JUNE WEDDINGS

(The British Canadian News Agency)

MAHONY-LYNOTT

WINNIPEG, June 16th.—A quiet but extremely pretty wedding took place in St. Marys Church, Winnipeg, Tuesday, 16th June, at 4 p.m., when Miss Marie Agnes Lynott, daughter of S. L. Lynott, Editor of the Carleton Sentinel, Woodstock, N. B., became the bride of Mr. Edward J. Mahony, son of Mr. Peter Mahony of St. John, N. B., the Rev. Father Patton officiating. The bride was assisted by Miss McMullen, while Dr. P. J. Gallagher acted as groomsmen.

The bride, who is distinctly one of June's most charming, was attired in a becoming blue serge travelling suit and wore a stylish Nell Rose turban which blended perfectly with the armful of beautiful roses she carried.

After the wedding the party were the guests of Mrs. McMullen.

Mr. Mahony is one of Calgary's foremost young business men. He came to the west about four years ago and engaged in the Insurance business. His winning manner has brought him rapidly to the front and his many friends include people from coast to coast in Canada.

After the wedding breakfast the couple left for Banff and points West on their honeymoon. They will take up their residence in Calgary in the near future.

GILLET-DAVIES.

The marriage of Miss Madeline A. Davies to Mr. Sydney Howard Gillett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Gillett of Lyndhurst, Parkend Road, Gloucester, Eng., took place at half past three Wednesday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Davies, Broadway. The drawing room was prettily decorated with ferns and pink and white flowers, the bridal party standing under a bell of white honeysuckle. The Rev. R. W. Weddall performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given away by her father wore a gown of white charmeuse satin with pearl trimmings and hand embroidered veil caught up with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Jessie Davies, wearing a gown of pink charmeuse satin with overdress of shadow lace and carried a bouquet of pink roses and smilax. Miss Grace Porter of Andover very brilliantly rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillett left for a trip to Montreal, Toronto, Niagara and Buffalo after which they will reside at North Bay, Ont. Going away the bride wore a tailored suit of fawn broadcloth with Bulgarian trimming and hat to match and carried a silver purse the gift of the groom.

BELYEA-WHEELER.

Miss Ellen P. Wheeler, daughter of Mr. Preston Wheeler, and Mr. Harry M. Belyea, formerly of St. John, were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. D. A. McKendrick, 21 Water St., by Rev. A. C. Berrie, pastor of the U. B. church.

The bride was becomingly gowned in white Duchess Satin. Her veil was arranged with lilies of the valley and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

The presents were numerous and beautiful consisting of silver, gold, linen, cut glass and furniture.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. Belyea's sister and brother Miss Pearl Belyea of Boston, and Mr. Lorne Belyea of St. John; Miss Gertrude E. MacKendrick of Springfield, Mass., and Mr. Archie Scott of Glassville, N. B., a great uncle of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Belyea left for St. John on the evening express, and will spend their honeymoon at Mr. Lorne Belyea's summer cottage at Cherry Ridge, twenty miles above St. John. They will reside in Woodstock where Mr. Belyea has a lucrative business.

BATES-COYLE.

FIRE DEPARTMENT EXCURSION TO FORT FAIRFIELD

July 4th Celebration

The Woodstock Fire Department will run an Excursion to Fort Fairfield the morning of July 4th, starting from Woodstock at 6.50 o'clock, (Atlantic time), and starting from Fort Fairfield on its return at night, after the great torchlight procession is over. The round-trip fare from Woodstock is only $1.40; other places in proportion. A great many will patronize this excursion from Woodstock and many more from along the line of the C.P.R. northward, for two reasons—to see the best celebration ever held in Northern Maine and to help out the Fire Department. At Fort Fairfield will be four great horse races, purse $400 each; besides pulling match, great auto parade in the morning, horse races between fire companies from Woodstock and the Aroostook Valley towns, two base ball games by Fort Fairfield, Presque Isle and Caribou teams, athletic contests, etc. The Fort Fairfield and Mars Hill bands will furnish music. The Fort Fairfield Trotting Park Association, which gives this celebration, is newly organized, and contains 50 of Fort Fairfield's leading citizens, hence is able and willing to give all that is advertised.

The 10th Field Battery will leave for Sussex Monday, 23rd inst.

Coun. Brittain wanted to know since all land damages for road purposes were ordered paid to the secretary of the Board, and that officer was abolished, to whom would it be paid?

Coun. Perry moved that all monies for land damage be paid to the County secretary and paid out on the order of the several Councillors. Coun. Brittain seconded the motion. Carried.

Coun. Melville moved that the Parish of Peel be divided into two electoral districts dividing line beginning at mouth of Stickney brook and following said brook to a point where it meets centre Glassville road, thence following along said road to the parish of Aberdeen, northerly division to vote at or near Orange Hall, East Florenceville, southerly division to vote at or near Harmon School House, Peel. Carried.

Coun. Melville moved that the sections of Woodstock, Fort Fairfield, and other Aroostook towns, in Fort Fairfield's streets, July 4th, will be matters of great interests. They will be fought out for good purposes, besides lots of honor and satisfaction.
