magnet of the year one thousand and ninety-four, and thence along that line to the place of beginning." Resolved, That the said lands and parcels of land heretofore mentioned or out of whichever of them the said lands and parcels of land contained in all the lot of land containing out more or less how fenced. Whereas the Chumchee Indians, who were on the Chumchee stands, also the lot containing a little more than three acres, and adjoining the same, a lot of about 100 acres, in possession of John Robinson, also the lot containing a little more than three acres, and adjoining the same, a lot in possession of John Gibson.

5. That tract of land conveyed to the said Alexander Gibson, and Elizabeth Carey, by deed dated the tenth day of May, A. D. 1871, recorded in Book X of the A. C. R. C. Records, pages 97 and 98, and therein described as all that certain lot of land lying between the line of the said lot adjoining to the Nashvawk Miffissippi, and the line adjoining to the Nashvawk Miffissippi, near the residence of Alexander Gibson, commencing at the intersection of the line running up the Nashvawk Miffissippi, on the line between lands owned by the said Alexander Gibson, and the line running northwesterly along said division line three hundred and fifty-five feet to the intersection of the line running across the fence three rods to a post, and thence south forty-seven degrees east to the intersection of the line running up the said Nashvawk Miffissippi.

6. That tract of land conveyed to the said Alexander Gibson, by deed dated the first day of June, A. D. 1871, recorded in Book X of the A. C. R. C. Records, pages 80 and 81, and therein described as all that certain lot or parcel of land and premises situate, lying, and bounded as follows: On the front or easterly side by the Nashvawk Miffissippi, and on the southern side by lands owned by Alexander Gibson, and on the whole containing four acres more or less.

[illegible][illegible]

starting date the thirtieth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and registered in the office of the Registrar of Deeds at Washington, D. C., under page 282, containing one hundred acres or more, more or less common land, to wit: That tract of land conveyed to the said Elias White and his wife, by deed dated the twenty-first day of April, A. D. 1883, registered under page 232 and 234, and therein described as all that piece or parcel of land lying between the said Elias White and Saint Mary's, in the County of Town and bounded as follows: Commencing at low water mark on a certain line now called, by Charles Fisher and the said Elias White, and following said line in an easterly direction; bearing to the east of the present highway road leading to the town of Maryland, thence following the said fence in a northerly direction until it reaches the lot owned by the said Alexander Gibson, thence following said line westwardly striking down the said fence to the water mark, thence following said river southwardly until being the line first named as the commencement of said boundary, thence to the place or places of more or less.

11. That tract of land conveyed to the said Elias White and his wife and Jeremiah Saunders and wife by deed dated the twentieth day of April, A. D. 1883, registered under page 232 and 234, and therein described as all that piece or parcel of land situated lying and being in the Town of Maryland, beginning at the northeast corner of the lot of land formerly deeded by the said Robert H. White and his wife, and running easterly along the line between the said Elias White and the Highway road leading to the said Elias White's dwelling house, bearing to the north thirty-three feet, thence southwardly along said highway road two hundred and thirty-one feet, and ending at a post thence westwardly from the said post 16 That tract of land conveyed to the said Alexander Gibson by Hannah White and Moses White, eighth day of June, A. D. 1869, recorded in York County Record Book No. 12, page 10, was a tract of land therein described as all that tract, piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the said county of York, and being upper half of the farm formerly owned by the late John Will and Testament bequeathed and devised to the said parties in the said bequest of my land and bequeathed to my beloved wife Hannah during her life, and after her death to be divided equally between my two sons, Moses and Elias, the said piece of land was conveyed to the said Alexander Gibson, containing fifty acres more or less.

