F. B. CARVELL, President.

FRIDAY, MAY 26th, 1911

Judging from the amount of drunkenness about town recently there must be either a very lenient enforcement of the Scott Act or else those who are in the business must be possessed of unusual shrewdness in concealing their business from the officers of the law. On Tuesday the Chief of Police took three men of the Island and that same evening about six o'clock two more men would be waiting in many cases, if the reciprocity idea spread.

Making all due allowance for the ability of those in the business to dodge the officers there must be a laxity of enforcement when certain characters such as have been seen drunk recently can get liquor on Sunday and other days of the week. The conditions demand either more strenuous efforts or a different manner of enforcing the law.

We are satisfied that if a search warrant were secured and every place searched of which the Inspector has a reasonable doubt it would go a long way toward stopping the traffic. There are many strong supporters of temperance who are being made to feel by the present conditions that a high license law would be far better than the present condition of affairs. The Sentinel does not believe either in a license nor a traffic but would be pleased to see some measure adopted to make matters better than at present, but at best today conditions are disgraceful.

THE WORK AT IRON ORE HILL.

With reference to the work now being carried on at Iron Ore Hill we have before us a report of Dr. Ellis made some years ago. Accompanying the report is a map showing the results of a topographical survey of the country. The map shows the outcrop of iron and gives much information regarding the mineral wealth of the surrounding country. Regarding the ore the report says: "the ore is rich looking, compact hematite, embedded in dark rusty slates." Regarding Iron Ore Hill it appears from the reports of the especially it says "the veins or beds of ore vary from one to sixteen feet in thickness and have not been worked deeper than twenty feet." Judging from the report the whole section included in the license of the company now carrying on work is rich in a good grade of iron ore.

The Provincial Gazette gives notice of the incorporation of F. E. M. Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 85, under Act 38 Victoria Chapter 54.

WITH THE EDITORS

NOT INFALLIBLE.

(From the London Advertiser.) Lord Milner says the reciprocity agreement between Canada and the United States will disintegrate the Empire. This is the same Lord Milner who said the grant of self-government to the Transvaal would disintegrate the Empire.

THE TRIBE OF SMUGGLERS.

(From the Sarnia Observer.) A reader of the London Advertiser tells of a lady who is violently opposed to reciprocity, and who, nevertheless, smuggled her spring suit from Detroit. There are some of the same sort around about here. For party purposes they are rabid advocates of high tariffs against the States, and will stoop to any subterfuge to smuggle their purchases. The joy of beating the customs would be wanting in many cases, if the reciprocity idea spread.

AN UNPREJUDICED JUROR.

(From Life.) In Southern Missouri years ago, when the form of questioning was slightly different from what it is now, much trouble was experienced in getting a jury in a murder trial. Finally an old fellow answered every question satisfactorily; he had no prejudices, and was generally a valuable find. Then the prosecutor said solemnly: "Juror, look upon the prisoner. Prisoner, look upon the juror." The old man adjusted his spectacles and peered at the prisoner for a full half-minute. Then, turning to the court, he said: "Judge, durn if I don't believe he's guilty."

PUT IT TO THE TEST.

(From the Toronto Star.) The Opposition and its press profess a hope that there will be a general election in the fall. Supposing that the constituencies can be redistributed and the West fairly represented by that time, the only objection would be that the country would not have an opportunity of judging reciprocity by its practical operation. The friends of the agreement have so much confidence in it that they desire to have it not only discussed thoroughly, but tested during a reasonable length of time. The opponents of reciprocity, if they have faith in their own arguments, ought to be equally willing to abide by that practical test.

MERE BRAGGADOCIO.

(From the Winnipeg Free Press) It appears from the reports of the speeches delivered at the Conservative love feast in Ottawa, that the poor Liberals will have no show at all at the next election. "Conservatives to resume power" says the hopeful heading of a Conservative contemporary. At this gathering Mr. Borden, Mr. McBride, our own Mr. Rogers and Mr. Hazen vied with another in foretelling the utter ruin of the Liberals "next time." All this, of course, is merely the beating of the party drum to hearten the faint-hearts. This is done periodically and with exceptional gusto when an election approaches. Perhaps there is some utility in the performance; but heretofore the Liberal bulwarks have refused to crumble at the blast of the trumpet, and they may well remain equally obdurate on the present occasion.

IN A CURSING MOOD.

(From the Hamilton Times.) Premier McBride, of British Columbia, and Hon. "Bob" Rogers, of Manitoba, were banqueted in Ottawa by the Tory leader last night. The Mail and Empire says that the gathering "will dissipate for all time the rumors of dissensions in the Conservative party." It further tells us: "Mr. Borden, who was in the test of form, delivered a fighting speech. He denounced reciprocity as a damnable and detestable agreement." It is quite true that the Tories have got themselves into such a mess over the reciprocity agreement that they naturally feel like cursing it. But it is very much to be doubted if Mr. Borden's entertainment will quite dispose of either the agreement, or the rivalry for the Tory leadership. Even that "man with a past," Hon. George E. Foster, must feel like chortling as he thinks of "Bob" Rogers coming to the rescue of Mr. Borden.

NEW TRUSTEES OF HOSPITAL.

