

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM OUR STAFF REPORTERS

WILLIAMSTOWN.
(Delayed in Mail)

This district has secured the services of Mrs. Richard Gallivan as teacher.

A party was held at Mr. Thomas Emery's, Jr., in honor of Miss Annie Woodruff, who left for England on Friday. Miss Mania Emery also gave a party in her honor.

A party was held at Mr. William McWaid's one evening last week and one at Mr. Howell Corbett's.

Mr. James Page and mother, Pioneer, were guests at Wm. McWaid's quite recently.

Miss Kate McAuley is enjoying her usual health again after an attack of grippe.

Easter Ball at Lakeville was reported a grand affair. Every religious denomination in Wakefield and Wilmet was represented by old and young.

Mrs. George Pryor, Pioneer, and her niece Miss Ellen Pryor, Bristol, were callers at Mr. Andrew Jameson's recently.

Miss Mamie Emery has gone to Tracey Mills, to spend a few days.

Mrs. Heffer is visiting her father, Alfred Walker, and her sister, Mrs. Eldon Watters. Mrs. Lydia Savage is spending a few weeks at Mr. Eldon Watters.

Sugar makers are doing a very heavy business this year, the weather being very favorable.

Wm. Emery sold his big grey team to Geo. Briggs, Centreville, and has bought a younger team.

Sorry to hear of the illness of Mr. Augustus Gilman, of your town, but glad to hear that he is improving.

MIDDLE SOUTHAMPTON

Hezekiah Young of Millville who was visiting his sister, Mrs. Oran Patterson, has gone to Canterbury Station, to visit friends.

John H. Fox had the telephone put in his house last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stanton have moved to Fredericton.

The United Baptist Missionary meeting met at the home of Mrs. W. B. Cronkite last Friday afternoon.

John W. Dare is again very sick; Dr. McIntyre is in attendance.

Miss Jennie Montleth is home on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. William Clark have moved from Boston to their summer cottage, which they will occupy till next fall.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Grant and two sons, John and Harry, have moved to the west. Lote Kinnie went with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stairs lost their infant child last week.

Mrs. Stephen Patterson who has been very sick is some better.

Some of the farmers of this place have ploughed and are preparing to do their spring work.

BATH.

The C. P. R. have a crew of men at work taking down the temporary bridge erected over the Monquart Stream where the old N. B. railway formerly crossed. The new bridge which was completed will now be used.

Joseph Currie has purchased the Thos. O'Donnell farm in the Monquart Settlement and will reside there.

Fred Giberson, of Caribou, Maine, spent a few days with friends here recently.

Messrs. S. W. Tompkins, Arthur Frost and Handford L. Squires intend to leave here in a few days for Winnipeg.

Miss Armstrong of Lakeville, N. B., who has been spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Smith, left for her home last week.

H. J. Smith of Florenceville spent Sunday with his family here.

Miss Elizabeth Maddox of Chester was a caller here last week. Miss Maddox leaves on Tuesday next for Alberta to take charge of a school in that Province.

The farmers here in this section are making preparation to plant more acreage of potatoes than formerly.

While a number of our people are leaving for the West, it has been many years since so many applications have been filed for new farms in this Parish. There is no doubt but for the man with limited capital Carleton County cannot be surpassed for a farming venture.

C. W. Parlee has been engaged by McIntosh Bros. in the black smith shop and repair shop. Mr. Parlee spent last summer in Winnipeg.

Mr. Harry Kinney of this place

Dr. de Van's Female Pills

A reliable French regulator; never fails. These pills are exceedingly powerful in regulating the generative portion of the female system. Refuse all cheap imitations. Dr. de Van's are sold at 25¢ a box, or three for $1.00. Mailed to any address. The Carleton County, N. B., is the best place to get them.

and Mr. Smalley of Houlton, but formerly of Florenceville, left here yesterday for San Antonio, Texas.

Mr. Kinney takes charge of a large Drug Business there. He recently and for the past two years has been in the employ of French's Drug Store at Houlton. His many friends here wish him every success.

BURNT LAND BROOK.

The ice in the river jammed below Diamond Island and was held there for three days by the cold weather and finally ran out on the 18th.

