THE 67TH BAND MINSTRELS

Gave Entertainment

Old and New Favorites in Pleasing
Features—Audience Expresses
Satisfaction by Generous
Applause

HANDSOME SUM NETTED

Woodstock people delight and encourage home productions, both dramatic and operatic, but it must be admitted that folks delight in a minstrel show and nothing can take its place. They learned to love it in the days when burnt cork artists were indispensable in the amusement world. It may be that moving pictures and vaudeville are deemed more thrilling, nowadays, but you will reserve a date for the minstrels, come what may. The songs, the jokes, the dancing, the bones and tambourine were in evidence Friday night at the Hayden and Gibson when the 67th band minstrels appeared and took the gloom away from the soberest kind of folks. They gave an exhibition that equalled, if it did not surpass, any that has been seen here, before one of the largest audiences that ever packed this popular play house.

Many of the old favorites appeared in the performance while there were some new and valuable additions to the cast. Most of the jokes and witticisms were new and were "put over" well, the songs were catchy, clever original features were introduced and the entire program was of unusual excellence for an amateur performance.

While individual criticism could not be made in one short newspaper article, perhaps it would not be amiss to refer especially to Norman Loane and "Smiler" Blake. Both are favorites with Woodstock audiences and they made many new friends Friday night. Another feature was the appearance of four boys, who were heard in songs that were cleverly done and warmly endorsed.

The orchestra showed careful training and the accompaniments were played most effectively.

The ticket sale was very large and is evidence of the generous public spirit on the part of the citizens who are interested in the band, and this manifestation of good will is deeply appreciated by the band members.

The personnel of the company was:—

PRESENTED WITH GIFT

I. O. O. F. Remember
Veteran Member

A Hundred Members Attend
Meeting of Unusual Interest

About a hundred members of Carleton Lodge, No. 41., and Brunswick Rebekah Lodge No. 44, met in the I. O. O. F. hall Monday eve., Dec. 2nd, to witness the presentation to Bro. R. L. Allingham of a "veteran's jewel", he having been an active Odd Fellow for thirty years.

Brother H. D. Stevens was chairman of this assembly.

The N. G. of Carleton Lodge No. 41, Bro. F. Davidson, then read the following address to Bro. Allingham To R. L. E. Allingham Esq., Past Grand of Carleton Lodge No. 41, I. O. O. F.

Dear Sir and Bro:—

Your Brethren of Carleton Lodge having ascertained by the records that you have attained to the dignity and honor of a Veteran by the completion of the term of thirty years of continuously active membership therein, by unanimous vote in regular assembly met, have decided that you should receive the title and jewel of a veteran. You have seen Carleton Lodge grow from its inception to its present happy condition of strong virility and you have assisted at all stages of its developments. You have also seen spring from Carleton Lodge, four new Lodges in our district within the last ten years, viz., Lodges at Plaster Rock, Florenceville, Centreville and Andover.

As regards the order as a whole during your membership it has been your pleasure to see the order rise to the position of the largest Fraternal order in the world and likewise the richest, spending more money annually in its God given work than the total amount yearly expended for a like purpose by all other Fraternal orders combined. You have been a strength to the Lodge especially in the knowledge you possess of the laws of the order and also of the unwritten work and have been frequently designated as the walking Digest.

We feel that a few words expressing somewhat of our appreciation of your value and worth should be uttered now while we are all here.

A bouquet or so passed around in the present time is of much more value and of greater encouragement than heaps of flowers after we are dead. We hereby present you with a Veterans Jewel, and trust that you will be spared many long and useful years to wear it in our midst.

Yours in F. L. T.,
J. FRED DAVIDSON, N. G.

CHAS. COMBEN, Sec'y.

Carleton Lodge, No. 41, I. O. O. F.

Brother Allingham made a suitable reply, after which the following programme was carried out:—

Address by Bro. W. B. Belyea, P. G., who was the first member to receive the Veterans Jewel, from

Quartette—"Four Lifeboat Men Are We"

Herbert Lockwood, Alfred Atherton, Frank Bagley, Zemo Clark

Biss Solj—Mr. A. Baker

Mr. Wilson and his Performing Dog Monologue—Mr. Ralph Herrick

Back and Wing Dancing—Mr. O. Lavoie

The King—By the Entire Company.

