

HAVE YOU A SKIN RASH?

ZAM-BUK WILL END IT.

For skin rashes, eruptions, eczema, etc., either in adults or children, there is nothing known to science which equals Zam-Buk in the quickness and certainty of its curative power. Mr. K. A. Wood, owner of Allaburg, Ont., writes: "I have tried Zam-Buk for many ailments, and every time have found it successful. Some time ago I had a bad rash all over my body. I tried home-made salves, herb salves, and various home-made preparations, and these proved of no use, but when I tried Zam-Buk I was cured in a quarter of the time that I had been experimenting in vain with other preparations."

"On another occasion I had one of my fingers crushed, and in that case also Zam-Buk was the only remedy I used. It healed the wound splendidly."

"My boy had boils, and once again Zam-Buk brought about a complete cure."

We have also used it as a household balm, for the injuries and skin diseases which are common to every person, and can say that in our experience there is nothing to equal Zam-Buk.

Zam-Buk owes its unique healing power to certain herbal extracts it contains. Unlike most ointments it contains no poisonous coloring matter, no animal fat, but is purely herbal. For eczema, piles, blood poison, abscesses, ulcers, cuts, burns, and all skin injuries, and diseases it is without equal and should be in every home. Soc box all druggists and stores. Use also Zam-Buk Soap, 25c tablet.

"James, I wonder how you can sit there and look me in the face."

"So do I, dear; but it's surprising what a really bold, brave, reckless bad man can do."

There is a touch of refinement about many of our town houses. Every house could be the same. They only require one of these exquisite coats of Ramsay's Paints, and it takes so little to go so far. Ask A. E. Jones to show you the beautiful combinations of Ramsay's Paints.

"Pa, was Washington a Boy Scout?"

"No, my son, the organization was not in existence in his time."

"Well, I don't see how he could do all he did if he lacked the training that we get every week."

ASTHMA CANNOT LAST when the greatest of all asthma specifics is used. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy assuredly deserves this exalted title. It has countless cures to its credit which other preparations have failed to benefit. It brings relief to even the most severe cases and brings the patient to a condition of blessed relief. Surely suffering from asthma is needless when a remedy like this is so easily secured.

Some people are too narrow minded to take a broad hint.

The man who burns the midnight oil never seems to make as much money as the man who sells it.

There wouldn't be much matrimony without a maiden effort.

If dogs could talk they wouldn't make such good friends.

It doesn't require an intimate knowledge of politics to realize that the healer cannot cure himself.

There are few things with greater drawbacks than a promise with a string tied to it.

Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is compounded specially to combat dysentery, cholera morbus and all inflammatory disorders that change of food or water may set up in the stomach and intestines. These complaints are more common in summer than in winter, but they are not confined to the warm months, as undue laxness of the bowels may seize a man at any time. Such a sufferer will find speedy relief in this Cordial.

In the Probate Court of Carleton County

To the sheriff of the County of Carleton, or any Constable within the said County, Greeting:—

Whereas, John T. G. Carr, one of the Executors and Trustees named in the last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Raymond, deceased, hath by his Petition bearing date the fourteenth day of May A. D. 1912 prayed that he may be permitted to pass his accounts with the said Estate, as such Executor and Trustee, and that an order for distribution be made.

You are therefore required to cite the Heirs, Next of Kin, Creditors, Legatees, Devisees, and all others interested to appear before me at a Court of Probate to be held at my office in the Town of Woodstock, in the County of Carleton, on Thursday the fifth day of September A. D. 1912, at the hour of eleven o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any, why the said accounts should not be passed and allowed, and why such Order for distribution should not be made.

Given under my hand and the seal of the said Probate Court, this fourteenth day of May A. D. 1912.

THANE M. JONES, Judge of Probate for the County of Carleton.

Mr. Copp, M. P. P. Accorded Great Reception in Kings County

Asks for Same Treatment to Farmers as Railways are Receiving—Cheap Money and Rural Telephones for Progressive Farmers—The Expenditure of Highway Money by the People Themselves—The Hand of the C.P.R. in Every Railway Deal of This Corporation Ridden Government

Mr. A. B. Copp, M. P. P., the brilliant young leader of the local opposition, attended the Liberal convention at Sussex on Tuesday and made an able and statesmanlike speech, which provoked very hearty applause.

