

Prescriptions

are orders from your doctor for certain ingredients to be made into a medicine.

Whether these are put up just as your doctor desires or in some hurried, careless way, will mean considerable as to the beneficial results obtained.

What's the use of having a doctor and getting the medicine unless you know it is filled up just as it should be?

Bring your prescriptions here. We are cranks on filling prescriptions exactly right.

This means more than we are exact on measurements and weights of the different ingredients. After the articles are weighed there is a right and a wrong way to mix them.

We are careful to mix them to secure the best results and don't dump them carelessly together.

Bring your prescriptions here if you would be sure of getting the best possible results from your doctor's advice.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Monday, October 28th, is Thanksgiving Day.

Watch out for Hugh Hay & Son's adv. next week.

George Dibb—match—gasoline and an explosion, Monday. No damage, but a narrow escape.

In the town treasurer's report the item "Water Rates" should have read $3330.50—as it appeared it read $330.50.

Mrs. C. D. Dickinson will conduct the service at the Advent Church, Maple Street, next Sunday evening. All are welcome.

There is not much pleasure in raising fruit when a person finds it necessary to be a special officer to protect his orchard.

A new laundry will be opened in the Thompson block in two weeks, to be operated by Tom Sing, a celestial hailing from Westville, N. S.

A slight fire Tuesday night in Dr. Manzer's residence was caused by an alcohol lamp. The firemen responded to an alarm but their services were not required.

The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of A. Cohn in this issue. His big opening sale on Saturday, 26th inst., will be a record breaker for low prices.

It is to be hoped that the young men who are annoying an old lady in town by stealing from her orchard and destroying her fences will be caught and given the punishment they so richly deserve.

It is said that the command of the First Company Canadian Engineers will be given to Capt. W. W. Melville, who will become Major in Command. The Engineers will be brigaded under command of Col. Tompkins.

The exhibits of different products of the farmers would indicate a great year for the root crop. Harold Smith's big turnip now has to divide honors with some potatoes and beets of immense proportions brought in last week.

The Mission Circle of the Methodist Church, will hold a Food Sale on Saturday afternoon, October 19, in the store in the Hayden Gibson block just below G. W. Gibson's tailoring establishment. Besides all kinds of cooked articles there will be home made candy also on sale. Doors open at two o'clock.

Mr. Ralph Herrick's cornet solo, "My Old Kentucky Home," at the Home theatre, Saturday night, was a most pleasing feature of the entertainment. This talented young cornetist will be heard frequently during the winter at this popular play house.

Over 10,000 persons read the Sentinel every week and no other publication so thoroughly covers the field north of St. John. Wise advertisers find but one way to get into the homes and that way is the Sentinel's way. Advertising rates furnished on request. It will pay you to advertise in the Sentinel.

The Italian Salunci who figured in a cutting affray on the C. P. R. at Bristol last week, was given one month in jail. He aimed for the throat of a compatriot with a razor and slashed him across the face, making a deep cut. The hearing was before P. M. Holyoke on Friday. F. B. Carvell appeared for the C. P. R., and W. P. Jones for the prisoner.

Green Mountains are not arriving in the market very fast, but as fast as the buyers want them. They have for several days brought $1.05 to $1.10. Irish Cobblers come even more slowly, and bring $1.20 to $1.30. The quality is good. The farmers are apparently a little more than half done digging. Quite a few are all done, but the most have still great fields yet to harvest.—Fort Fairfield Review.

A charming, clever and laugh provoking play is The Fortune Hunter which was the attraction at the Hayden-Gibson theatre, Saturday night. It is undoubtedly the best offering the theatre management has produced here this season. John Meehan was cleverly humorous and so naturally portrayed The Fortune Hunter that he kept the house in spasms. The whole company was one of exceptional merit, and deserved a much better house.

The local market today (Thursday) is from $1.10 to $1.15, per bbl., for potatoes, with few offerings. The crop in this section of the country is about two-thirds harvested and the farmers are bending effort to secure the balance before freezing weather sets in which perhaps accounts for the light offerings. North not more than 50 per cent of the crop is yet harvested and unless the weather is exceedingly kind many tubers will be frozen in. Pickers are exceedingly scarce and command very high wages.—Houlton Pioneer.

BOSTON RED SOX WORLD'S CHAMPIONS

Boston, Oct. 16—The Boston Red Sox, pennant winners of the American League, are the world's champions of 1912. Defeating the New York Nationals today by a score of 3 to 2 in ten innings of a bitterly fought struggle, the Red Sox captured their fourth victory of the series and carried off the premier honors in baseball.

The total receipts for the eight games were $490,833, and each Red Sox player received $4,024, while the Giant players each came in for $2,568.

Write it on the Dome of St. Peters

To the Editor of the Press:—In my communication to the Press. last week, my article was made applicable to Coun. James Gallagher, chairman of the Street Committee. From information I have since received I understand that Mr. Gallagher was not the writer of the article that I was replying to. I am sorry to have used his name in the article, under the circumstances, and hereby tender him an apology.

JAMES CARR.

Woodstock, Oct. 11, 1912.

As 9 o'clock mass in the Catholic Cathedral in St. John Sunday, His Grace Archbishop Casey made the first definite announcement of his going to Vancouver as archbishop. He had just thanked the people for their contributions of the previous Sunday to the upkeep of the Mater Misericordia Home, and he continued by expressing his thanks to the people for all the goodness they had shown him during the twelve years in which he had been the Bishop of St. John.

CIRCUIT COURT

The circuit court opened Tuesday with Judge Landry presiding. John Lindsay was elected foreman of the Grand Jury. The Judge in his charge thanked the jury for their attendance. He was much pleased with the new court house and said it was most creditable to the county, he thought it probably the most modern and convenient court house in New Brunswick. His Honor spoke about the county jail, which he had visited. He noted the escapes and attempted escapes and said the public had a right to comment on the situation. He was not in a position to say it was safe, but he understood it was the determination to make it secure.

It was easy to be seen how escapes could be made under existing conditions. The officials should see that the facilities placed at their disposal should be carried out. He said the grand jury could visit the jail and make any suggestions they considered necessary.

Two criminal cases were laid before the jury.

George W. Green charged with assault on an officer.

Raymond Jones charged with criminal assault on young girl.

True bills were returned in both cases. The Jones case could not be brought to trial as the prisoner had escaped from jail and his whereabouts were unknown.

Green pleaded guilty and sentence was suspended.

Wednesday the civil cases were taken up. Agnes M. Rowell versus Enoch O. Parsons and John C. Hall. An action brought to recover the penalty provided by the act for not proving a will after due notice. Action was brought by plaintiff who claimed to be a creditor of Mrs. Hall, who died in 1903 and was proved to be a creditor of her estate.

Plaintiff actually claimed some sixty dollars due in wages. This is a very interesting case as bearing on the question of proving wills. Formerly there was a penalty if an executor did not prove a will within a certain time of the death of a testator but now there is no penalty unless a party interested gives notice that they require will to be proved.

The judge gave a decision for plaintiff for $25.00 and County Court costs.

Tompkins versus Ballentine—Record was withdrawn by plaintiff. L. E. Young for plaintiff, F. B. Carvell for defendant.
