

TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the Sentinel
December 9th, 1893

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Winslow have returned from their trans-Atlantic trip.

The U. S. Consul, Greenville James, is back again from his visit to Washington.

Thane Jones had to forego his studies and came home from Sackville to recuperate his health. He expects to be able to return shortly.

The many friends of Mrs. Joseph Fever, will be pleased to learn that she has so far recovered from her severe attack of Typhoid Fever as to be about the house.

J. J. Elder, formerly of Woodstock, arrived at Liverpool on Nov. 20th. After visiting London he will spend two months or more at his mother's residence, near Castleknock, Ireland.

Mr. Michael F. Quinn, a Woodstock boy, where he was born in 1856, has just received the Democratic nomination for postmaster of the City of Malden, Mass., where he resides with his mother. Mr. Quinn is by trade a book binder; at present he is an advertising agent.

Leonard Kinney of Canaan, Kent Parish, met with a serious accident last week. His hand was caught in the beater of a threshing machine and fearfully mashed. Dr. Atkinson was called and found amputation of the arm, below the elbow, necessary which he skillfully performed.

And still the good work continues in the Albert Street Baptist Church. Each evening the church is crowded by anxious worshippers, and many happy converts are rejoicing in the blessed experience of salvation. On Sunday, the pastor, Rev. A. F. Baker, baptized seven candidates and received nine into the fellowship of the church.

A Part Fairfield correspondent writes: C. C. Rogers has just added to his comfort and convenience with great satisfaction, a Spence Daisy Boiler, for heating his store and dwelling by hot water circulation. It has attached to it 270 feet of main pipe, together with sixteen coils and radiators, which all work to perfection. The labor was performed in six days by Fewer Bros., of Woodstock, N. B., which is a credit to those enterprising young Plumbers and Hot Water Fitters. The Heater is well named—The Daisy.

The weather Tuesday evening was not favorable for holding a public meeting, and still there was a fair audience present at the Missionary meeting in the Methodist church on that evening. The pastor, Rev. Thos. Marshall, presided. After singing, prayer by Rev. G. M. Young, reading a portion of scripture by Rev. T. L. Williams and brief remarks from the chairman, Rev. Mr. Saunby was introduced who proceeded to relate his experience as a Missionary in Japan. Mr. Saunby gave a very interesting description of the country, its resources and the peculiar habits of its people; told of the progress and results of Missionary work there and closed with a fervid appeal for increased contributions to the Missionary fund.

HAIR HINTS

WORTHY THE ATTENTION OF PEOPLE WHO WISH TO PRESERVE THE HAIR.

Always have your own brush and comb at home or at hair dresser's. Never use a brush or comb found in public places, they are usually covered with dandruff germs.

Wash your hair brush weekly with soap and warm water to which may be added an antiseptic.

Shampoo the hair every week or to with pure soap and water.

Use Parisian Sage every day, rubbing thoroughly into the scalp.

Parisian Sage, which comes in a large 50 cent bottle, is guaranteed by E. W. Mair to destroy dandruff germs and abolish Candruft—to stop hair from falling and scalp from itching, or money refunded.

To put life and beauty into dull, dry or faded hair and make it soft and fluffy surely use Parisian Sage—it is one of the quickest acting hair tonics known.

The funeral of the late Samuel Bird, which took place from his home Keswick, Friday afternoon, was largely attended. Messrs. Joseph and Daniel Richards, brothers of the widow, formerly Miss Margaret Richards, were present. The service was conducted at the Methodist church, Smith's Corner, by Rev. Mr. Fenwick, assisted by Rev. Mr. Ramsey. Interment was made at Smith's Corner. The mourners were the widow, Tilley Bird, son of the deceased, and James Bird, Frank Bird, Fred Bird and John Bird, brothers of the deceased. Two daughters, Mrs. Hooper and Miss Nellie Bird of Lynn, Mass., also attended the funeral.

On Tuesday, Nov. 18th, at the residence of her son-in-law, Harvey A. Coon, Weston, Ont., Isabella Damaris McGee, widow of the late Sylvester Smith, of Mountain Hall, Winona, in the 82nd year of her age.

Funeral (private) on Thursday, Nov. 20, from the house at Weston at 10 a.m., and from the C. P. R. train on arriving at Hamilton at 2.15 p.m. to Stoney Creek Cemetery.

