

Couldn't Get Strong

DIGESTIVE AND LIVER TROUBLE CURED.

"I was never actually sick," writes Mrs. La Pierre, wife of a well-known resident of Labenine, "yet I never could get strong like other women. I ate well enough, but somehow blood rich and red I could never make. When I married I took a great pride in my housekeeping but it kept me tired all the time. Mrs. Lechance, my neighbor, looked well—she told me her health had been made by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I only thought of pills as a physic, but now I know that Dr. Hamilton's Pills are more, for they quickened my stomach, liver and bowels—made me stouter and stronger, gave me such color in my cheeks as I never had before. They do good to parts in ways I need not mention in this letter, but I sincerely believe Dr. Hamilton's Pills should be used at regular intervals by every woman—that's why I write this letter."

No medicine invigorates a woman like Dr. Hamilton's Pills. 25c. per box, all dealers, or The Catarrh-zone Co., Kingston, Canada.

Overfeeding of Horses

"Thousands of horses die from overfeeding to one that dies of starvation. The average horse gets too much to eat, particularly too much roughage. Most farmers think it cruel if they enter the stable at any time and find the horse's manger empty. If a horse can work from 6 till 11 without eating today, why can't he stand idle the same time tomorrow without food? If it is before him, of course, he will eat, but his stomach is not getting a rest."

"No horse, working or idle, should be fed more food than he can eat in an hour and a half at the most, preferably an hour. I haven't fed ten pounds of whole hay at noon in twenty years. I get good results from one gallon of rolled oats as I did from the same quantity of whole oats. I always drive at a fair pace, and I have never yet had one of my horses become washy from the use of rolled oats, and this is the general objection to them. Dr. Grenside of the Guelph Cartage Company tells me that he has not one case of colic reported now, when formerly he had ten when feeding whole oats."—Dr. J. H. Reel of Guelph, at Trafalgar Fair banquet, Oakville.

Revising the Prayer Book

WORK IS SAID TO BE ONE OF ABRIDGEMENT, AND DOES NOT TOUCH DOCTRINE.

Ottawa, Feb. 6.—A task the nature of which will be of interest to all members of the Anglican Church of Canada, is proceeding quietly under the care of a committee which is holding meetings from time to time at different centres, and which recently met at Quebec. It is the revision of the Book of Common Prayer.

The Archbishop of Ottawa states that the work is in the hands of a very conservative committee, and there will be no tampering with doctrine or church polity.

The Archbishop is reported to have added that the principal modification will be in the direction of abridging the form of service. But even in this abridgement there will probably be permissive rather than actual exclusion of existing matter, the choice to be left to the discretion of the officiating clergy.

The revision committee was appointed at the meeting of the last General Synod, held in 1911, and it is composed of representative clergy from all parts of the Dominion. In undertaking such revision, the Canadian Church is acting in harmony with the home Church, and the Rev. Dr. Hamilton stated that the Canadian Committee would avail itself of the experience and findings of the English committee on many points.

The report of the revision committee will be presented to the General Synod in 1914.

Perfumes Must be Individual

SO THIS SEASON THE SMART WOMAN IS FASTIDIOUS IN THE CHOICE AND USE OF TOILET SCENTS.

Individual perfumes are a fad of the season. They are worn in the form of sachets tucked into the gown or hidden in the hair, or they may consist of one of the numerous essences sold in the shops and which may be sprayed over the person. The perfume may be dissolved in the waters of the bath and incorporated in the soap. A philosopher said he could tell a woman's character by the perfume she chose.

There seem to be off and on seasons for perfumes. This is distinctly a perfume season. Their vogue may be due to the emphasis placed on everything oriental. Oriental scents, if they are attractive, are preferred to the finest achievements of the French perfumers' art.

Fortunate is the woman who can secure a rare and fine brand of attar of roses.

Although the range of choice is necessarily limited an odd perfume, if attractive, is preferred by the smart woman.

While many women select a favorite among perfumes and hold to it, sometimes a woman enjoys having several kinds at hand, using one or another as the fancy pleases her. If she is of this class let her carefully remove all trace of the first scent before she touches the second, even to the extent of changing any garments on which this may be, for though she cannot notice that it exists, if she comes into a very warm atmosphere the aroma of the two will be decidedly unpleasant.

It is considered correct to have one's extract and toilet water match, but face powder and soap and often brilliantine must carry the same scent. This is a most satisfactory idea in line with common sense.

