LOCAL AND GENERAL

A quantity of liquor was seized at the railway station last week.

Cubs vs Athletics at Connelly Park, May 12th. Game at 7 o'clock sharp. Quite a large quantity of show print and seized by Customs Officers Thursday night while in transit from Houlton.

A large amount of local and other matter is crowded out of this issue by the great demand for advertising space.

A man fell from a load of hay near Dickinson's hotel, Friday, and the wheels passed over him injuring him quite severely, but no bones were broken.

A number of hoboes who have been lurking around the railway track were ordered out of town on Friday by Chief Kelly and lost no time in carrying out the order.

The attention of our readers is directed to the special sale of shoes going on at Bailey Bros. The ad. in this issue reveals some great bargains in foot-wear.

The Board of Health requests a general cleaning up of premises in town. All rubbish will be carted away Saturday, 10th inst, for those not having teams.

Staff Captain and Mrs. Coombs will conduct revival services at the Salvation Army Barracks this Sunday (May 11), to which everyone is cordially invited.

Mr. Willard Baldwin, Manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, at Centreville, spent Sunday in town, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Phillips.

The Royal Gazette announces the following appointments: County of Carleton—E. Raban Vince, Woodstock, to be a commissioner for taking affidavits to be read in the Supreme Court. George R. Smith, Lakeville, to be auctioneer.

Mrs. A. T. Grant, President of the Rebekah Assembly of the Maritime Provinces, will visit Brunswick Rebekah Lodge, No. 44, on Tuesday evening, May 13. A full attendance of the members is requested. A degree will be conferred on five candidates.

Local buyers are paying $1.30 per barrel for potatoes and some farmers are clearing up before planting, as the roads are much improved over last week. G. F. Snow says the shipments of potatoes by the Bangor & Aroostook Railway in April amounted to 1,373,555 bushels, making the total up to May 1 from the crop of 1912, 10,997,789 bushels.—Houlton Times.

Michael Fanning of Lower Wakefield was burnt out on April 28th and lost his savings of a lifetime—the house and contents, single and double wagon, horse, hoe and several other articles. Many friends in town and county are assisting him and any help given will be thankfully received.

An appeal is being made for funds to raise a National Memorial to the late Field-Marshal Sir George White, who took part in seven campaigns from the Indian mutiny to the South African war. He was on the active list of the army for nearly fifty-nine years. Donations will be received and acknowledged, by the Bank of Montreal.

H. Price Webber, the popular show man and his excellent company, will be at the Hayden-Gibson theatre Saturday evening, May 24th, in the new play "A Queen for a Day." Mr. Webber is an old favorite and has made a great name for himself as an actor-manager. He will no doubt be greeted by a full house.

The department was called out Wednesday night at 11.45 for a fire on Richmond street. It apparently caught in the barn back of the residence of John Arnold. The barn and all of the horses were totally destroyed and the main house badly damaged. Two horses in the barn were saved, as well as most of the household effects.

DAYTON ACKNOWLEDGES WITH GRATITUDE RECEIPT OF MONEY FOR RELIEF OF SUFFERERS

Dayton, Ohio, May 1, 1913. Hon. W. P. Jones, Mayor, Woodstock, N. B.

Dear Sir: We acknowledged with deep gratitude your letter of April 28 enclosing draft for the relief of the flood sufferers in this city.

In the name of all of the afflicted people of Dayton we thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

Such an expression of practical sympathy touches us deeply. Dayton has been visited by a dreadful calamity and is passing through a dark period in her history, yet we are not dismayed, as the love of humanity shown by our friends and sister cities throughout the length and breadth of the land has cheered us greatly and fills us with hope of a newer, bigger and better Dayton.

Be assured that the offering of the citizens of Woodstock, so freely given, will be carefully administered and used to relieve the greatest possible amount of distress.

Very sincerely,
DAYTON CITIZENS' RELIEF COMMITTEE.

W. F. BIPPUS, Secy-Treas.
