OVERWHELMING ROUT FOR FLAG-FLAPPERS, HON. GEO. P. GRAHAM'S SPLENDID VICTORY

South Renfrew Elected the Liberal Ex-Minister by a Magnificent Majority of Nearly Four Hundred and Dealt a Crushing Blow to the Borden Government—A Stinging Rebuke to the Ministers Who Instigated the Breach of Faith and a Grand Triumph for Decency and Fair Play—It Spells the End of Tory Rule.

Ottawa, Feb. 22—Liberalism, triumphant, militant and enthusiastic, dominated the Parliamentary corridors tonight. Before the House adjourned at six o'clock the wires were clicking in the good tidings from South Renfrew. Both parties had prepared to take the returns in their respective rooms, and both were crowded.

Before the reassembling of the House at eight o'clock the scenes were of unusual character. Most of the Ministers, who felt the situation apparently very keenly, sought their offices by the side entrances and so avoided the groups of cheering Liberals.

JEERED THE "MACHINE" LEADER.
Premier Borden came in by the circuitous entrance, but the Liberals spotted Dr. Reid, who was hailed with jeers and laughter. The Minister of Customs was evidently out of the temper, and when Mr. E. M. MacDonald of Pictou undertook amid satirical laughter to congratulate him, he turned on his heel and swung off down the rear corridor of the House.

The advent of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who arrived a moment or two after eight o'clock, was the scene of much enthusiasm. The "Old Chief's" hand was seized and shaken by scores of members and newspaper men. He declined, however, to be interviewed on the outcome.

A SPLENDID VICTORY.
"Very happy; a splendid victory," was his comment to the members and senators who surrounded him.

In the House the Opposition had a hilarious time. The Government benches were practically deserted, the only Ministers in their places being Premier Borden and Mr. White, who was engaged in piloting his Tariff Commission Bill along. Dr. Reid and

Mr. Cochrane came in for a moment, but did not find the atmosphere to their liking and hurriedly departed. Dr. Reid being again greeted by roars of Liberals jeers and laughter. At the entrance of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, just as Mr. White rose to reply to Mr. Nesbitt, the Liberal benches broke to a storm of enthusiastic cheering which continued long after the Liberal Chief had smilingly taken his seat.

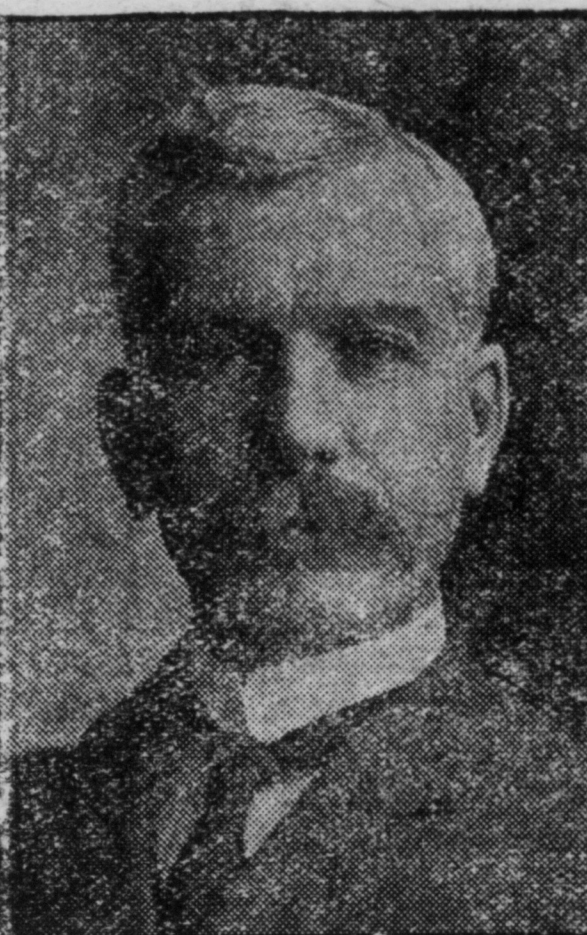

Premier Borden sat, evidently down cast, with his eyes upon his desk, while Mr. White resumed his seat and attempted to smile.

"It's the beginning of the end," volunteered Mr. Pardee amid renewed Liberal cheering.

"Give us one in Quebec now," shouted Mr. Lapointe, while the applause was renewed.

"Give us one in Nova Scotia," supplemented Mr. Sinclair of Guysboro, amid another storm of cheers. But Mr. Borden refused to raise his eyes from his desk.