He could not begin his address for some minutes, so hearty was the reception given. He thanked the convention for the demonstration which he knew came from hearts warmed by their delight at choosing a winning Liberal ticket in the grand old county of Kings. The government supporters had said that it would be impossible for the opposition to get candidates to face the invincible ticket led by Mr. Murray and "various persons," under the name of George B. Jones. He was proud to see the stalwarts of the Liberal party who had stood for their principles since confederation mingle with the younger men in the gathering united in their determination as were the Liberals of other counties, to hurl from power the pledge-breaking and extravagant government.

"In Kings the outlook is doubly hopeful for I can tell the government members that they have let go their right bower, as well as their joker, in discarding Fred M. Sproul, who was forced from the ticket to please the whim and fancy of those who were deeper in the treasury than he was himself. I can tell them that when they go further and seek to displace from office to make room for Mr. Sproul a trusted official of the county they will pay the price when they come before the people, whenever it may be, and let me add the sooner they come the better for the Liberal party in the province."

Hazen's Dreams. Mr. Copp caused some amusement by offering an apology for carrying The Standard in his pocket, but said that it had provided him with the best campaigning material he could find by producing Mr. Hazen's review of the acts passed by the government, as given by the late premier at the Flemming love feast.

"One of the first acts I see mentioned here," went on Mr. Copp, "is the act to appoint an agricultural commission. That commission was appointed and cost the province about $10,000, but I fail to see where the farmers have benefitted one dollar from that commission, and I charge that the purpose of the act was to give Dr. Landry, W. W. Hubbard and George E. Fisher and one or two others a junketing trip and some money at the expense of the province."

"I see here an act for an enquiry into the Central Railway, as a result of which there was paid to Messrs. Landry, Teed and McDougall and a legal adviser named Powell handsome salaries for holding this protracted enquiry, a partizan commission who prepared a partizan report at the expense of the people of the province, and I challenge the government to take any action on that report."

THE AUDIT ACT.

Mr. Copp then dealt with the audit act which was supposed to make the auditor-general an independent official and to prevent over-expenditure. "If this act is such a model," asked Mr. Copp, "how do my Conservative friends account for a deficit last year of $50,000?" Mr. Copp then proceeded to riddle the pretensions that this act would keep a check on expenditure by outlining a subterfuge worked by the government in appointing a treasury board of three members who had been ordering over-expenditure without recourse to the governor-in-council.

"Honest John Morrissey as a member of the treasury board sits on the application of the same Honest John for over-expenditure in his department with this system the members of the government may do just as they please with the finances of the province and they have pleased to do so very badly."

Mr. Copp spoke of some similar minor acts for which Mr. Flemming claimed credit and which were really of no benefit to the province and devoted some attention to the arrangement made with the Drummond interests for the development of the Gloucester iron ore. After the company was given assistance in building their railway to the extent of the province guaranteeing bonds for $15,000 a mile, the Drummonds had sufficient influence with this accommodating government to secure the ore on the payment of a royalty of only five cents a ton for a period of eighty years.

THE DRUMMOND DEAL

"After all the men women and children are dead and buried," said Mr. Copp "this rich concern, or their successors, no matter what the development may be, or what profits are made, will pay a measly five cents a ton for all the ore mined here. This however, is not the most damaging feature of the affair. According to the agreement the company undertakes to raise a minimum of 1,000 tons a day for 150 days in the year or a total of 150,000 tons, meaning a revenue of $7,500 a year. I find in the auditor-general's report that this company paid last year only some $1,600. This means that the rich Mr. Drummond has not been obliged to pay the amount required by his agreement with the province, no doubt a very profitable arrangement for the government as I can put two and two together when I see that Mr. Drummond was one of the exhibits at the Flemming love feast."

IS SERIOUS.

"This is a serious state of affairs," continued Mr. Copp, "and I have come to realize that apart from politics altogether that as a citizen of the province wishing to preserve for New Brunswick the glorious heritage of the future I must do what I can to turn the people from this government which is bound hand and foot by the wealthy corporations of the land, and should be doomed to its political death. I am not standing up for the old government. Every vestige of it is gone, but I will drive home to the people of the province at every opportunity the unfulfilled pledges and extravagant course of the Flemming administration."

Speaking of his own policy Mr. Copp said that the question of aid to agriculture and the making of roads had only been played with by this government and others. The public debt of the province had been largely contracted by the subsidizing and guaranteeing of bonds of railway and in so far as these railways were an indirect benefit to the farmers and other people he did not condemn this course. The late government began the guaranteeing of bonds with pledging the credit of the government to the extent of $6000 a mile for the Intercolonial Railway which the opposition had condemned as something frightfully extravagant.