Carleton Lodge. Bro. Belyea needs no introduction to our members, his witty remarks and pleasing manner shall ever be remembered by those present.

Solo by Mrs. Waters, her rich deep voice was a revelation to many and won much applause.

Address by Rev. Baird, Chaplain of Carleton Lodge. Bro. Baird is a most charming speaker and hits straight from the shoulder at his parishioners who sleep during service. Moral, Don't go to his church to have a nap as snoring annoys the speaker.

Bro. Dr. Currie had been greatly troubled with night mare thought he and the N. G. of Brunswick lodge would be able to render a duet, but on being awakened he was able to pour forth his dream in a very appreciative reading which his Bro. Odd Fellows could most heartily enjoy.

Bro. Arthur Bailey, P. G., was unable to respond to a solo, owing to an enlargement of the vocal chords, and having just discovered the good die young, he made a very pleasing speech assuring the two veterans that he would never be one of their number.

Recitation by W. Ellsworth, P. G., this has certainly brought to light the "Hidden Talent". Bro. E's reading brought down the house and he had to respond to an encore.

Mrs. Waters again pleased her audience with another solo.

P. G. Bro. Comben, Sec'y., of Carleton Lodge, although last was not late—for a change—with his remarks which were much enjoyed by his hearers.

Then followed the usual witty remarks from the following sisters of Rebekah Lodge, No. 44., Sisters H. V. Dalling, Ellsworth and Calder.

Sister Baker's reading will create a larger demand for pups than ever, for further information apply to Carleton Lodge for membership.

Then followed a very delightful task, the guests being escorted to the banquet room there to partake of an elegant oyster stew, prepared by Bro. Fields and his assistants Baker and Waters, who were pronounced the finest Chef's this side of Gay Paree. The gathering broke up in the wee sma' hours.

OBITUARY

Thomas Hull of Lowell Mass., brother of Robert Hull of Woodstock, died in that city on Tuesday. The body was brought here on Thursday and the funeral in charge of Undertaker Kelly took place the same day the burial being in the Southampton cemetery.

Frederick Dickinson, aged 70 years, of Victoria Corner, who had his hand amputated by a threshing machine, died Friday from lockjaw. He leaves a widow, two sons, Carey of Upper Brighton, and Arthur, of the John MacLaughlan Co., Hartland; three daughters, Mrs. D. H. Boyd of Fort Fairfield; Miss Emma and Ada, at home; two brothers, Randolph of Canterbury, and Duncan of Victoria Corner; two sisters, Mrs. Jonathan Brown, of Lower Brighton, and Mrs. George Stewart of Linneus, Me. Deceased was a well-known and highly respected farmer and a member of the United Baptist Church. The funeral was held on Sunday, and the services will be conducted by the Rev. E. C. Jenkins.

Mrs. William Wightman, mother of Mrs. (Dr.) Manzer, died at her home in Providence, R. I., Sunday morning. Mrs. Manzer left here Saturday evening but her mother had passed away before she arrived.

TOWN COUNCIL IN SESSION

Mayor Reminds Members That They Are Nearing End of Term of Office

Town Treasurer's Report for
Eleven Months—$345.00 for
Legal Services in Scott Act
Cases—Skating Rink at Fisher Memorial School

The Town Council met in regular session Monday night with every member present. The usual batch of bills went through. The report of the police magistrate was presented and was referred to the police committee. A bill of $345.00 from A. B. Connell for legal services, in Scott Act cases, was also referred to the police committee.

Mayor Ketchum reminded the members of the board that it was nearly the end of the year and he hoped that an effort would be made by the different officers and collectors to close up their accounts in order that a full and concise statement could be made to the public at the expiration of the term of office of the present council. He was pleased to note that the indications were for a very good showing, and the outlook was rather encouraging.

Coun. Jones moved that the water Supt. be instructed to supply water necessary for a rink to be used by the pupils of the high school on the school grounds—Carried.

Mr. Walter Hay was heard in reference to proposed street that would seriously interfere with his land, and asked for a lease, or would buy the land, comprising about 26 feet.

Coun. Jones moved that the matter be referred to the street committee.

Coun. Mair said that Albert Worth, at the pumping station, had applied for electric lighting of his house and would pay for the lighting if the town would wire the house, which would be at a cost of about $23.00.

Coun. Gallagher moved that the water committee be instructed to have the house wired.