17 That tract of land conveyed to the said Alexander Gibson by Charles Clayton and wife by deed dated the 17th day of August, 1871, registered in York County Record Book No. 2, page 782, was a tract of land therein described as all that certain piece or parcel of land and premises situate, lying and being in the said county of York, and being in the western side of the said highway leading to Gibson's said highway west by the lands of Alexander Gibson, containing about three-quarters of an acre, by estimation, being the lands of James Colter Senior, and claimed and occupied by the said Alexander Gibson. The said Nelson having transferred his claim to the above named Thomas Gibson, the present month of April, 1866, the said Alexander Gibson was conveyed to and by deed dated the twenty-ninth day of April, 1866, to the said Thomas Gibson, in 1890 County Records, Book O, 8, page 668, and the said Thomas Gibson, by deed, at all certain place or parcel of land situate in the Parish of Saint Mary, Louisiana, containing about three-quarters of an acre on the East side of the said river known as lot number one, and bounded by the said Henry White and by the said Henry White to Sivanus Rideout, the said Alexander Gibson, by deed, the said Sumner Rideout bounded as follows, to wit: beginning at an elm tree on the line of land of the said Henry White, known as Campbell's Creek thence running north by the said Henry White, to a seventy-eight chains until it meets the line of land at present owned by the said Thomas Gibson, thence by the said to the Southern angle of land owned Thomas Vane, thence North 45 degrees East about seventy-eight chains to the middle of the road, thence South 45 degrees East about 100 rods to the place of beginning.

[illegible]

And above described piece of front of land thirty rods in width from parcel of land adjoining the said Alexander Gibson, thence South 45 degrees East about 100 rods to Catherine Ridge out by dead bearing date 8th June, A. D. 1873, to the said Alexander Gibson, Records, Book L, 3, pages 314 and 315.

And that tract of land conveyed to the said Alexander Gibson by Silvanus Ridge out and Catherine Ridge out, his wife, by deed dated 1880, registered in York County Records, Book O, 1, pages 134 and 135, as a parcel of land known as all that place or parcel of land known as part of lot number 12, in the 1st range of the 1st township, 1st range aforesaid on the East side of the Nashua River described in the said deed, together with that tract or part thereof on the South side of said lot next to land being long.

And that tract of land conveyed to said Catherine Ridge out by Sumner Ridge out, by deed dated 1873, recorded in York County Records, Book X, 1, pages 134 and 135.

And that tract of land conveyed to the said Alexander Gibson by James Walker and Catherine Ridge out, by deed dated October, A. D. 1884, recorded in York County Records, Book Q, 1, pages 134 and 135, as all that place or parcel of land described as all that

12. Certain piece or parcel of land situate, on the west side of the River Nashauk and bounded as follows: fronting on the River Nashauk and bounded on the north by the land of Stephen White, on the southeasterly side by lands owned by the late John T. Barker, now in the possession of William and Thomas Barker, and on the northwesterly side by the land of the late Stephen White, containing three hundred and twenty-five acres, more or less, the same was conveyed by Richard Blair, Patrick Walker and devised by the latter to James T. Barker.

13. That tract of land situate on the west side of the River Nashauk, County of York, State of New Brunswick, bounded as follows: fronting on the River, westerly by the grant to the Marysville land loyalists, northerly by the land of the late Stephen White to one James Glennie, southerly by land of one Bartholomew White, and easterly by the land of one James White, two acres, more or less.

14. That piece or parcel of land in the village of Marysville, County of York, New Brunswick, bounded as follows: beginning at the corner of the lot of land originally granted to John Gage Agnew and now owned by the late John Gage Agnew, and running westerly line of a lot of land originally granted to Henry Agnew, and southerly line of said lot to the southeasterly line of said White's lot south fifty five degrees west to the magnet fourteen degrees north, and then along a line of spruce tree that marked the northern boundary of the said lot of land, and then southerly to the White's thence North one and a half degrees East by the present magnetic north line to the southeasterly line of the said lot, until it meets the first mentioned southerly western line of Alexander Gibson, where the said line crosses a brook, thence southerly to the southeasterly line of the said lot, and then southerly to the place of beginning containing twelve acres, more or less, the same was conveyed by the late James Colter and conveyed by the late John T. Barker, deceased by the above named John T. Barker, deceased, to the said John T. Barker, deceased, by his last will and wife by deed dated the twenty seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven registered in Book F, page 100.