It is necessary to guard against the stains that extracts and even toilet waters leave on gowns. Never dash them on the outer side of the costume, for the effect is regrettable.

Perfumed accessories to the bath are delightful. Among the most important of these are bath powders.

There is a very pleasing bath powder, pink in color, which softens the skin and has a most wholesome effect as well as perfumes the water. Bath powders are naturally not to be added to the water in which one bathes the face, nor is pure alcohol, except in the rarest instances of an exceedingly oily skin.

Soaps which harmonize with the odors of the bath must be chosen, and among these plain castile or glycerin soaps are to be preferred, as these are practically without scent.

The perfumed bath is not only agreeable, but if properly managed is really stimulating.

For those who love to spray the hair with perfume the best to choose is the lily of the valley or violet. It may be had in the nonalcoholic grade, though this is not practical for spraying the hair. Due allowance must be made for the drying out which follows the use of perfume in this way on account of the alcohol which it contains.

The spraying is always done with the ordinary atomizer. There is a new one to be had with a lock in the neck which absolutely prevents any leakage. This can be put in the traveling bag or handbag.

Sachets of ribbon in the color of the gown are attached to the inside of evening gowns. The dainty flowers of ribbon and lace are often very ingenious sachets. The hair may be perfumed by lining the wide bands sometimes worn and filling these with sachet powder.

TO HAVE SMOOTH WHITE

SOFT SKIN ALL WINTER

(From The Woman Beautiful)

Does your skin chap or roughen easily in this weather, or become unduly red or blotchy? Let me tell you a quick, easy way to overcome the trouble and keep your complexion beautifully white, smooth and soft the winter long. Just get an ounce of ordinary mercerized wax at the nearest drug store and use a little before retiring, as you would cold cream. Upon arising, remove the coating with sudsy water. The wax, through some peculiar attitude, flecks off the rough, discolored or blemished skin. The worn-out cuticle comes off just like dandruff on a diseased scalp, only in almost invisible particles. Mercerized wax simply hastens Nature's work. Used as required, it keeps the face constantly free from dehydrated scarf skin and only the healthy, young-looking skin is in evidence. It's the best treatment known for weather beaten, aged, muddy, freckled, pimpled and all unbecoming complexions.

Some skins wrinkle easily in winter. There's an excellent remedy in a harmless wash lotion made by dissolving 1 oz powdered saxonite in 1-2 pint witch hazel. This will quickly eradicate every line.

SORES FROM ELBOWS TO FINGERS

ZAM-BUK WORMED A MIRACLE OF HEALING.

REVEREND GENTLEMAN FULLY CORROBORATES

Miss Kate L. Dolliver, of Caledonia, Queen's Co., N. S., says: "I must add my testimony to the value of Zam-Buk. Ulcers and sores broke out on my arm, and although I tried to heal them by using various preparations, nothing seemed to do me any good. The sores spread until from my fingers to elbow was one mass of ulceration."

"I had five different doctors, and faithfully carried out their instructions. I drank pint after pint of blood medicine, tried salve after salve, and lotion after lotion; but it was of no avail."

"My father then took me thirty miles to see a well-known doctor. He photographed the arm and hand. This photograph was sent to a New York hospital to the specialist; but they sent word they could do nothing further for me, and I was in despair."

"One day a friend asked me if I had tried Zam-Buk. I said I had not, but I got a box right away. That first box did me more good than all the medicine I had tried up to that time, so I continued the treatment. Every box healed the sores more and more, until, to make a long story short, Zam-Buk healed all the sores completely. Everybody in this place knows of my case, and that it is Zam-Buk alone which cured me."

Minister corroborates.—The Rev. W. B. M. Parker, of Caledonia, Miss Dolliver's minister, writes: "This is to certify that the testimonial of Miss Dolliver is correct as far as my knowledge goes. I have known her for a year and a half, and her cure effected by Zam-Buk is remarkable."

Wherever there is ulceration, blood-poison, sores, cold-cracks, abscesses, cuts, burns, bruises, or any skin injury or disease, these Zam-Buk should be applied. It is also a sure cure for piles. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. per box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse cheap and harmful imitations and substitutes.

School for Girls

Medicine Hat, Feb. 26.—Under the auspices of the Methodist church, and with assistance from the Alberta government to the extent of thirty three thousand dollars, a large industrial school for girls, costing one hundred thousand dollars will probably be erected near here in the very near future.

A new school building is to be erected at Sussex, N.B. near the one at present there. One of the main features is the fact that it will be a practical school of vocations giving attention to agriculture, domestic science, manual training, and other such educational interests.

