SUMMER COMPLAINTS KILL LITTLE ONES

At first sign of illness during the hot weather give the little ones Baby's Own Tablets, or in a few hours he may be beyond cure. These Tablets may prevent summer complaints if given occasionally to the well child and will promptly cure these troubles if they come on suddenly. Baby's Own Tablets should always be kept in every home where there are young children. There is no other medicine so good and the mother has the guarantee of a government analyst that they are absolutely safe. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

HARVESTERS FOR THE WEST

The weather having been favorable for the last two weeks, the Three Prairie Provinces are assured of the largest crops in their history.

This is now confirmed by the governments of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, who, in conference with the railways, have advised that at least 40,000 men are required in addition to the laborers available in the West.

The C. P. R., meeting the wishes of the Governments, have therefore decided to run Harvesters Excursions from the Maritime Provinces on Aug. 14th and Sept. 3rd. The rate from St. John to Winnipeg will be $12.00, at which point the Harvesters will get information which will enable them to decide where to go.

Those who go West with the intention of visiting their friends will no doubt proceed direct to their destination.

The advertising matter issued by the Railway gives full and complete information.

OBITUARY

After a long and painful illness, Charlotte, wife of Woodbury McLaggan, died at her home, Blaine, Me., Friday, July 18, at the age of 72 years. Mrs. McLaggan was born in St. John, N. B. Her maiden name was Charlotte Colwell, she being the youngest of a family of 5 children. The others are living, one brother in New Zealand, a sister in Jemseg, N. B.

She was first married to Wm M Smith, who has been dead for more than 12 years. The greater part of her married life was lived in Woodstock, N. B. During their stay there she united with the F B Church, of which church she was a member when she died.

About four years ago Mrs Smith was married to Mr McLaggan, and until health began to fail took an active part with him in church work and an interest in the happenings of the community. She was also a member of the Mars Hill and Blaine W C T U.

Besides a husband she leaves to mourn, 4 children and 12 grandchildren, Mrs Fred Manuel, Houlton, Me; Walter Smith, North Dakota; Mrs B W Cummings, Houlton, and Garfield Smith, Malden, Mass. All were present at the funeral but Walter.

For nearly seven months she had been unable to sit up but a little while at a time, and as day after day of pain and weariness went by, she prayed that the loving Christ, who had gone to prepare a place for her, might come and receive her unto Himself.

Funeral services were held at the home, Sunday, July 20, at 2.30 p m, Rev Byron Orr of Lawrence, Mass, speaking help and sympathetic words from Gal. 6:7-2.

The singers were Mrs Jennie Pierce, Mrs Mae Irvine and Mr Theodore Richardson. J R Irvine was director.

The floral tributes were white carnations from the children, a wreath of assorted flowers from Mrs Lily Cluff, Mrs Dumphy and Mrs Celia Fry. Pansies from Mrs Sycha Irvine and Mrs Mae Irvine.

The remains were taken to Woodstock, Monday, and placed beside her husband in the Smith lot.

JAMES EGAN

St Stephen, N. B., Aug. 4.—Death came suddenly to James Egan yesterday morning at his home in King street. He had been in his usual health and was about on Saturday chatting with his friends. After retiring late in the evening he complained of a severe pain in the chest, and a physician was called. Even then Mr. Egan's condition was not considered serious, but about three o'clock he took an ill turn and before aid could be summoned he passed away.

Mr Egan, who was a well known local horseman, was 63 years of age on last Friday. He leaves his wife and two daughters, Helen and Clara, in Boston.
