A Racking Cough And Sore Throat Cured in Five Hours

Use the Proper Remedy and Colds and Sore Throat Throat Disappear

"When I came home last evening," writes Mr. Thomas E. Jarvis, "I was all used up with cold and a racking cough. I felt sick all over. My wife rubbed my throat, and chest every hour, and made me gargle with Nervilleine and water. I was soon warmed up and made comfortable with the Nervilleine, and the chilly sensation passed away. At 11 o'clock, after five hours' treatment, I was practically well. I therefore write you at once in order that it may be publicly known that Nervilleine will knock out a bad cold over night."

It is a fact that Nervilleine will ease up a tight chest, will relieve that sore, wheezy feeling, will knock out a cold in just a few hours. It penetrates deeply, draws out the congestion, cures promptly. Get a large family size bottle, 50c; small size 15c, at all storekeepers and druggists or The Catarrhzone Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

CHEESE STRAWS

Roll out a piece of puff paste very thin, and sprinkle it all over very thickly with grated Parmesan cheese, a little mustard, pepper and salt, then roll it up and press it with the hand and roll out thinly with the rolling pin. Cut it up in strips five inches long and a quarter of an inch wide, bake a few minutes in a warm oven, pile them on a napkin and serve very hot.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

(Crowded out last issue).

Mr. Carleton Tilley has been promoted to "Teller" in the Bank of Montreal.

Mr. C. M. Augherston, Mr. H. L. Grant and Master Fred Grant spent a day at Skiff Lake this week.

Mrs. A. W. Hay was hostess at a five o'clock tea, to a number of ladies on Tuesday afternoon, from 4 to 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bentley entertained a few of their friends very pleasantly at bridge on Thursday evening last.

H. B. Durost, Florenceville, who is one of the late appointees on the Agricultural staff of the province was in town last week.

Mr. J. A. Putnam, of the Royal Bank of Canada's branch, Fredericton, received many congratulations on Thursday on the 82nd anniversary of his birthday. Although he has been confined to his residence in St. John since last October, Judge Tuck is still able to sit up and move around the house, and his mental faculties are untouched by the flight of time.

A driving party went to the camp of Flemming, Rogers and Gibson on Friday afternoon, had supper and ton, has been transferred to one of the branches in Western Canada.

The many friends of Mr. Robert Flemming will be interested to hear that he has been promoted to the position of accountant in the Bank of Montreal at Bridgewater, N. S.

Mr. Rankine Brown and Mr. J. Albert Hayden who have been inmates of the hospital are both improving and their many friends all hope they will soon regain their former health and vigor.

H. B. Durost, B. S. A. of Florenceville, N. B., has been engaged by the agricultural department at Fredericton to assist the farmers of the province in the problem of maintaining the fertility of the soil, and the use of fertilizers. He will also discuss beekeeping problems with those interested in this branch of agriculture.

Hon. William Henry Tuck, ex-Chief Justice, returned after midnight. A good time was enjoyed by all. The party consisted of Mrs. Ansley Rogers, the Misses Alice McIntosh, Sadie Weeks, Helen Shea, Winnie McLean, and Lillian Rimes, and the Messrs. Ansley Rogers, Arthur Kelly, Thomas Driscoll, Wm. Buckley and Richard Sullivan.

Though the navy bill received a parliamentary majority of 30 it was in a popular minority of 2,000. The 114 men who voted for the second reading of the bill represent 2,000 fewer electors than the 84 members who voted against the second reading. This is regarded as remarkable in view of the fact that one man who voted with the government represents two ridings. This is Sir Rodolphe Forget. The Liberals represent the big ridings.

Dr. and Mrs. F. Hanna, Regina, Sask., announce the marriage of their daughter Muriel Agnes to William P. Hill, on Thursday evening, February 6th, at Regina. Mr. Hill, who is a printer, worked in Woodstock some four years ago, leaving here for the West. He is now owner and editor of the Lethbridge Herald, Sask. For a time he was foreman of the mechanical department of the Lethbridge News, and Secretary-treasurer of the company. The Sentinel extends congratulations to the young couple with best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

At the annual town meeting in Houlton, next Monday, the town will be asked to adopt the following ordinance: "Any person who offers or exposes for sale on the streets of Houlton any firewood, shall not deliver the same to the purchaser, unless otherwise agreed to by the purchaser, until the same has been measured by a sworn surveyor and a ticket signed by him and given to the seller stating the quantity that the load contains the name of the seller and the town in which he resides, said ticket to be delivered to purchaser, upon delivery of the wood. The penalty—Whoever violates any of the provisions of the foregoing ordinance shall be punished by a fine, not exceeding $20 for each offense, recoverable on complaint before the Judge of the Houlton Municipal Court."—Houlton Times. It is said that Woodstock has a law similar to this. If it were enforced it would serve, in a large measure, to solve the problem of the high cost of living.

