

Your dear old tea-cup is to carry a keener delight, a new tea joy to your lips! For into tea flavor—the very essence of tea joy—an even richer fullness, a more zestful vigor has been blended. The result is King Cole Tea. With your very first sip you marvel that such flavor-improvement could be possible! It tastes so unusually good. And it never varies, year in, year out.

YOU'LL LIKE THE FLAVOR.

A TRIBUTE TO BISHOP CASEY

The Catholic Register and Canadian Extension, published in Toronto, has the following reference to the recent jubilee of Right Reverend T. Casey, Bishop of St. John's:

"His Lordship Bishop Casey, of St. John's, New Brunswick, recently celebrated the silver jubilee of his ordination to the holy priesthood. There were many evidences and testimonials of affection from the clergy and laity of the diocese, and with good reason, for this hard-working young bishop, though the most modest of men, has won the respect of all classes and all creeds.

"His priests like him because he puts on no airs and is as simple and democratic as the humblest curate in the diocese. The Catholic people have confidence in him, because he is always prudently trying to advance the interests of religion in his diocese. The non-Catholic public respect him because he is tactful, diplomatic and kindly, and takes a genuine interest in everything that makes for the civic and social advancement of his home city and province."

FATHER KIERNAN PASSED

AWAY IN THE WEST

Montreal, Jan. 8.—Announcement was made in all the Catholic churches yesterday of the death of Rev. Father Patrick Kiernan, one of the best known priests in Eastern Canada. Father Kiernan died in Victoria, B.C., where he had gone to recuperate after several years strenuous work in Montreal where he founded a new parish, that of St. Michael's. The late Father Kiernan was educated in Montreal and after being ordained, held various posts in the maritime provinces. He was for nine years priest in St. Mary's church near Fredericton. He spent several years in Penbrooke, Ont., and then returned to Montreal to become assistant pastor of St. Patrick's.

The Chatham World is a Conservative organ but it is not puffed from the provincial treasury and is therefore not afraid to say what it thinks. Dealing with the financial statement of the Flemming government it says:

"After having condemned the late Government, year after year, for over expenditure, we are not going to stultify ourselves, as some others are doing, by failing to condemn the present government's over expenditure. THE DEFICIT OF $50,000 IS INEXCUSABLE. IT VIOLATES THE SOLEMN PLEDGE OF EVERY MEMBER OF THE GOV."

LITTLE WORRIES IN THE HOME

It Is These That Bring Wrinkles and Make Women Look Prematurely Old.

Almost every woman at the head of a home meets daily with many little worries in her household affairs. They may be too small to notice an hour afterwards, but it is these same constant little worries that make so many women look prematurely old. Their effect may be noticed in sick or nervous headaches, fickle appetite, pain in the back or side, sallow complexion, and the coming of wrinkles, which every woman dreads. To those thus afflicted Dr. Williams' Pink Pills offer a speedy and certain cure, a restoration of color to the cheeks, brightness of the eye, a healthy appetite and a sense of freedom from weariness.

Among the thousands of Canadian women who have found new health and new strength through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is Mrs. W. C. Daerr, London, Ont., who says: "About two years ago I found myself so badly run down that it was almost impossible to perform my household duties. I fell off in flesh, was weak and very pale, had no appetite, feet constantly cold, and to further make my life miserable I was afflicted with those ailments from which so many women suffer. I tried many kinds of medicine, but got no benefit, and began to feel that I was slipping into chronic invalidism. I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and although I felt somewhat hopeless decided to do so. To my delight after taking the Pills a few weeks, I felt much better, and a further use of them brought me back to my old time health. I have since recommended the Pills to many others, and those who have used them have always been benefited."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Farmer's Son's Opportunity

