OBITUARY

A. WELDON STEVENS

A. Weldon, the youngest son of D. W. C. Stevens, passed away Sunday morning, after a short illness of cholera infantum. The parents have the sympathy of the whole community in their bereavement.

HARRY LEE SMITH

Harry Lee Smith, third child of Mr. and Mrs. John Y. Smith of Plymouth, passed away at the home of his parents, after a lingering illness, on Thursday morning, August 21st, aged 28 years. The end was peaceful and he was fully trusting in his Saviour. He leaves to mourn their loss, a wife and one child, his father and mother, one sister, Mrs. Holly Wilcox of this town, two brothers, Fred A. Smith of Plymouth, and Pearl Smith at home. The funeral service was conducted on the following Saturday by the Rev. Mr. Archer, Reformed Baptist Pastor. The following hymns were sung: Rock of Ages, Not Made With Hands and Safe in the Arms of Jesus. A rather sad and strange incident connected with his death was that he died on his little child's birthday and was buried on his wife's birthday. Sincere sympathy is felt for the bereaved family.

C. MILES MOORE

The many friends and acquaintances of C. Miles Moore will regret to learn of his death which took place Tuesday morning after a short illness. He is survived by his wife, three daughters, son, mother, one brother and two sisters. He was forty-eight years of age.

Mr. Moore went to Vancouver some months ago and was taken ill there, he returned to Woodstock a week ago in expectation that a return to his native air and a rest might be of benefit, but he continued to fail even after his arrival and the end came Tuesday morning. For many years he was the junior member of the big lumbering concern of Fred Moore & Sons, widely known all over the country in connection with their large lumbering interests.

The deceased was a man of engaging personality, kind, generous, everybody's friend and a friend to everybody, and will be missed both in his immediate family and also by a large circle of friends. The funeral was held Thursday, Rev. H. G. Kennedy, of Houlton, conducting the service.

Just arrived a fresh line of Moir's and Ganong's chocolates, in bulk or box, at E. A. Burden's.