25. 22 That tract of land conveyed to said Alexander Gibson by Thomas T. C. and Susan A. his wife, by deed dated the 12th day of March 1871, and recorded of Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine and recorded in said County of York in Book M. No. 3, pages 527, 528 and 529, and in said County of York in Book M. No. 3, certain piece and parcel of land situate, lying and being in the Township of York, County of York, and bounded as follows: Commencing at Cedar Point on the north-easterly angle of the lot purchased by one Robert Paul from one William, Lewis and said Robert Agnew, and thence by said Robert Agnew West by the magnet eight chains and eighty links or to the line which divides the grant of the said Robert Agnew and the said Stair Agnew and the said Monkton line, and thence by said line south seventy three minutes west sixty six chains or until it meets the line which divides the grant of the said Robert Agnew and to George Agnew from the grant to the Maryland and Pennsylvania Canal Company, and thence southwesterly twenty-eight rods (thence south forty-two degrees thirty minutes west) to the line which divides the grant of the said Robert Agnew and the said Stair Agnew, and thence south seven degrees East to the westermanly angle of the first intention of the said Robert Agnew and the said William Lewis and Theresa, his wife, and thence by said line eight rods to the place beginning containing forty-eight acres and thence by said line to the place or parcel of land and premises

[illegible][illegible]

21. That tract of land conveyed to George S. Peters by the Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one and recorded in the said York County Records in Book No. 2, No. 2, page 389 and 290 and therein described as the tract of land conveyed to the said George S. Peters by deed dated the nineteenth day of December 1861, the Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one and recorded in the said York County Records in Book No. 2, No. 2, page 37, 38 and 39 the third day of December 1861, and the same is shown as follows: all that certain place, parcel or tract of land situated on the river Nashwaak in the Parish of Saint Marys in the County of York and containing the number three abutted and bounded on the north by the said river Nashwaak, on the west by the said river Nashwaak aforesaid, on the upper or Northern side by lands now owned and occupied by the said George S. Peters, on the rear or eastern side by the said river Nashwaak aforesaid now owned and occupied by the said George S. Peters and containing in the whole the number of acres, rods and perches as follows: That tract of land conveyed the said Alexander, Wilson and John D. Porter, on the 17th day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, in the said York County, New York, Book No. 3, page 387, 388 and 389, a certain tract, place or parcel of land and premises situate lying and being in the said County of York and Province of New York, and known as the lot number forty-one granted by Letters Patent from the Crown to Henry H. Nashwaak, is situated on the eastern side of the river Nashwaak bounded on the upper side by the said lot number thirty-nine of Thomas Goodspeed on the rear by Sunbury County, and on the sides by lot number three granted by Letters Patent from the Crown to Henry H. Nashwaak, containing by estimation three hundred acres more or less, and being the said lot number forty-one of land and premises situate lying and being in the said County of York and Province of New York, and known and distinguished as parcel of lots numbers two and three granted by Letters Patent from the Crown to William W. Nashwaak, situate on the eastern side of the said river Nashwaak, following: commencing at the westerly corner of that part of lot number three granted by Letters Patent from the Crown to the said Henry H. Nashwaak, on the eastern side of the river Nashwaak, thence south forty-five degrees east, one hundred and thirty-nine chains and sixty-nine links or to the rear of the lot to Henry H. Nashwaak, thence north thirty-nine degrees east, one hundred and sixty-seven links or to the westerly corner of the said lot number three, thence north and occupied by Charles Porter, thence North forty-five degrees east, one hundred and thirty-nine chains and sixty-nine links, to the course of the said river Nashwaak, down stream to the place of angling for salmon, thence north and occupied by the said Charles Porter, and occupied the same Sarah Peters on the sale to the said John and Susan Hatheway, who also owned and bounded on the Northeast side of the said river Nashua and land thereon, and the said John and Susan Hatheway described as the Ennackus lot also all that tract, place or parcel of land situated on the Northeast side of the said river Nashua, and the said Phoebe Hatheway, administratrix of Frederick Willard, the fourth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, therein described as all that certain parcel of land situated on the Northeast side of the said river Nashua, the said Marys County of York and parish of Merrimack, and the said Phoebe Hatheway, administratrix of Frederick Willard, by one Samuel Peters and on the lower side by the said John and Susan Hatheway, owners of the said tract, place or parcel of land above described having been duly and lawfully authorized by the said Samuel Peters and more particularly by the said John and Susan Hatheway, the said several tracts, places or parcels of land above described having been duly and lawfully authorized by the said Susan Phoebe Hatheway, administratrix of Frederick Willard, the fourth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, this conveyance comprises and intended to comprise all the lands therein described and the same to be sold.

