OBITUARY

J. LEWIS MILMORE.

The death of "Lou" Milmore, occurred at Edmonton, Alberta, on Wednesday, October 1st. He was well known and highly esteemed for his many excellent virtues, and will be greatly missed by his many friends.

Deceased was the son of J. C. Milmore of Woodstock and received his education in this town. After graduating from the High School, he studied law with Hon. W. P. Jones for a couple of years and successfully passed the preliminary examinations.

Prefering newspaper work to law, he did some special writing for the local newspapers, and wishing to follow the profession in Boston, he was given, by the manager of the Press, letters of recommendation to the Raymond Bros. of Boston, formerly of Woodstock, and to the editor of the Boston Post. After working for the Messrs. Raymond in their general stores, an opening was made for him on the Post, which he accepted and continued in that position for a few years. Returning home owing to the sickness of his mother, he played ball one summer with the local team, after which he accepted the position of editor and manager of the Victoria County News.

About a year ago his health beginning to fail he left for the milder climate in the Canadian West. He was employed as clerk in railway construction work, but not feeling well he entered the hospital in Edmonton a few months ago where he remained until his death. He was an all-round athlete and was the best baseball pitcher turned out by the town. As a newspaper man when in the employ of the Boston Post he was considered one of its best reporters.

The deceased, who was 28 years of age, is survived by his father, two brothers, T. Emmett Milmore, editor of a paper in Murray Co., Georgia, Baltimore, Md., Nov 11, 1903. Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.

Sirs,—I came across a bottle of your MINARD'S LINIMENT in the hands of one of the students at the University of Maryland, and he being so kind as to let me use it for a very bad sprain, which I obtained in training for foot races, and to say that it helped me would be putting it very mildly, and I therefore ask if you would let me know of one of your agents that is closest to Baltimore so that I may obtain some of it. Thanking you in advance I remain,

Yours truly,
W. C. McQUEAN.
