TOWN COUNCIL IN REGULAR SESSION

Treasurer's Report for Nine Months
Read

Imperial Packing Company's New Proposition Causes Sharp
Discussion

The guardians of the town's interests met in regular monthly session Monday night.

Couns. Gallagher and Lindsay were absent. The report of the town treasurer was read and referred to the finance committee. A number of bills were presented and referred to the audit committee.

John Bagley, driver of the town team, resigned and the question of filling the vacancy was laid over until Coun. Lindsay's return—he being the chairman of the fire department.

A sharp discussion took place over a move to relieve the Imperial Packing Company of the lien on the property held by the town. Coun. Balmaiter intimated that if some arrangements were not made to take the lien off, the company would suspend operations, as it was found to be very hard to finance the concern with this mortgage hanging over it. He was supported by Coun. Dibley who would regret to see the concern go out of business. The town could help it very materially by relieving its claim and he thought it should be done. Coun. Farden opposed any such move, as the proposed deal savored strongly of some private interests being served. He would suggest some guarantee being given that a change of ownership would run the concern for a stipulated time.

Coun. A. E. Jones spoke strongly against the proposed action. The town had given this company $5,000 and no part of the agreement had been lived up and now we have the preposterous proposition that we waive our claim—to whom? It doesn't look right and it is not right. It is a strange proceeding that this Council is threatened if it will not act as requested. Who is behind all this? The town has $5,000 invested in this property and it is a piece of imposition to come here and ask that the claim be withdrawn. For one I am opposed to it and will not be a party to any such deal.

The matter was allowed to drop for the present.

MR. CARVELL GETS GREAT RECEPTION IN GUYSBORO

With Messrs. Sinclair and Carroll Able Presented Case for Liberals Immense Audiences Welcome
The Speakers—Member for Carleton Gives Masterly Exposition of Navy Question

(Halifax Chronicle)

GUYSBORO, Oct. 4.—One of the largest and most representative political gatherings ever seen here turned out last evening to hear the public questions of the day discussed by three able Liberal members of Parliament, Messrs. Sinclair, Carvell and Carroll. The meeting was held in the Town Hall was called to order at eight o'clock, with D. P. Floyd, barrister, in the chair. The building was crowded far beyond its seating capacity by an enthusiastic audience composed of both Liberals and Conservatives, although naturally, the former greatly predominated.

This was Mr. Carvell's first appearance on a Guysboro platform, but we hope it will not be his last. There is nothing flowery or affected about Mr. Carvell. His whole address was a steady flow of logical argument that for simplicity of style and satisfactory completeness has not been heard on a Guysboro platform for some time. He held the close attention of his audience throughout a long and rapidly flowing speech. The only regret one felt at the close was that one could not remember this or that concise statement of fact, put in so plain and bold a manner by the speaker. Appreciative applause would break out spontaneously over the house first here and there, as some point or other scored by the speaker sank home. In speaking of reciprocity and the whole trade and tariff question, which Mr. Carvell fully discussed, he said that one of the great principles of Liberalism was to regulate the tariff that the revenue would be sufficient and only sufficient to run the country. He believed that any higher tariff than that was simply taking more money from the people than could be justified and that the revenue of the country in 1911, when reciprocity with the United States was postponed, was in such a flourishing condition that they could easily have afforded to lose the one or two millions in revenue, which would have resulted particularly as the increased market of the twenty million or more people within a day's travel of the line would prove such a stimulant to the Canadian producer and that transaction would more than balance in comparison.

However, as opposed to this Liberal principals of adequate revenue we find the revenue of Canada last year under the Tory regime to be fifty-five millions more from the people of Canada than was required to run the Government of the country. Mr. Carvell stated that in Woodstock, N.B., potatoes were recently selling for seventy-five cents a barrel and at the same time within a few miles across the border they were selling for one dollar and fifty cents a barrel. Potato raising was an important industry of his County of Carleton, N. B., and he estimated that his County alone lost four hundred thousand dollars by their not having reciprocity with the United States. The speaker then took up the question of the British Preference and the Liberal policy thereto.

HUGE COST OF THE MILITIA
In opening his remarks in reference to the navy question Mr. Carvell said that he wished it was possible to abolish all armies and navies, both from the humane standpoint and the tremendous cost of the upkeep of both, but that the present condition of international affairs made this impossible. He referred to the tremendous increase in the militia expenditure under Col. Sam Hughes. Last year this alone ran into the alarming figures of twelve million dollars. He went into the history of the whole navy question as it applied to Canada, comparing the Tory policy of tribute and English built ships with the Liberal policy of a Canadian built, owned and manned navy, greatly to the discredit of the former.

In speaking of the Nationalist faction of Quebec and the ultra-Imperialists of Ontario, the speaker coined a happy phrase by calling the ultra-Imperialists the Pharisees of Canada.

BORDEN'S GREAT FAKE.
He emphasized the statement that no greater fake was ever attempted to be perpetrated upon any people than the "emergency" and the German scare with intent to fitch the pockets of the Canadian people to the extent of thirty-five millions for the sole purpose of enriching the armament manufacturers of the Old Country and a probable rake-off of some bundle funds. The reason the Liberals fought so tenaciously to defeat this Emergency Bill from going through was because they knew they were in the right. That the "emergency" was a fake and the recent navy move of the British Admiralty by disbanding their North Sea squadron has proved to the public that they were right.

Upon Mr. Carvell taking his seat amid applause the audience sang "O Canada."

POPULAR YOUNG LADY WILL CHERISH GOOD WISHES OF OLD FRIENDS

Address and Presentation on Eve of Her Departure

Miss Gertrude K. Courtney, of late an experienced and popular young saleslady of the Manzer emporium, and who recently resigned a leading position there with the intention of pursuing a course of Hospital training, experienced a genuine surprise on Thursday evening last, by an unexpected visit from members of the staff and other lady friends. A wild rainstorm was prevailing but this did not prove a deterrent to the visiting party who chose that time to present to Miss Courtney a useful travelling companion in the form of a valuable specimen of ladies satchel accompanied by a lengthy address which read as follows:—

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 2, 1913.

Miss Gertrude K. Courtney,—
We (the undersigned) have learned of your contemplated departure from the midst of many friends inclusive of co-operatives in the busy life so well known in emporiums who largely minister to the arbitrariness of a fashionable world.

While we regret the separation,

THE WORLD'S SERIES

Philadelphia Wins First Game—
New York Takes Second

New York, Oct. 7.—Neither the New York Giants' much-vaunted pitching

staff, nor the cunning of wily Bender were sufficient to keep in check today, in the first clash of the world's series, the great stick-work of either team.

hander, was driven from the mound

after four innings in which his offerings were pounded mercilessly, including a home-run by Baker, in the fourth, and an earlier three-base hit by Wally, Schang. Baker's circuit hit, sending Collins in ahead of him, was good for two runs, and Schang's smash drove in another pair.

"Old Doc" Crandall and his magic pill did more than Marquard to keep Mack's demon slugsmiths under control.

New York won Wednesday's contest

by 3 to 0. Not a run was scored until the 10th inning.

even temporarily, from one to whom we have long cherished the kindest

of friendly relations, and as we ask of you to accept this slight token of our esteem and regard, we wish also to tender the assurance of our good wishes that the new field of action,

which you now have chosen, will prove to you a successful and profitable one and yield the merits which follow a faithful, cheerful and dutiful administration to the needs of afflicted humanity.