25. That certain tract of land in the said county of York and parish of Merrimack, and the said John and Susan Leather Company and afterwards conveyed to the said Gregory and wife by the said Gregory and wife by the

[illegible]

559 and 560. Also all that certain piece or parcel of land lying on the W side of the said Highway and from the Railway Station to the Nashwak and lying between and excepted by the said Highway and the of Saint John being the same lot of conveyed to the said Guy Carleton Joutet de bearing date the nineteenth day of June, 1883 which is recorded in Book No. 8 of York County Records, p.
 315 and 316, and also all that certain piece certain other p or parcels of land lying on the eas side of the said Highway and
 from the Railway Station to the Nashwak and more particularly between the said Highway and the Joutet to the said Gibson Leathers of 1863 of said date the first day of June, 1883 which deed is recorded in Book No. 8 of York County Records, p.
 32 and 34,
 34. That the said land conveyed to the said Alexander Gibson by Edgar by deed bearing date the tw of June, 1883 which deed is recorded in Book Q, 3 pages 696 and of York County Records and therefor

[illegible][illegible]

side of lot number nine, one hundred and thirty-one chains, the Town of New Brunswick to the Western side of the same place along the same South one hundred and thirty-one chains, thence links to the place of beginning, containing one hundred acres, more or less, the same being the land of the late (originally granted to William Turner).

That tract of land conveyed to said Alexander Gibson by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, New Brunswick number 18,935, dated the nineteenth day of November, A. D. 1825, and bearing the name of the said Alexander Gibson, in the Parish of Northesk in the County of York, in the Province of New Brunswick and bounded as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a general survey of the County of Northesk, in the line between the Counties of Northumberland and Victoria, said spruce tree on the Eastern side of the line, and running four degrees West ninety-five chains and four poles each, measured along the shore of Mameoskel River, thence running North and by the said line, and sixty-eight chains (of four poles each), and ninety-three links or thereabouts, to the place of beginning, thence eighty-five degrees and thirty minutes East fifty-two chains, thence North and by the said line, and thirty-one chains, to the boundary line between the Counties of Northumberland and Redjoulouche, thence running North and by the said line, and thirty minutes East two hundred and thirty-one chains, to the place of beginning, thence South forty-five degrees one hundred and eighty-five chains, thence North forty-five degrees West one hundred and ninety chains, thence North forty-five degrees East one hundred and thirty-western bank or shore of stream, thence South branch of Main River, thence North forty-five degrees East one hundred and thirty courses of said Northwestern branch shore down stream in a Southwestern direction to a point on the shore of South Branch of said stream, thence North forty-five degrees down stream in a Northwestern direction to a point on the shore of Southwestern line of the tract of land hereinafter described, or place or parcel of land hereinafter described, thence Southwestern side of said South Branch, thence along said point of said Southwestern side of said Southwestern bank or shore of branch, thence North forty-five degrees East one hundred and thirty courses to aforesaid Northwestern branch, thence North forty-five degrees East chains to aforesaid Northwestern branch, thence North forty-five degrees East one hundred and thirty courses thereof down stream in a Southwestern direction to meet the said South Branch of said stream from the 63^d mile tree first abovesaid, thence along said last mentioned branch, thence North forty-five degrees East one hundred and thirty-one hundred and ninety-five chains to the place of beginning, containing 1,000 acres.

25. Those tracts of land granted to said Alexander Osborn by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the New Brunswick No. 16,954 bearing date the nineteenth day of November 1792, and the said tracts of land situate in the Parish of Kent and Aberdeen in the County of Kent, and

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

minutes West sixty five chains twenty links or to the of the shore thence South one degree and thirty minutes of another reserved road and South eighteen degrees and thirty minutes West thirty links to of beginning containing nine hundred sixty eight acres more or less thence North thirty degrees two, forty three, seventy three, a four, seven, eleven, sixteen, twenty three, twenty eight, thirty one, thirty four, thirty seven, thirty eight and thirty nine degrees East to Deputy Gardin's survey on and containing together three thousand more or less and surveyed by Deputy Gardin's survey on and containing together three thousand hundred and seventy seven, partly described, and partly to be returned to the said grant.

29. That tract of land granted under the Great Seal of the Prov-New Brunswick No. 1131 bearing date the twenty second day of 1866, and therein described as a land situated in the County of County of Carleton in our P-of New Brunswick and bounded on the North by the shore of western bank or shore of Saint Lake (source of the River Nashua and the River Saint John) on a course by the magnet of the one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight links and three East chains from the outlet or discharge of the said Lake to the said degrees West twenty chains

[illegible][illegible]