PERTH.

Enoch Lovely, one of the oldest and most respected residents, passed away Sunday afternoon after a few weeks illness which he bore very patiently. Shortly after his arrival in California in January he consulted a specialist and learned that he had cancer on his face, whereupon his health began to fail him rapidly, and he expressed his desire to return home to New Brunswick. He arrived home about three weeks ago, and has been sinking gradually until death relieved him from his suffering Sunday. Mr. Lovely was a man of sterling qualities, honest and upright in his dealings, a great temperance man. He was well known all over, as he was proprietor of the hotel here for a number of years, now owned by Mason Johnston. He leaves to mourn a widow and a large circle of other relatives and friends. His age was 82 years. We extend sympathy to the mourning ones.

James Winters of Scotch Colony died at the home of James Anderson Friday afternoon after suffering a paralytic stroke a few days before. He was removed to his home Saturday morning for burial.

Robert Doak of Beaconsfield met with a painful accident Monday. When driving through the village his horse became frightened of the derelict used by the Dominion Bridge Company in their bridge work, and he was thrown violently from his wagon, striking on the corner of C. L. Olmstead's platform. He sustained a few bruises on the face and leg and was picked up unconscious.

Conductor B. C. Palmer is relieving Conductor Colwell for a few days on the Tobique express. The latter is visiting at his home in Fredericton.

D. W. Burns, manager of the Bank of Montreal, left Friday for Montreal. He was tendered a banquet at Johnson's Hotel, Wednesday night, by several friends. A very enjoyable time was spent by those present.

Mrs. Percy Sisson left for Woodstock Saturday to bring her husband Engineer Percy Sisson, home from the hospital. It will be remembered Mr. Sisson was injured in the railway accident January 20, when William Muckler lost his life. Percy's many friends will be glad to have him home again.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Do you want that Piano?
Get busy and it is yours.

Mr. C. F. Stetson, of the Aroostook Pioneer, spent Sunday in town. The Sentinel representative writing from Edmundston last week reports a snow storm of quite large dimensions in that district.

Mr. C. D. Richards, Fredericton, was in town last week.

Rev. J. A. McLuckie, of Hampton, has accepted a call to the Baptist Church at Florenceville, Car. Co., and commences upon his new duties June 1st.

Services at the Advent Christian church next Sunday as follows: 10 a. m., Prayer service. 11 a. m., Preaching. Subject: "The Serpent Behind the Hedge." 12 a. m., Sunday school. 7 p. m., Sermon. Topic: "Heaven and the Rewards of the Righteous."

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sherwood of Centerville have returned from California, where they spent the winter. Percy Sisson who has been in the hospital from the effects of a railway accident Jan. 20, when Wm. Muckler lost his life, has returned to his home in Perth.

Hon. James Steadman, retired Judge of the County Court for the Counties of York, Sunbury and Queens, and at one time Postmaster General of New Brunswick, died Friday morning at the ripe old age of 95 at the residence of Mrs. Henry Chestnut, Fredericton.

Joseph Strecht, who travels under various names, and is wanted in several places in Maine for passing worthless checks, also in Kalamazoo Mich., was arrested early this week at Fort Kent. The police officials of Kalamazoo have offered a reward of $400 for this fellow's arrest and conviction. At least it is thought that this Strecht is the man wanted.

Fort Fairfield Review. (Perhaps this is Payson who operated in Woodstock.)

The Carleton county farmers are now shipping potatoes to the Boston market but are receiving about 75 cents a barrel less for them than the farmers of Aroostook get. The difference is the amount of the duty.—Observer.

Last week Ed McKay of Connell was operated on for appendicitis at the home of his father, Andrew McKay, Florenceville. Drs. Brown and McIntosh were the operating surgeons. The patient was in a very serious condition but is making a good recovery. Miss Cunningham of Canterbury is the nurse in charge. Mr. McKay is about 30 years old and has a wife and one child.

Houlton is to try the experiment this year of sprinkling some of its streets with oil to keep the dust down. It thinks the sprinkling will be expensive but highly satisfactory.

Potatoes are bringing about $1.50 as a standard price the past few days, although a few cents more have been paid in some instances. Hardly any are coming in.—Fort Fairfield Review.

Harry Hartland, formerly of Woodstock, but who for some time past has resided in this city, was arrested this morning by acting Sergeant Belliveau on the charge of stealing two penny banks from a family residing on the Salisbury Road, Hartland, who is a ticket-of-leave man, having been sentenced to two years' imprisonment in the Dorchester Penitentiary, but on account of good behaviour he was let out after serving a year of his sentence on parole. He was supposed to report to police headquarters each month, but he did not do this. Chief Rideout communicated with Ottawa, and it is likely he will be sent back to Dorchester to serve out his term.—Moncton Transcript.

It is astonishing how easy it is to make a little house look big and bright and beautiful. So many have done it by simply touching them up with Ramsay's Paints—the premier paints of Canada. Ask A. E. Jones to show you Ramsay's Paints.
