ACT II.—Opening CHORUS
Won't You Take a Ride With Me, Miss Leavett and Mr. Lockwood.
Dance—My Doctor, G. Whittaker and Gen. Bonaparte.
On a Cloudy Summer Night.

From the first curtain the piece went with a swing that would do credit to a professional company. The principal characters were exceedingly well taken, and the whole cast was well balanced. The chorus was good and the voices all seemed to blend to perfection. The costumes were most appropriate and the ensemble formed a most attractive stage setting.

Miss Carrie Munro made her debut and acquitted herself with every credit. Her numbers called for encores to which she was compelled to respond.

Seldom does it fall to the lot of anyone to win such a success as Mrs. George Gibson. Her sweet singing voice, added to which was a charmingly natural manner on the stage made her a prime favorite.

Miss Laura Carpenter in the part of a French maid was dainty, petite and her acting was good.

Miss Leavett, another new comer, and so ably trained the company, is deserving of a very large meed of praise, her singing and winsome way were certainly features that added to the success obtained.

Miss Edith Dalling and Mr. Barton Wetmore were both cast in suitable roles and won triumphs before the foot lights.

Norman Loane has won many successes on the local stage and Capt. Bing but serves to add another to the list. His role was suitable and he did himself every credit.

Dr. Currie kept the house in roars of laughter. He did not overdo the part and his antics were most amusing.

Frank Wolverton, Cecil Kemp, Herb Lockwood and LeBaron Dibblee were all that could be desired in their respective roles.

Two little girls, Mervin Woodford and Gladys Kellman in dancing specialties captured the audience. Their dancing brought forth a storm of applause and they were obliged to respond to encores. The little girls showed exceptional ability and careful training.

The cast of Character follow:—
G. Whittaker Rollins, R. Norman Leane; Gen. Christopher Bonaparte, (Leader of the Revolutionists); Dr. Currie; Hon. Jas. J. Graydon, financially embarrassed, LeBaron Dibblee; Capt. Bing, a retired pirate, Cecil Kemp; Dick Hammond, in love with Hope, Barton Wetmore; Hiram Hardin, a Yankee innkeeper, Frank Wolverton; Hope Graydon, in love with Dick, Jeannette Gibson; Senorita Maria Bonaparte, engaged to Capt. Bing, Miss Carrie Munro; Mrs. Plenty, a wealthy widow, Miss Edith Dalling; Hortense a French Maid, Miss Laura Carpenter.

REGULAR MEETING OF TOWN COUNCIL

Routine Business Transacted—Railway Wants Council to Take Action on Land—Report of Town Treasurer

The town fathers met Tuesday night with Mayor Ketchum presiding. The report of the police magistrate from June 4 to Sept. 1, was received and placed on file. It was expected that the committee appointed to look into the matter of the Imperial Packing would report. Mr. Smith of the company was present and at the suggestion of the Mayor agreed to have consideration of the question postponed until Friday evening.

Mr. John Connors was present on behalf of the St. John and Quebec Railway Company and asked what the council proposed doing in reference to buying land for the railway. He stated that if the town buys the land the company will place divisional point here—if it is not placed here the company will recoup the town for the amount paid for the land.

Coun. Dibblee wanted prompt action taken as the company want to proceed with the work. He suggested getting options at once and placing before council for action. If no arrangement could be made with owners the only course to be taken is expropriation.

There was some misunderstanding over the different propositions submitted by the town and railway. A committee was appointed to consult with the railway people and report to the Council Friday night.

The report of Supt. Gosling on permanent streets was presented and referred to the street committee.