Old Folks' Coughs Permanently Cured

THE PUBLIC IS LOUD IN ITS PRAISE OF THE MODERN DIRECT BREATHING CURE.

Elderly people take cold easily. Unlike young folks, they recover slowly, if ever. That is why so many people past middle life die of pneumonia. Even though pneumonia does not develop and kill, coughs certainly weaken all elderly people.

Cough Syrup seldom does much good because they upset digestion. Any druggist or doctor knows that a much more effective treatment is "CATARRHOZONE," which heals and soothes the irritated surfaces of the throat.

In using Catarrhzone you do not take medicine into the stomach—you simply breathe into the throat, nose and lungs rich piney balsamic vapor, so full of healing power that colds, catarrh and bronchitis disappear almost instantly.

"At sixty-eight years of age I can testify that I am never troubled with coughs or colds," writes J. E. Pilgrim, of Kingston. "They used to be the bane of my life, and that was before I used Catarrhzone, which was recommended to me by C. L. Prouse, druggist. To use Catarrhzone is just like being in an immense pine woods. The balsamic vapor of Catarrhzone is like a tonic, it is so stimulating to the breathing organs, so soothing to sore spots, so full of power to drive out colds and congestion. I will always use and recommend Catarrhzone as a preventive and cure for coughs, colds, bronchitis, throat irritation and catarrh."

(Signed) "J. E. PILGRIM." A Catarrhzone Inhaler in your pocket or purse enables you to stop a cold with the first sneeze. Large size costs $1.00 and supplies treatment for two months; small size, 50c.; trial size 25c.; all storekeepers and druggists, or The Catarrhzone Co., Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston, Canada.

THE EASTER FESTIVAL

One of the beautiful things about this Easter festival of ours is the fact that it unites in itself so many different kinds of religious observances, says The Woman's Home Companion. It connects itself very closely, of course, with the Jewish faith; for the New Testament tells us that Jesus was crucified and rose from the dead at the time of the Passover feast; and the early Christians, who for a long time kept observing the Jewish feasts, by and by turned the feast of the Passover into the feast of the Resurrection. That is why the Christian Easter and the Jewish Passover always come together. The names by which Easter is still known in many languages bear witness to this fact; in French it is called Pasques; in Spanish Pascua; in Italian Pasqua; in Dutch Paasch. In central New York in my boyhood the local name of the day was Pass ("pass," we used to call it), which was no doubt a corruption of the Dutch name. All these names are transliterations of the Hebrew name of the Passover.

"JOYOUS NEWS, GOOD TIDINGS."

If you look into the face of humanity on Easter Day, and listen to its accents, and watch its movements, wherever the message of Easter has been spoken, you know that it is joyful news, good tidings. The pealing bells, the jubilant songs, the churches and the homes bright with the flowers of spring, the festive garments, the whole costume and utterance of Christendom, show that the word that had been spoken is a word of cheer, a word of hope, a summons to rejoicing. Is not this, in itself, a great achievement? To fill the heart of the world with a great hope and an unselfish joy, is not that a great good, that Jesus the Christ has done all this for the world no man can deny.

There is reason in this rejoicing. It is the truth that Easter tells that makes the whole earth glad. What is this truth? It is the truth that there is life beyond the grave. To the perfect man there is no death and in every man there is a spiritual principle over which death has no power. This has been the unquenchable hope of mankind in all the ages, and the resurrection of Christ gives to this hope a great confirmation.

THE MOST NATURAL THING

"Why," cries the great apostle, "should it be thought a thing incredible that God should raise the dead?" It seems to me the most natural thing in the world, provided that Nature is the outcome of a loving Will. Why should not the gracious Providence who watches over the world and guides its destinies in the track of righteousness fling into the dark of time this spark of light divine to kindle hope in the hearts of His children? It was in the darkest hour of history that this star arose; it was when the Greek and Roman civilizations were falling to pieces through their own corruption, and the Pagan mythologies had lost their hold on the human intellect; when skepticism and despair were almost universal. Surely, if there is a good Father in Heaven, and if it is true that he has life for his children beyond the grave, and if this is the very truth for lack of which they are sinking in despair, he will find some way of revealing it to them. Thus the story of Easter Day appears to me sublimely probable.

What old Hakluyt tells us about friends greeting each other with happy faces on Easter morning, telling each other the Lord is risen in death, and embracing each other in the love that springs from a common gladness—this tells the whole story of Easter. Life is the heart of it, joy is the bloom of it, love is the fruit of it.

Beat up a new-laid egg well in a breakfast cup till it is quite frothy, then fill up the cup with either tea or coffee, adding milk and sugar to taste. To a delicate person there is much more nourishment in a cup of tea or coffee made in this way than if taken plain.