One reason why so many boys leave the farm for the city is because of the failure of the father to take the boy into his confidence and make clear to him that he is not merely a "hewer of wood and drawer of water," but that he is in full partnership with him and has a personal interest in the success of the work. Those of us who were raised on the farm know, of course, that it would be practically impossible for the father to always demonstrate this to his son by a cash consideration; but if the seeds of dissatisfaction are not to be planted, some greater consideration for the son's services will have to be made than that of merely board and clothing. If, say, the son knew that he would receive even a small share of the proceeds from the sale of a pig, or a lamb or a calf, and occasionally of a cow or a horse, to do with as he might like, to save or to spend, we believe, speaking from experience, that the arrangement would be mutually advantageous. The son does not like to feel under the obligation of going to his father every time he wants a few cents for some expenditure; and, besides, he should be in a position to lay up something for the "Rainy Day." The needs of a quarter of a century ago do not accord with the needs of the present day; nor did the boys of that time have the same facilities for investment as the boys now have. Today we have practically at our door strong financial institutions which accept small amounts on deposit; and we also have the Canadian Government's great Annuities system, in regard to which a word of explanation may not be out of place. It was approved by members of both houses of Parliament, has at the back of it the security of the whole of the Dominion of Canada, and there could be no better or safer plan of investment as a means of making provision for old age. The payments may be spread over as many years as may be desired. The Government attends to all the details free of charge. For example, a payment of $13 the price of one hog—made for a boy of 10 and continued until he is 60, will give him an Annuity of $215.20 for life. If the payments are continued until 65, he will receive $335.73, or over $120 a year more than he would receive at 60. The same Annuity could be purchased for a boy of an older age at a little advance in this cost. If, therefore, a farmer's boy knew that at the time when he shall be no longer able to work he would have ample provision for the remainder of his days, and that if he died before drawing the first payment of Annuity all that he had paid in with 3 per cent compound interest would be returned to his heirs, what a difference this would make in his outlook; how much more contented he would be to remain on the farm—for there is no occupation more honourable, and how much more independent he would be in his old age. This is worth the serious consideration of every farmer who has boys, and of every farmer's son who is old enough to reason for himself. The Government's system is, of course available not only to farmers' sons and daughters, but to the sons and daughters of every other man who makes Canada his home, no matter what his nationality or creed may be. Literature explaining this province system may be obtained at the Post Office, or on application to the Superintendent of Annuities, Ottawa, to whom your letters go free of postage.

THE SCANDAL OF THE SPOILS SYSTEM. Almost every day reports another outrage by the spoilsmen of the new Ottawa Government. Yesterday's was from Oshawa. Its victim was a worthy citizen, Mr. Lyman C. Smith. Today's is from Stayner, and for unrelieved and brutal injustice it would seem to be the limit. The plain facts surely shame and disgust every fair-minded elector who had a share in the election of the Borden Government. Here are the facts: When the Liberals came into power in 1896 the postmastership of Stayner was held by a Conservative. For fourteen years the widow of the postmaster was left undisturbed in office, and to her the local Liberal Association extended the utmost consideration and courtesy. In September, 1910, she wished to retire. The position was offered to Mr. D. G. Pell of the town on express condition that he purchase from her the building in which the office had been located during the entire of service by herself and her husband. Mr. Pell purchased the property, and entered on his duties October 1, 1910. On Friday last, December 29, he received instructions, authorized by Postmaster General Pelletier, to hand over his office on January 1 to Mr. C. Q. McRae. No charge was made. No investigation was held. Not even the breath of complaint, political or otherwise, was suggested. And, adding to the gross injustice, the office was removed to the new postmaster's store, and the building purchased for the purpose is left a ruin on Mr. Bell's hands.

Is it any wonder that the town's sense of decency is scandalized. The fact that the change is from a Protestant to a Catholic adds to the offence in the eyes of local Orange Tories. But that aside, which is not of public interest and ought not to be an issue, the town's confidence in Mr. Bell is testified by the fact that on Monday he was elected Mayor by a majority of more than two to one over his opponent, a town lawyer of standing.

In the light of these rapidly increasing spoils scandals, involving now one member of the Government and now another, the weakness and wanton heartlessness of the new Administration are being exposed to the public. No such case, nothing at all in the same shameful category, can be charged against the Liberals. One wonders how long the honorable and self-respecting element in the Conservative party will allow it to go on. They cannot escape the humiliation of it.—Toronto Globe.

WELL DESERVED.

A pleasant event, tinged with feelings of regret took place in the vestry of St. Stephen's Church last evening, when Elder Fisher on behalf of the friends of Rev. Mr. Bearisto, presented him with a purse containing a substantial amount of money.

Mr. Bearisto have been residents of Amherst for some eight years and during their sojourn here have endeared themselves to a large circle of friends, who hearing of their intention of returning to their old home in Glasgow, N. B., took occasion to make the presentation referred to. The Newsmen understands that the Reverend gentleman will leave for his old home at an early date.—Amherst News.

Concrete Sidewalks are Safe, Sightly and Everlasting

LUMBER used in damp places and on wet ground—as, for instance, in walks—has a very short life. It requires almost constant repairing and, in a few years, needs replacing.

Concrete, on the other hand, improves with age, and the very dampness which destroys lumber calls out the best qualities of the cement by making it harder and harder—until neither time nor traffic can affect it.

The best of wooden walks keep getting out of repair, and are a continual menace to life and limb. They are also a frequent source of expensive doctor bills and lost time. Then again, they are likely to eat up the original cost in repairs before they are replaced. Concrete walks are sightly, everlasting and safe. They cost less to build and need no repairing nor painting.

Write for our free book, "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete."

It tells in plain, simple language, how you can save money on farm construction by using cement for Barns, Dairies, Foundations, Fence Posts, Troughs, Feeding Floors, Hitching Posts, Stalls, Silos, Stairs, and so forth.

The Book is well illustrated with photographs, plans and diagrams. Fill out the coupon or send a postal to-day.

Woman's Power

Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for women's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.