Dr. Pugsley had introduced a bill for guaranteeing the bonds of the Valley railway to the extent of $15,000 a mile, but the present government had shown what could be done in the guaranteeing of bonds by pledging the credit of the province for the Valley railway of more than 200 miles for $25,000 a mile.

GIFTS TO C. P. R.

"As a railway which will materially benefit the province I would have no criticism to make of the government assuming this liability if they were open and above board, but I make the prediction and will repeat it before the country, that the government's scheme is simply intended to aid the C. P. R. and not in the interests of the province. I say this because I can see the hand of the C. P. R. in every railway deal which this corporation-ridden government has put through. They have guaranteed the bonds at $15,000 a mile for Sir Thomas Tait's road from Fredericton to Minto and did Sir Thomas Tait ever pretend to be anything else but a party of the C. P. R."

"There is worse to come. In order to induce Sir Thomas Tait to build this road for the C. P. R., the government makes that corporation a present of the Central Railway which cost the province more than $1,000,000 and under honest management should show a surplus. The agreement under which the road is taken over requires the C. P. R. to pay a percentage, not of the gross earnings, mark you, but of the net earnings, and who will say that the financial jugglers of the C. P. R. cannot show that there will never be any net earnings?"

"One moment to point out the inconsistency of this government. When Mr. Flemming and his friends were in opposition the late government received an offer from another company to lease the Central railway for a period of 99 years paying $21,000 a year. It was discussed in the House and Mr. Hill of Charlotte moved that the offer be accepted. It was not a government measure but every man of the opposition voted against it and succeeded in defeating the acceptance of the offer. In other words Mr. Flemming voted against leasing the road for $21,000 and now gives it away holus bolus to the C. P. R."

THE SOUTHAMPTON RAILWAY.

"Still the government was not satisfied. They have guaranteed the bonds of the Southampton Railway, thirteen miles in length, to the extent of $10,000 a mile, and this line runs from a point on the C. P. R. to J. K. Pinder's saw mill. The people of the province are liable for $130,000 because Mr. Pinder wants to haul his lumber and the C. P. R. wants the freight rates on this same lumber. Members of the government had not the slightest knowledge of this road when the bonds were guaranteed. When I asked if the rails had been purchased they did not know. As a matter of fact they were bought second hand from the C. P. R., but the government did not know anything beyond that an election was near and Mr. Pinder threatened

WOULD AID FARMERS.

Speaking of the question of aid to agriculture, Mr. Copp said it must be grappled with boldly and a progressive policy laid down.

VALLEY RAILWAY BONDS NOT IN MUCH DEMAND

Big Issue Offered by Local Government Still in Hands of Underwriters.

The following financial note in The Montreal Star from its correspondent in London will be pursued with considerable interest by the people of the St. John Valley:

"London, May 15.—The underwriters have been saddled with 95 per cent of the new issue of £373,285 St. John and Quebec Railway debentures offered at 98½ with the guarantee of the New Brunswick government. This is regarded as a further indication that investors today are requiring a higher rate of interest. The price was considered too high."

From the above it would seem that the local government is endeavoring to raise by a bond issue the enormous sum of four and a quarter million dollars to assist in the construction of the Valley Railway. They are evidently in a hurry to get the money, although under the terms of the terms of the act no portion of it is to be paid over to the company until a section of the road is completed.

The failure of the underwriters to subscribe for the bonds probably accounts for the delay in fixing the date of the election.

A PURELY VEGETABLE PILL.—The chief ingredients of Parment's Vegetable Pills are mandrake and dandelion, sedative and purgative, but perfectly harmless in their action. The cleanse and purify and have a most healthful effect upon the secretions of the digestive organs. The dyspeptic and all who suffer from liver and kidney ailments will find in these pills the most effective medicine in concentrated form that has yet been offered to the suffering.

THE ASTOR WILL

The will of the late Col. Astor, who perished on the Titanic, provides for the distribution of an estate valued at nearly $150,000,000. No provision is made for the wife his second wife dies or marries again from whom he was divorced, and if the $5,000,000 trust fund, together with the town house and other property left to her, reverts to Vincent Astor. She receives however, $1000.00 outright, without further stipulation and until the income from the trust fund shall become available the trustees are directed to pay her an income of $300,000 a year. There was, however, a settlement made on her before marriage which she accepted in lieu of dower rights. The amount of this has never been made public, but rumors have placed it at $5,000,000. That of course, she still holds. In addition to this $300,000 is left for the expected child. The bulk of the estate goes to a son by the first wife.