George P. Graham

The result is regarded on both sides here as a crushing blow to the Government and its prestige. It was essentially the Government's fight, and it had thrown itself into the battle, to defeat Mr. Graham with every force at its disposal. Dr. Reid went into the constituency and, according to the unanswered charges of Mr. A. H. Clarke in the House, had made "wilful misstatements and public bribes to the electors." The Minister of Customs had declared from his seat in the House that Mr. Graham would never be elected and his Ministerial colleagues applauded the statement. They are sad and sick men tonight.

A CRUSHING BLOW.

It is generally conceded here that the result of the election is a very serious blow to the Government, and an equally important source of strength to the Opposition. The fact that practically every Cabinet Minister in the House has personally identified himself actively in the constituency with the cause of the defeated candidate, Dr. Maloney, throws the responsibility of the defeat upon the Government and is considered to be an ominous forecast of what may happen in Ontario at the next election.

HUGE TORY CORRUPTION FUND.

It is feely estimated that the cost of the bye-election to the Government and its forces will cost at least Fifty Thousand dollars and may total double that amount.

When it was finally announced that Mr. Graham's majority was amounting towards the 400 mark, at the conclusion of boisterous cheers by a group of Liberals in the corridors, Dr. Clarke of Red Deer, remarked dryly as he turned down the hall, "Well, that's good enough to go on with anyway."

Hon. George E. Foster Says It Presages Defeat of the Government

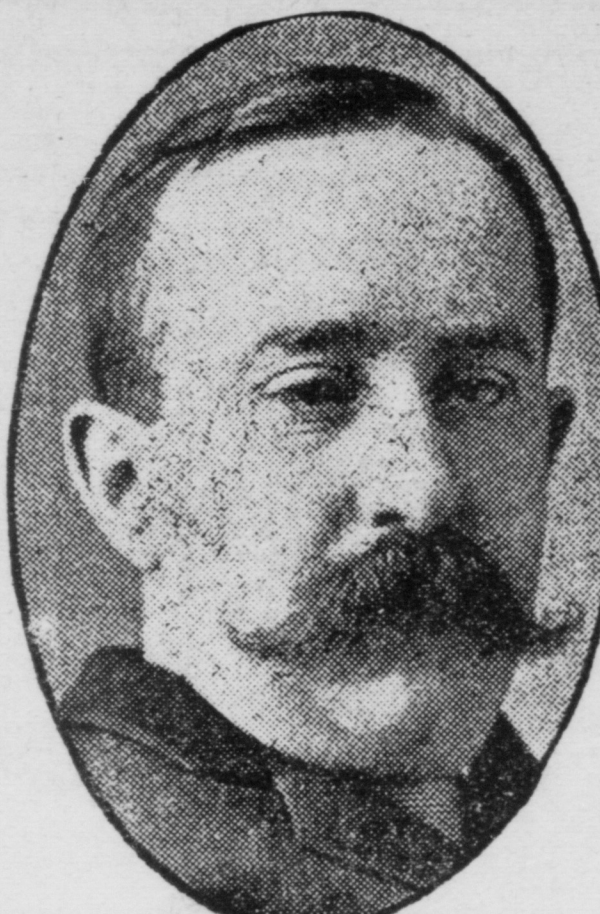

"When Sir Wilfrid Laurier asks you to elect George P. Graham, instead of Dr. Maloney, he is asking you to inject the drop of poison into the veins of the Government, that will eventually destroy that Government. If you elect George P. Graham, it will be considered everywhere as a severe blow to the Government. Let the new Government show you what it can do before you strike it a severe blow."
—Hon. George E. Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, speaking at Amprior on Wednesday night.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING OF THE BOARD OF TRADE---PLANS RECEIVED FOR VALLEY RAILWAY DIVISIONAL POINT

Under the Proposed Scheme the Town Will Give Land and Right-of-Way--The Experimental Farm

A well attended meeting of the Board of Trade was held in the Council Chamber, Monday, when matters of vital interest to the town were discussed. Dr. Rankin, chairman of the committee that was sent to Ottawa in connection with railway and other matters reported that a most satisfactory conference was held with the minister of railways, at which Mr. Hazen and Mr. Carvell were present. The minister informed the delegation that he was pleased with the concessions that the town was willing to make in regard to location of railway shops and assured them that nothing would be settled until Woodstock received the most careful consideration, and in the location of the shops the town would not be discriminated against. So far as a divisional point was concerned the government had nothing to say, the settlement of this question belonging to the railway company. Dr. Rankin felt that the minister would deal fairly with the matter in so far as his department was concerned.