For Croupy Children

Keep 'Nerviline' Handy

It Positively Brings Children Out of Danger and Relieves at Once

A MOTHER TELLS HER EXPERIENCE.

"Bringing up young children has its responsibilities under the best of circumstances," writes Mrs. E. G. Fagan, of Holmes' Corners, "but croupy colds add considerably to the worry. My little family of four all went through the croupy era, but I always had Nerviline at hand and never felt nervous. I just followed the directions, and I can tell you that nothing I know of is surer to cure croupy colds than Nerviline."

"In our home we use Nerviline frequently. For cold in the chest, pleurisy, hoarseness, etc., it is simply wonderful. My husband uses it for rheumatism, and I often employ it for neuralgic and sick headache. Nerviline has so many uses that no mother can afford to be without it."

The large family size bottle, which sells at 50c., is the most economical; trial size 25c. Your storekeeper or druggist sells Nerviline, which is prepared by The Catarrh-zone Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Miller's Worm Powders are complete in themselves. They not only drive worms from the system, but repair the damage that worms cause and so invigorate the constitution that it speedily recovers from the disorders of the digestion that are the result of the work of these parasitic intruders. They do their work thoroughly and strength and soundness follow their use.

A Porch Umbrella-holder.—I screwed a towel-rack, such as is used in the bathroom, to the side of the house about thirty inches from the porch floor. During rainy weather the umbrellas can be placed behind this rod, and will not be blown away. A shallow tray of zinc is put underneath to catch the drip.

THE LAST ASTHMA ATTACK may really be the last one if prompt measures are taken. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy will safeguard you. It will penetrate to the smallest bronchial passage and bring about a healthy condition. It always relieves and its continued use often effects a permanent cure. Why not get this long-famous remedy today and commence its use? Inhaled as smoke or vapor it is equally effective.

To Mend Plaid Materials.—Take several shades of silk together in one needle when mending plaids, stripes, mixtures or checks, using colors harmonizing with the predominating tones of the material. Darn neatly and press carefully; the mended place will hardly show.

A THOROUGH PILL.—To clear the stomach and bowels of impurities and irritants is necessary when their action is irregular. The pills that will do this work thoroughly are Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which are mild in action but mighty in results. They purge painlessly and effectively and work a permanent cure. They can be used without fear by the most delicately constituted, as there are no painful effects preceding their gentle operation.

Baby's Travelling bed.—If necessary to travel with a wee baby, try fixing up a wicker telescope for baby's bed. The lower part can be arranged ready for a bed, while into the upper part can be strapped baby's other belongings. When on the train put the lower half into the upper half and tuck baby in.

How beautiful our town would look if everybody would buy those splendid Ramsay's Paints for sale by A. E. Connes! They seem to be made to give just that touch of finish every house requires.

When Far From a Jeweller.—If your eye-glasses are constantly out of order because the tiny screws which hold bows or nose-pieces in place get loosened, try tightening with a penknife or machice screw-driver, and then applying a drop of mullage or glue to the ends of the screws. Let dry before using glasses and take care that none of the mullage gets on the lens or elsewhere, save on the screws.

A POWERFUL MEDICINE.—The healing properties in five essential oils are concentrated in every bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, forming one of the most beneficial liniments ever offered to the use of man. Thousands can testify as to its power in allaying pain and many thousands more can certify that they owe their health to it. Its wonderful power is not expressed by its cheapness.

To Improve Boiled Frosting.—When making boiled frosting, I left it a little too long on the stove, and, as usual, it was rough and brittle. I added a piece of butter the size of a walnut while beating it, and it became smooth and creamy, with a deliciously rich flavor.

SENTENCED TO IMMEDIATE DEATH.

It happens every time you treat a corn with "Putnam's"—Corn dies—never returns. Nothing so certain and painless as Putnam's Corn Extractor—try it. Fifty years' success guarantees its merit. 25c. bottles at all dealers.

Soaking Salt Fish.—Many cooks do not know that salt fish may be soaked and refreshed in half the time if it is turned skin side up in the water than when placed flesh side up. Salt settles to the bottom always and cannot go through the thick, impervious skin.

Wise mothers who know the virtues of Mother Graves' Worm Expeller always have it at hand, because it proves its value.

One who understands the art of cooking poultry says that the wing is the test of the bird; if that is tender when pierced with a fork the bird has been cooked long enough.

When Holloway's Corn Cure is applied to a corn or wart it kills the roots and the callosity comes out without injury to the flesh.