Josiah VanTassel, aged 77, died at his home here on Friday, November 21st. The deceased leaves a wife and one son to mourn their loss. Mr. VanTassel was a life long liberal and a highly honorable citizen.

The funeral took place Saturday, with burial at Woodstock, the pall bearers being C. Allen Smith, Robt. Montgomery, John Davis and Alex. Dickinson.

Mrs. Calvin Churchill, one of our aged residents, who has many friends in this county, died on Thursday at the home of her nephew, Thos. Corbett, Lakeville, aged 81 years. She is survived by one sister, Mr. John Smith and one brother, Howells Corbett, both of Lakeville. The services were conducted at Lakeville by Rev. Mr. Pierce, and on Saturday at Jacksonville by Rev. Henry Penna, the burial being in the cemetery of the latter village. The pall bearers were George Smith, Robt. Smith, Hanford Lindsay and Thomas Corbett.

CANTERBURY STATION.

Miss Ruth Green of McAdam is spending this week with her friend, Miss Bessie London. Miss Green has lately returned from a trip to the Continent and among the many places of note visited were St. Pauls, London, England, also Blarney Castle in Ireland where the Shamrock grows and the River Shannon flows; and also wandered with Mary, my own Blue Bell, among the bloom-in' heather in bonny Scotland.

Ed. London, one of our enterprising merchants, has started a real estate business as a side line and is doing a hustling business buying vacant farms and selling them again. Ed. is a booster and deserves great credit.

There was a pound party at the Hillman farm in Californis Settlement, last Tuesday evening, which was a swell affair. All the young folks from Canterbury were there and all enjoyed themselves. The usual country games were indulged in. Music furnished by Walter Cunningham on the violin.

Moses Hillman has moved from the farm to town again, and intends starting his blacksmith shop for the winter.

Miss Reta McMullin is around again after a severe illness.

Miss Cassie McDonald, the genial and smiling manager of London's Department Store was busy last week filling orders for Hastings Lumber Camps across the Lakes. Miss Cassie is a smart business girl. Miss Edna McMullin, Dead Creek, was visiting her cousin Reta one day last week.

Hamilton's saw mill is going to start sawing again Monday and will finish for the season and empty and clean boilers.

Mrs. Ellen Cunningham, Bel Lake, died last Wednesday. Interment was at Skiff Lake cemetery. The burial service was conducted by the Rev. J. E. Flewelling, Rector of Trinity church, Canterbury.

George Jarvis has started a truck team in Canterbury. Any one who needs his service will please leave orders with Harry Price at the Post Office.

Earl Jarvis was busy racking potatoes last week for Charles Price.

Paris, Nov. 19—Jack Johnson was matched today to fight Frank Moran

Buy this oven-tested flour

Your oven will certainly produce more bread and better bread as a result of our oven test.

From each shipment of wheat delivered at our mills we take a ten-pound sample. It is ground into flour. We bake bread from this flour. If this bread is high in quality and large in quantity we use the shipment of wheat from which it came. Otherwise, we sell it.

The baking quality of flour sold under this name is therefore an exact certainty. Buy and benefit!

"More Bread and Better Bread" and "Better Pastry Too"

Yes, they are neat!

And they're just as comfortable as they look. I have worn this kind for years and I never knew what hose satisfaction was until I got them. You should try Penmans Hosiery—they retain their shapeliness—set snug to foot and limb and wear much longer than ordinary hose. an in the second week in January at Paris for the heavyweight championship of the world. Two clubs, the Nouveau Cirque, and Wonderland Francis, are now bidding for the fight. The Nouveau Cirque which would hold the bout at the Velodrome D'hiver, in Passy, sits 30,000 and has offered Johnson fifty per cent. of the gross gate and Moran twenty-five. The Wonderland club which is under the control of Theodore Vienne, the biggest French fight promoter, submits its bid to-morrow.

Johnson is willing to fight Moran and defend his title on account of the recent action of the International Boxing Union declaring the heavyweight title vacant. Dan McKetterick, Moran's manager, said the reports that Johnson's finances now require his re-entrance to the ring are erroneous. Johnson and his wife have jewels worth $30,000 and have taken a $100 per month apartment in Passy after buying a new motor. McKetterick also says both he and Johnson prefer M. Vienne's club to get the fight, which would then be held in Luna Park, Paris, where they can draw a big society house.