Lumbermen are preparing for driving.

Mrs. C. A. Hayden always has the first spring chickens. She has one flock a week old now.

Miss Tessa Chapman who has been staying with her sister, Mrs. Murray Everett, came home on Friday.

Those who have been sick with the grippe are better.

Miss Mary Boone spent last week at home sick with grippe. Her sister had charge of the school here in her absence.

On account of the mud Mr. C. S. Young was not able to drive down from Riley Brook in time for his appointment on Sunday.

D. A. Jenkins with two men and team have been getting out lumber this week.

James Burns, Carlingford, is in B. L. B. on veterinary business.

OBITUARY

MR. JOHNATHAN SHAW.

Mr. Johnathan Shaw died at his home in Temple, March 9th, 1913, after a year's suffering of paralysis. The end came quickly.

The funeral was held at the Primitive Baptist church at Temple, March 11, Mr. Gordon Grant director.

Rev. L. R. Foster preached the funeral sermon. Music was furnished by the church choir with Mrs. Sandy Grant organist. Four of his favorite hymns were sung: "Asleep in Jesus," "He'll wipe all tears away," "Will the circle be unbroken," and "Why do we mourn departing friends."

Text, John 14, 1-2.

Brother Shaw was born at Temple, York Co., N. B. He leaves to mourn the loss of a kind father and a loving husband, a wife, three sons and two daughters: Handford of Temple, Frank of Boston, Percy, Mabel and Edith at home.

Brother Shaw professed religion under the labors of Rev. Thomas Connor and was baptised and united with the church at Temple. He has been a leader of this church for about forty years.

Brother Shaw was highly esteemed in the community in which he lived on account of his generosity which knew no bounds until every want of the needy was supplied. But it is with respect to his religious life that I wish to speak more particularly.

His conduct gave an emphatic, affirmative answer to the question, "Can a man live a christian life?"

Bro. Shaw was a christian in the best and highest sense of the term, and will be greatly missed by the church and community, in which he lived.

THE QUALITY OF PRINTED MATTER DEPENDS LARGELY ON THE STYLE AND ORIGINALITY OF THE COMPOSITION. MECHANICAL FINISH AND GOOD WORKMANSHIP ARE ONLY OBTAINABLE THROUGH THE USE OF PROPER EQUIPMENT. OUR JOB DEPARTMENT IS EQUIPPED FOR QUALITY PRINTING.

THE SENTINEL.

Constitution is a remedy within the camp. It will underpin the strongest constitution and ruin the most vigorous health. It leads to indigestion, biliousness, impure blood, bad complexion, sick headache, and is one of the most frequent causes of appendicitis. To neglect it is slow suicide. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills positively cure Constipation. They are entirely vegetable in composition and do not sicken, weaken or gripe. Preserve your health by taking

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills

MARRIED

In Stickney, N. B., April 16, 1913, by Rev. Charles F. King, H. W. Beacher Crain of Bath, N. B., and Mabel A. Ebbett of Stickney.

At Woodstock, N. B., on April 21st, 1913, by Rev. H. C. Archer, Mrs. Christie Leslie to Samuel Sharp, both of Woodstock, N. B.

HOUSE TO RENT—on Main street. Possession given May 1st. Apply to MRS. CATHARINE BURNS. (21ns-17-pd.)

Shiloh's Cure quickly stops coughs, cures colds, heals the throat and lungs. 25 cents.

COMFORT SOAP

The Easy Way of Doing a Hard Day's Wash—with Comfort Soap

POSITIVELY THE LARGEST SALE IN CANADA

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

B. D. Hoyt, Debec, was in town on Friday.

Albion Foster of the C. P. R. police was in town Saturday.

James Dolan, the well known commercial man, was in town last week.

Hanford Green has been made a Justice of the Peace for Carleton County.

Mrs. T. D. Day, Florenceville, was the guest last week of her sister, Mrs. Boyd.

Mrs. Samuel Freeman of Hartford was a caller at this office on Friday of last week.

Rev. Fr. Bradley of Florenceville, and Fr. Murphy of Debec, was week-end visitors in town.