The directors of the Carleton County Hospital met on Thursday night in the Council Chamber, presided over by the chairman J. T. Allan Dibblee, with Miss B. A. Walker as secretary. According to recent legislation the Hospital was formally taken over and the chairman and secretary were instructed to sign the necessary papers. The new board of trustees was selected as follows:—

From the Fisher Estate—Rev. Francis J. McMurray, Donald Munro, W. P. P., J. C. Hartley and A. G. Bailey. From the Board of Directors—Col. F. H. J. Dibblee, W. B. Belyea and John Connor. Mayor Ketchum and Warden H. D. Stevens, ex officio members of board. A meeting of the new Board was held Wednesday evening and the following appointments were made:—

Rev. Father McMurray—Chairman. W. B. Belyea—Sec. Treas. Miss Walker—Ass't. Sec. Treas. Warden H. D. Stevens—Auditor. Col. Dibblee and John Connor—House Committee. A resolution was passed asking that the Ladies Auxiliary, Doctors of the Town and County, and representatives of the press, to meet at the new building at 2 o'clock Tuesday next. The board and those invited will confer with a view to making the necessary changes. An architect, probably Mr. Fairweather, will be present to give advice in the matter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lindsay will leave on June 5th for a trip lasting three months, taking in all the principal western cities of the United States and as far west as Victoria, B. C., returning home part of the way by Lake Superior and the other great lakes. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay wish them an enjoyable trip.

OBITUARY

Rev John Perry, the oldest Baptist Minister in the province, who passed away Wednesday.

REV. JOHN PERRY

At Florenceville, Carleton County, N. B., on Wednesday, May 24th of diabetes, Rev John Perry, aged 90 years, passed peacefully away after over a year's suffering. He died trusting in the merits of Christ and his last words were "Tell everybody I die in faith believing in the atonement." He was the sixth son of William and Joicy Alward Perry. He was born May 14, 1821 at Washademoak Lake, Queens County, N. B. He was converted when 9 years old and was baptized in the year 1840 by the Rev Mr. Mesereau, after which he felt his duty to go and preach the gospel to sinners. He was ordained two years later 1842, by the Rev Messrs Joseph Noble, Sr., Mesereau and Flanders and joined the Free Christian Baptist denomination. He was an earnest and ardent worker for the cause he loved and gave all his energies and talent in helping others to live a christian life. His labours were blessed in that he was the means in God's hands of converting, baptizing and joining to the different churches of which he was pastor upwards of one thousand souls. He was a strong advocate of temperance and did good work in lecturing on that question as opportunity offered. In politics he was a staunch liberal all his life. In his younger days and past middle life he took an active interest in everything that was for the betterment of the country in which he lived and the education of the young.

In 1844 he married Catherine, daughter of James and Amy Alward Toole of Kars, Kings County. To them were born six children. Edward W. M. D., of Providence, R. I.; James T. (deceased), Joicy, wife of Byron C. Shaw of Victoria, Carleton county; Amy, wife of H. P. Birmingham, of Victoria, Carleton County, (deceased); Annie E., of Florenceville, graduate nurse of the Worcester City Hospital, Mass; and John N. of Connell, Carleton County. He had seven grand children and numerous nephews, nieces and other relatives.

In July, 1891, his wife was stricken with apoplexy and paralysis of the right side of which she never recovered. She was a great sufferer but always looking forward to the reward which was hers at the end of her life's journey. On March 7th, 1892, she passed peacefully away with her daughters at her bedside. She was 71 years old.

The funeral will take place today (Friday) at Victoria Corner. (Observer and Dispatch please copy)

BEATRICE TOMPKINS.

The death occurred at Meductic on Wednesday afternoon of Beatrice, only daughter of W. S. and Mrs. Tompkins. Miss Tompkins had undergone a serious operation the first part of the week. Little hope was entertained at the time for her recovery. She leaves a loving father and mother and one brother to mourn their great loss.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

We have had the warmest weather this month that we ever remember of having in May. All signs of rain have failed so far and to-night it quite cold.

Forest fires are to be seen in most all directions, and the air is so thick with smoke as to nearly hide the sun some days.

We have had some thunder and lightning but no rain. Most everyone is done planting, some have sowed their turnips and some have oats to sow yet.

We now get our mail at night instead of at noon, as we did in the winter season, and as it does not leave till after the express arrives, we get our outside papers a day sooner, but we do not get the Sentinel till Saturday night and seldom get the Dispatch till Friday.

Rev and Mrs. Walden were calling on friends in this section last week.

Rev M. Manuel was the guest of Mr. Johnnie Gillis last Sunday, p.m. He preached at Lakeville in the evening.

Mr. Wm. London and wife, Bloomfield, was making short calls in this place one evening this week.

Miss Pearl Wilson, Lakeville, spent last Sunday with friends at Centerville.

Miss Ida Gillis was a caller at Mr. Wm. Jameson's one evening this week.

Mrs. Jerusha Page, Long Settlement, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Thos. Cerrbett, lately.

Miss Sarah Jameson is spending part of the week with relatives and friends at Lakeville.

Mr. Thos. Emery, sr, Pioneer, was a caller at Andrew Jameson's one day last week.

The Misses Wilson, Bloomfield, were guests of Mrs. Johnnie Gillis last Sunday. Miss Sadie Jameson spent last week with her friend Mrs. A. Gilman, in Woodstock. Mr. F. B. Carvell passed here Sunday with his auto.

The Stoddard Brothers have returned from Eagle Lake, Me., where they went for employment.

Clark McBride is still engaged over in Aroostook Co., Me.

Simon Smith, Inverness, Scotland, is engaged with Mr. Wm. Page this season and Mr. Frank Mills, Royalton, with Mr. Wm. McWaid.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson Longstaff, Knorford, were visiting relatives at Lakeville last Sunday.
