

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. Albion Foster was in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Scott, Meductic, were in town last week.

Mr. M. McDade, the well-known insurance man, was here last week for a few days.

Married—On Dec. 4 at Howard Brook, the residence of the bride's parents, George Campbell and Miss Ruth Clark.

Arthur M. Blackie, who has been living in Dawson City, Yukon, for the past fifteen years, is spending the winter with relatives in Carleton county.

Nehemiah Estabrooks died at Limerick, Me., on Sunday at the age of 88. He was formerly a resident of Rockland and was an uncle of the late Mrs. George R. Burt. There are many other relatives in the vicinity—Observer.

Frederick Gleaner, Mr. F. B. Carvell, M. P., Woodstock, is here today in connection with the probating of the will of the late Mr. W. T. Whitehead. The value of the estate as set forth in the probate papers will likely be about $100,000.

The Owens family removed to Woodstock last week and are comfortably settled in their new home. R. B. Owens returned on Tuesday from Woodstock where he had been assisting his mother and sisters in getting straightened around—Observer.

A certain kind of beer "made Milwaukee famous." Another certain kind made Presque Isle and its deputy sheriff, Robie Everett, famous a week or two ago, when Mr. Everett, after due legal process, spilled into the sewer 87 barrels of beer seized by him from time to time during the past few months. Such a sight must have been trying on the eyes, nerves and stomachs of some of the poor thirsty fellows who saw the "rolling process go on so merrily."—Fort Fairfield Review.

D. W. Corey, the potato buyer, estimates that in the neighborhood of 9,000,000 bushels of potatoes have gone out of Aroostook county up to the present time. This would represent about 45 per cent. of the total crop and Mr. Corey thinks that fully one-half will be moved by January 1. This is an unusually large amount for the first three months of the shipping season. On this basis of reasoning, while it is the best policy to keep the crop moving, there is no danger of any slump later in the season, and that there is no need of crowding the market too hard.

W. F. Thornton has completed the finest dining room in Carleton Co., and is now catering to the C. P. R. dinner trade. The room is 24x40 feet and is divided by a beautiful arch. The seating capacity is equal to all demands that may be made, but for the present tables are set each day for 36 people. The room is light, well ventilated and warmed, and the furniture and decorations are equal to those found in the large city hotels. The meals served rank with the best, and Mr. Thornton will be able to continue serving "the best 50-cent meal on the St. John river."—Hartland Observer.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

New officers have been attached to the local Salvation Army Corps.

H. E. and Mrs. H. W. Grant wish to thank the public for the way in which they have extended their sympathy to us in our bereavement.

The Rev. M. T. Murphy, of Debec, who has been in St. John for several weeks receiving medical treatment, has returned home much improved in health.

N. D. Napier, who recently purchased a farm of 250 acres near Woodstock, has received from Ontario an importation of Hampshire Down sheep, and will specialize on raising sheep, Clydesdale horses and fruit, chiefly apples. Mr. Napier is a Scotchman, but has spent eight years in Canada, and took a course at the Truro Agricultural College.

In Canterbury, several days ago, a valuable cocker spaniel belonging to H. N. Grant was poisoned, and this week dogs belonging to Andrew Depow and Wm. Cunningham suffered the same fate. There have been several occurrences of this kind during the past summer from which it is inferred that Canterbury harbors fully as mean a man as the person who pilfered butter at Southampton last week when the owner was absent at his wife's funeral.

An appeal is made to the Acadicians of New Brunswick, through the Monteur Acadien, by Mr. Justice Landry for assistance for Mr. Urbain Johnson, whose home has been sold under the hammer recently, and who suffers under the weight of years. The appeal points out that Mr. Johnson was one of the first Acadician members of the legislature, and that his patriotism was never in doubt. The Monteur Acadien acknowledges the receipt of $63. Mr. Johnson, who is in his 90th year, was elected to the House of Assembly by Kent county in 1869, 1874, 1878, 1896, 1899 and 1903. He lives at St. Louis.

The first official statement from the Provincial Department of Public Works for 1913 indicates a steady increase in the number of automobiles in use in New Brunswick. The number of cars registered in the province during the present year was 822 as compared with 600 in 1912, while there were 41 motor cycles registered as compared with 15 in 1912—almost three times as many as last year. With the increased number of registered cars and motor cycles and licensed chauffeurs there has been an increase in the department's receipts under the Motor Vehicle Law. In 1912 about $8,400 was received from this source, while this year the receipts will be about $3,000 more and will pass the $11,000 mark.