Mr. Claude McBride's many friends are delighted to hear that he is recovering from his serious illness.

Mrs. E. A. Burden and daughter of Woodstock were visiting in Fredericton last week the guests of Mrs. H. Woods.

Letters patent of incorporation have been issued to the Woodstock and Northumberland Telephone Company, Limited. The company is to have its headquarters at Woodstock. The capital stock is $5,000.

The automobile belonging to the Base Ball Association is attracting a lot of attention, and is much admired by all who visit the ware rooms of J. Clark & Son. It is to be given away very soon—perhaps one dollar will win it. It is a great opportunity to make an investment that will compare favorably with some western plunges—and it only takes a small amount of money.

Major and Mrs. Hamilton-Gray entertained at the Officers' Mess last night in honor of the members of the Woodstock Dramatic Club, which played "His Honor the Governor," to a large audience at the Opera House last night. About one hundred guests were in attendance at the late supper and dance which was given at the mess after the performance. The entertainment, which was very much enjoyed, began about eleven o'clock and continued until two.

Music was furnished by the band of the 1st York Regt., which was stationed upon the balcony of the Officers' Quarters. The program followed by the band was as follows:

March, Far Away.
Overture, Sons of Erin.
Waltz, Love's Entreaty.
March, Favorite.
Selections, Songs of the West.
Waltz, That's How I Need You.
Two-Step, Row, Row, Row.
March, Nonpareil.
God Save the King.

Music was furnished by the band of the 1st York Regt., which was stationed upon the balcony of the Officers' Quarters. The program followed by the band was as follows:

March, Far Away.
Overture, Sons of Erin.
Waltz, Love's Entreaty.
March, Favorite.
Selections, Songs of the West.
Waltz, That's How I Need You.
Two-Step, Row, Row, Row.
March, Nonpareil.
God Save the King.

Music was furnished by the band of the 1st York Regt., which was stationed upon the balcony of the Officers' Quarters. The program followed by the band was as follows:

March, Far Away.
Overture, Sons of Erin.
Waltz, Love's Entreaty.
March, Favorite.
Selections, Songs of the West.
Waltz, That's How I Need You.
Two-Step, Row, Row, Row.
March, Nonpareil.
God Save the King.

Music was furnished by the band of the 1st York Regt., which was stationed upon the balcony of the Officers' Quarters. The program followed by the band was as follows:

March, Far Away.
Overture, Sons of Erin.
Waltz, Love's Entreaty.
March, Favorite.
Selections, Songs of the West.
Waltz, That's How I Need You.
Two-Step, Row, Row, Row.
March, Nonpareil.
God Save the King.

Music was furnished by the band of the 1st York Regt., which was stationed upon the balcony of the Officers' Quarters. The program followed by the band was as follows:

March, Far Away.
Overture, Sons of Erin.
Waltz, Love's Entreaty.
March, Favorite.
Selections, Songs of the West.
Waltz, That's How I Need You.
Two-Step, Row, Row, Row.
March, Nonpareil.
God Save the King.

Music was furnished by the band of the 1st York Regt., which was stationed upon the balcony of the Officers' Quarters. The program followed by the band was as follows:

March, Far Away.
Overture, Sons of Erin.
Waltz, Love's Entreaty.
March, Favorite.
Selections, Songs of the West.
Waltz, That's How I Need You.
Two-Step, Row, Row, Row.
March, Nonpareil.
God Save the King.

Music was furnished by the band of the 1st York Regt., which was stationed upon the balcony of the Officers' Quarters. The program followed by the band was as follows:

March, Far Away.
Overture, Sons of Erin.
Waltz, Love's Entreaty.
March, Favorite.
Selections, Songs of the West.
Waltz, That's How I Need You.
Two-Step, Row, Row, Row.
March, Nonpareil.
God Save the King.

Music was furnished by the band of the 1st York Regt., which was stationed upon the balcony of the Officers' Quarters. The program followed by the band was as follows:

March, Far Away.
Overture, Sons of Erin.
Waltz, Love's Entreaty.
March, Favorite.
Selections, Songs of the West.
Waltz, That's How I Need You.
Two-Step, Row, Row, Row.
March, Nonpareil.
God Save the King.

