

LOCAL AND GENERAL

"On a Cloudy Summer's Night"—One of the hits in Capt. Bing.

Five barrels and several cases of liquor were seized at the C. P. R. freight house Tuesday by Scott Act officials.

Several victims of the thirst that seems to dance attendance upon the holiday season, wound up in the cooler during the week. As an abode in which to restrain mirth the cooler is a big success.

The Charles Carman property has been purchased by A. D. Holyoke. The property is on the line of the valley railway and will probably be sold by Mr. Holyoke to the railway company as it is so situated as to be convenient for railway purposes.

The ice is a trifle thin yet, in spots, but the venturesome ones cannot resist the temptation to try it. Forty clever girls in the production of Capt. Bing—New Years night—Hayden-Gibson theatre.

Councillor Clarence Grant, of Canterbury Station, had the misfortune to fracture two of his ribs yesterday afternoon, having slipped and fell on a stick of wood which was lying in the doorway at his home.—Gleaner.

The 1912 crops of corn, oats, barley, rye, hay, flaxseed and potatoes are the largest ever harvested in the United States. To these should be added the third largest crop of wheat and the second largest crop of cotton, the whole selling at rather satisfactory prices.

The militia headquarters at Halifax, are corresponding with local officers here relative to forming volunteer infantry classes to meet in the armory beginning early in the New Year. It is an excellent opportunity for a young man to a splendid military training just for his asking. If twenty apply an evening class can be secured. Apply to Major Bull in person or in writing.

Lee Laurie, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Laurie, aged twenty-six years was shot through the head and killed instantly, shortly after eight o'clock Tuesday morning. The shooting was accidental, the deceased being engaged in the cleaning of a shot gun at the time. The accident occurred at the home of his parents, Hanwell Road.

W. E. McIntyre, St. John who was fined some weeks ago in the Woodstock police court for shipping liquor into Carleton County had a large quantity of liquor seized on his premises on a distress warrant, in consequence of his refusing to pay up. The lot is advertised for sale, but it is reported that Mr. McIntyre has secured a stay of proceedings.

"A Maple Leaf" is the title of a little book that is soon to appear from the press of Barnes & Co., St. John, and will be a collection of the best writings of the late C. T. Phillips, D. D., for 16 years pastor of the Free Baptist church in this town. Dr. Phillips was a frequent contributor to the press, the most of his writings appearing under the pen-name of "Thaddeus." Dr. Phillips had a broad sympathy for all mankind, he loved the world as the godly man may love it—for the beauty and the goodness that is in it. His writings show his nature, and more, are full to overflowing with that quaint humor that was characteristic of him. There is no doubt that all his friends will desire to obtain a copy of "A Maple Leaf" and they may purchase it through Mrs. J. Loane. The book is being published as a memorial by the daughters of Dr. Phillips, who since his death a little more than a year ago, continue to reside at Jacksonville with Mrs. Phillips.

HAZEN'S SPEECH ON NAVAL BILL

Flowery and Amateurish Government Supporters Disappointed

Ottawa, Dec. 13.—Hazen's speech, largely delivered from manuscript, was flowery and amateurish. It was a great disappointment to the government rank's. His reference to the New Brunswick elections was small and showed poor taste. "Why," remarked government supporters, "doesn't he refer to the parish of Simonds and the road plough?"
