MORE TROUBLE FOR MR. FLEMMING

Mr. Morrissey's Position--Mr. Landry
Bothering the Leader Over the Bringing in of English Settlers

The dissensions which have marked west and thus gracefully retiring the provincial cabinet since it was from the local political arena. Another vexing problem which has been put forward to strengthen the government has been promising a more progressive immigration policy and has organization, and now that they nounced that only the best class of have practically dropped that pre-British immigrants will be sought. tence and have been fighting their Mr. Landry opposes this policy. He battles on straight Conservative does not want English settlers and lines his usefulness to them has ended he does want them to be brought ed, and some of the members are from France. While this would be said to be anxious to get rid of popular with his own constituents it him. On the other hand Mr. Morrissey would not meet the approval of the rissey has not been satisfied with the majority of voters; and the govern- treatment which he has received and ment, while fearing to antagonize is said to be quite willing to drop their French supporters, are still out. Though denied, it is said again more unwilling to make enemies among the rest of the voters. Premier Flemming will have his work out for him when he returns to the ground with the intention of remov- province after his holiday jaunt- ing from New Brunswick to the through the west.

LARGER MARKETS STILL LIBERAL POLICY

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Declares Reciprocity Indispensable to Canada—
Must Have Larger Markets

"It is one of the first duties in our political economy to extend trade in all directions. We are a young nation, at the threshold of our career. We believe in expanding our trade. By that policy we shall continue to stand. This is the policy which will bring us back into power. Upon what lines shall that policy be developed? By trade between Province and Province: that was the reason we sought to develop and create new lines of communication. By trade with the old Mother Country; that was the reason we increased the British Preference; and lastly, by trade with foreign nations: that is the reason we sought to find a market for our surplus natural products in our near-by neighbor. Reciprocity is killed they tell us. Perhaps, but the question is not solved. It will not down. It is indispensable to the young and growing country, it is indispensable to the great young West, that markets should be provided for its production, if Canada is to attain the place which she is, I trust, destined to fill. In a vast country like ours it is inevitable that certain sections should develop divergent interests, and it is the duty of all true Canadians to recognize and try to find means of reconciliation. The cause of one must be the cause of all. I ask you Canadians of the East to examine the Western grievances, and see that the people of the West are given justice to which they are entitled from their country."—Sir Wilfrid Laurier at Sturgeon Falls.

CARLETON CO. COURT

One Criminal Case Tried
--Civil Cases

The County Court opened Tuesday with Judge Carleton presiding. Attorney General Grimmer, Hon. W. P. Jones, M. L. Hayward and Louis Young, Attorneys, were present.

Frank R. Shaw was foreman of the Grand Jury.

In the case of Everett Crabbe charged with stealing logs, the Jury found no bill. A true bill was found against John Cassidy for assault on Albert McLaughlin. This case was taken up and Cassidy found guilty. He was sentenced to six months in jail.

Attorney General Grimmer and M. L. Hayward conducted the prosecution and Hon. W. P. Jones appeared for Cassidy.

McLaughlin testified that he met Cassidy on the road, evening of Aug. 27th, and after a few words was attacked and badly beaten. His face was cut in several places and had to call Dr. Jackson, of Houlton, to fix him up. At time of the assault he was carrying a gun and intended going into the woods—he had not seen gun since. He did not notice anything in Cassidy's hand. To Mr. Jones: I was not at Houlton fair that day. The rifle was loaded. I met Cassidy unexpectedly and intended to go down the road in past him. I did not go out to ask him any questions. When I turned I threw the rifle down and did not strike at him with the rifle. He clinched and we rolled on the ground. I did not have his finger in my mouth.

Dr. Jackson gave evidence as to the nature of the wounds. He found several cuts some two inches long, fence. The Attorney General indulged in some brow beating methods blunt instrument—perhaps a stone, in examination of this witness that To Mr. Jones—Don't think wounds brought a sharp rebuke from Mr. could be caused by fist, but might Jones.

A PRETTY AUTUMN WEDDING

Dickinson--Dibblee Wedding Wednesday --Rev.
A. S. Hazel Performs the Ceremony

One of the prettiest of the autumn weddings was celebrated Wednesday in St. Luke's church, when Annie Elee-good, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. A. Dibblee, was united in marriage with Mr. William Dickinson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. S. Hazel, pastor of the church. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Fanny Raymond, the lovely bride, gowned in white duchess satin, trimmed with princess lace, carrying a bouquet of bridal roses entered the church escorted by her father, preceded by the surpliced choir of the church, and the ushers George Dibblee and Douglas Winslow. Miss Margaret Dibblee, gowned in pink charmeuse, with black velvet hat, trimmed with willow plumes, was bridesmaid. The groom was attended by Mr. LeBaron Dibblee.

The church was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and leaves. The altar was a mass of white floss. A reception was held after the ceremony and refreshments served. After the usual toasts and good wishes the bridal couple left on their honeymoon trip to Montreal and other cities, the bride travelling in a smart tailor made dress of navy blue serge with large hat to match.

The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful locket and chain, to the bridesmaid a pearl crescent.

The happy couple will reside in North Vancouver where Mr. Dickinson is manager of the Royal Bank of Canada. Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bruce, St. John; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Y. Dibblee, Fredericton; Miss Winifred Raymond, St. John; Miss Elsie Lawson, St. Stephen; Mr. LeBaron Dibblee, Madison, Me.

John Cassidy testified that he met McLaughlin on the road and threw roots on his land—after a few words McLaughlin hit him in the face with a gun. I took gun away from him and in the scuffle he got my finger in his mouth and chewed it. During the time he was chewing I was pounding him with my fist to make him stop. I had no weapon in my hand. I took rifle home and afterwards gave it to the officer. I threw roots in his grain. He struck at me with rifle. I did not put wounds on back of his head—they could have been caused by falling on rocks. I hit him with bare fist. Don't know how he got cuts.

Miss Cassidy, sister of the defendant gave testimony in support of her brother.

Dr. Grant was called by the defence several cuts some two inches long, fence. The Attorney General indulged in some brow beating methods blunt instrument—perhaps a stone, in examination of this witness that To Mr. Jones—Don't think wounds brought a sharp rebuke from Mr. could be caused by fist, but might Jones.