Music was furnished by the band of the 1st York Regt., which was stationed upon the balcony of the Officers' Quarters. The program followed by the band was as follows:

March, Far Away.
Overture, Sons of Erin.
Waltz, Love's Entreaty.
March, Favorite.
Selections, Songs of the West.
Waltz, That's How I Need You.
Two-Step, Row, Row, Row.
March, Nonpareil.
God Save the King.

Music was furnished by the band of the 1st York Regt., which was stationed upon the balcony of the Officers' Quarters. The program followed by the band was as follows:

March, Far Away.
Overture, Sons of Erin.
Waltz, Love's Entreaty.
March, Favorite.
Selections, Songs of the West.
Waltz, That's How I Need You.
Two-Step, Row, Row, Row.
March, Nonpareil.
God Save the King.

Music was furnished by the band of the 1st York Regt., which was stationed upon the balcony of the Officers' Quarters. The program followed by the band was as follows:

March, Far Away.
Overture, Sons of Erin.
Waltz, Love's Entreaty.
March, Favorite.
Selections, Songs of the West.
Waltz, That's How I Need You.
Two-Step, Row, Row, Row.
March, Nonpareil.
God Save the King.

Music was furnished by the band of the 1st York Regt., which was stationed upon the balcony of the Officers' Quarters. The program followed by the band was as follows:

March, Far Away.
Overture, Sons of Erin.
Waltz, Love's Entreaty.
March, Favorite.
Selections, Songs of the West.
Waltz, That's How I Need You.
Two-Step, Row, Row, Row.
March, Nonpareil.
God Save the King.

Music was furnished by the band of the 1st York Regt., which was stationed upon the balcony of the Officers' Quarters. The program followed by the band was as follows:

March, Far Away.
Overture, Sons of Erin.
Waltz, Love's Entreaty.
March, Favorite.
Selections, Songs of the West.
Waltz, That's How I Need You.
Two-Step, Row, Row, Row.
March, Nonpareil.
God Save the King.

Salvation Army

The Salvation Army has—as an organization—given both to the religious and philanthropic worlds many examples of what great things can be done by fixity of purpose and unity of effort, and among them none more striking than its annual week of Self-Denial.

We understand that this special effort will be taken up right away by the Officers and soldiers and being in some acquainted with the good work that the Army has accomplished, we are not backward in commending the appeal to the generosity of the people.

In addition to being a great influence for good in this country, the Army is a great missionary organization, operating in no fewer than 59 Countries and Colonies, and preaching the Gospel in 34 different languages.

All through the past year, by its ten thousand agencies, the Army has been busy in different forms of self-sacrificing toil bringing happiness and salvation to the hearts and lives of homes of multitudes of people; and all the year round the Army has gone on, opening out its arms wider and wider, entering new rations, attacking new neighborhoods, learning new languages, enlisting new helpers, inventing new plans, and so enlarging the sphere of its operations and its power to bless the world.

But this combined and increased activity requires money. A little war can be carried on at a small cost—a big one requires a proportionate amount.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, nursing the sick, reclaiming the fallen, and seeking the glory of God through Jesus Christ, and that the results prove beyond question, that God is with them.

preaching the Gospel in 34 different languages.

All through the past year, by its ten thousand agencies, the Army has been busy in different forms of self-sacrificing toil bringing happiness and salvation to the hearts and lives of homes of multitudes of people; and all the year round the Army has gone on, opening out its arms wider and wider, entering new rations, attacking new neighborhoods, learning new languages, enlisting new helpers, inventing new plans, and so enlarging the sphere of its operations and its power to bless the world.

But this combined and increased activity requires money. A little war can be carried on at a small cost—a big one requires a proportionate amount.

The Army people prove their willingness to help themselves. In addition to their contributions for the support of the ordinary work of the Corps, they will, during the Self-Denial week, deny themselves in various forms in order to assist in this great Missionary effort.

Will the readers of this paper join them? Whether agreeing with every method and principle or not, they will know the Army are fighting against sin, feeding