The Money Order, Savings Bank and Postage Stamp Department of the Woodstock Post Office will be open from now until Christmas until 9 p. m., and during Christmas week up to Christmas Day the delivery window will be open until 9 p. m. Owing to the mail being late and very large, making the time short before the dispatch of the next mail, the postmaster would like the public, as far as possible, to transact their business in the mornings between 10 and 12 and in the evenings between 7 and 9 o'clock.

OBITUARY

The passing away of Miss Una Lawson, which occurred Dec. 3rd, came as a great surprise to her many friends and relatives of Plaster Rock. Miss Lawson a few days before her death contracted a heavy cold, pneumonia setting in, she only lasted a few hours. Not until two days before her death were hopes given entirely up. All that medical aid and kind friends could do was of no effect, she passed away in the 21st year of her age.

She leaves to mourn her loss: father, mother, two sisters, Mrs. Armstrong, Greenfield, Car. Co., and Mrs. James Dill who is at present living with Mrs. Armstrong, three brothers at home, besides a host of friends and relatives.

Mrs. J. Fuller of Newton, N. H., Mrs. Ervine, Mr. Richard Smith and daughter Evelyn of Caribou, Me., George W. Henderson, Easton, Me., and Alex Henderson of Andover, relatives of Miss Lawson, were present at the funeral.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, and was the largest ever seen along the Tobique River. Miss Lawson was a member of the "Rebekah Lodge", and also a member of the "Ladies Orange Benevolent Association" of Plaster Rock, holding important offices in both lodges. She was buried under the direction of these societies. She was a christian young woman and sang in the Baptist choir. Her pastor, Rev. C. S. Young, spoke words of comfort at the church at Three Brooks, from Rev. 22-4, "And they shall see his face, and his name shall be in their foreheads". Rev's. A. Whiteside (Meth.) and F. C. Burnette, assisted in the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawson have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community. (Other papers copy.)

Miss May Clarke, the former Western Union Telegraph Operator here, who went west some months ago, has been transferred from Watrous, Sask., to Yorkton, Saskatchewan, the former office being closed.

If you are in doubt about that present consult the advertising columns of the Sentinel.

WHY?

Do about all the Prime Furs come to me? Because I pay the most money.

I will pay prices as set forth in "Family Herald" issue of December 10th, page 24.

Any house sending out higher prices than these will cheat you. Did you ever hear of my cheating or failing to pay any one?

Send in a small lot, even a couple of weasels, and I see what you receive. Packages up to 2 lbs. by mail, larger ones by Express.

I will return Furs free of expenses if my prices do not suit. Cash for live Bears, Mink, Fisher, Patch or Cross Foxes.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Ida Whipple Benham
"What did you get for Christmas?"
"Oh, nothing much," he said,
"Nothing but a picture book,
And a pair of skates and a sled,
And a new fur cap, and a muffler,
And a train of cars, and a ball,
And a top, and a game, and engine,
And some candy, that was all."
"What did you get for Christmas?"
"Oh, lots of things!" said he;
"We had a duck for dinner,
And we had a Christmas tree.
And we made some pop-corn candy,
Enough for every one,
And we lit a candle on the tree—
Oh, we had lots of fun.
And Mabel got a dolly,
And Ralph a rubber ball,
And the baby got a cradle-quilt,
And I just enjoyed them all."

FRENCHMAN HEIR TO SHARE

OF $20,000,000!
Horace Morin, aged 60 years, of Kingsclear, an old country Frenchman and now a cook in the New Brunswick lumber woods, is one of a small number of heirs to an estate in France which is valued as high as $32,000,000.

Mr. Morin has spent his winters ever since he has been around here in the lumber woods engaged as a cook. This fall he went to the Upper St. John river district and is employed as cook at a camp in the woods there. He is a bachelor and so far as can be learned the estate to which he is an heir is valued at about $32,000,000. The estate is in France and is said to have been left by a brother of the grandmother of Mr. Morin, who is one of less than twenty heirs. It is said Mr. Morin's share will be not less than $2,000,000, and perhaps considerably more.

CHRISTMAS CANDY.

Cocoonut Fudge:—Three cupsful of light brown sugar, a pinch of salt, a pinch of soda, one teaspoonful vanilla, butter size of an egg, one box of cocoanut, and sweet cream enough to mix well. Mix the sugar with the cream and let come to a boil, then add the soda and salt; boil a few minutes, then put in the butter and cocoanut, and add the vanilla just before taking off. Cook until a drop will not spread on paper, then remove from the fire and beat stiff.

Turkish Delight:—Soak one ounce of sheet gelatine in one-half cup of water for two hours. Boil two cups of granulated sugar in one-half cup of water; when boiling add the soaked gelatine and boil twenty minutes. Flavor with rind or juice of an orange and lemon. Pour the mixture into a buttered pan set in cold water. When cool cut in squares and roll in fruit or icing sugar.
