Minutes Mean Dollars
IN TREATING ANIMALS

Doubleless you know the danger of delayed treatment of colic and other diseases. You also realize that wrongly applied remedies are often worse than no treatment at all. In other words, not to diagnose a disease accurately may prove fatal. Every owner should be able to recognize an ailment and give correct treatment at the first symptoms. Prompt action is the great secret of treating horses.

Minutes mean dollars. Of course proper treatment is always necessary. That is just how Humphrey's 50 page Veterinary Manual will prove so valuable to you. It is by F. Humphrey, M.D., V.S., and teaches how to diagnose and give proper treatment.

This book will save you hundreds of dollars and costs you nothing. It will be sent absolutely free on request to any farmer in order to introduce Humphrey's Veterinary Remedies. Remember, it is absolutely free. You do not have to order any remedies to secure the book. Address, Humphrey's Homeopathic Medicine Company, 126 William Street, New York City. This is a splendid opportunity to obtain a veterinary treatise that you should have in your library. As a reference work you will find it invaluable. To have it in the time of need will be worth many dollars, whereas it will cost you but a postcard by writing for it now.

MARRIED

DAVIDSON-GILLISS.

On Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 1st, at three o'clock, a very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Baker, when Miss Annie Isabella Gilliss, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gilliss, was married to Mr. W. S. Davidson of Fort Fairfield, Maine. Rev. F. Baird of St. Paul's Presbyterian church performed the ceremony in the presence of about twenty-five of the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The house was prettily decorated with ferns and cut flowers. The bride, who was unattended, was charmingly gowned in ivory charmeuse satin, with pointed train and trimmed with lace and pearl trimming. Her tulle veil was arranged in Juliet cap effect, with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. A large number of gifts were received. The groom's present being a pearl and sapphire pendant. After luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Davidson left for a trip to Boston and New York. On their return they will reside in Fort Fairfield, Me.

MILES-SMITH.

A fashionable wedding took place Wednesday afternoon when Miss Mary Marguerite Smith was united in marriage with Edward Lancelot Miles of Calgary. The ceremony was held in St. Luke's church, Rev. A. S. Hazel officiating. Young friends of the bride had decorated the church very tastefully with autumn flowers. The bride wore her travelling suit of navy blue serge, with black picture hat, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Maud Smith, wore a gown of brown velvet trimmed with lace and fur, with brown velvet hat with tango plume, and carried a bouquet of crimson roses. The groom was supported by Mr. John Haddon, of Winnipeg. After the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miles of North Bay, Mr. Perley Miles of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. David Leddingham of St. John, Dr. and Mrs. Mann of Houlton, Me., and Mrs. Frank Ketchum of Houlton.

The groom is a member of the Gault Engineering Company of Winnipeg and Toronto.

The newly married couple left on the evening train for a honeymoon trip that will include the principal American and Canadian cities. They will reside in Calgary.

GLIDDEN-LINDSAY.

The home of Herbert Lindsay was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday afternoon, when his daughter Pearl Lindsay was united in marriage to Arthur Glidden. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. W. Teed. Mr. Robert Hamilton acted as best man and Miss Addie Drake as bridesmaid.

A reception, attended by a large number of guests, was held at the home of the bride. Many beautiful and useful presents were received. The young couple went out on the evening train and will visit Boston, New York and other cities before returning to make their home in Woodstock.

TOMPKINS-DeFOREST.

A wedding of much interest to their many friends was solemnized at six o'clock Thursday morning in Trinity church, St. John, when the rector, Rev. R. A. Armstrong, united in marriage Charles Stanley Tompkins, son of Colonel J. R. Tompkins of Woodstock, N. B., and at present a member of the staff of the Bank of Vancouver, in Vancouver and Miss Hazel Marie, daughter of Mrs. DeForest and the late Arthur F. DeForest of St. John.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a dark blue tailored suit, an Alice blue velvet hat with lynx furs, and carried a white prayer book. The ceremony was a quiet one but, in addition to the relatives of the bride and bridegroom, a large number of their friends also were present.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins left on the morning train for Woodstock and from there proceeded direct to Vancouver.
